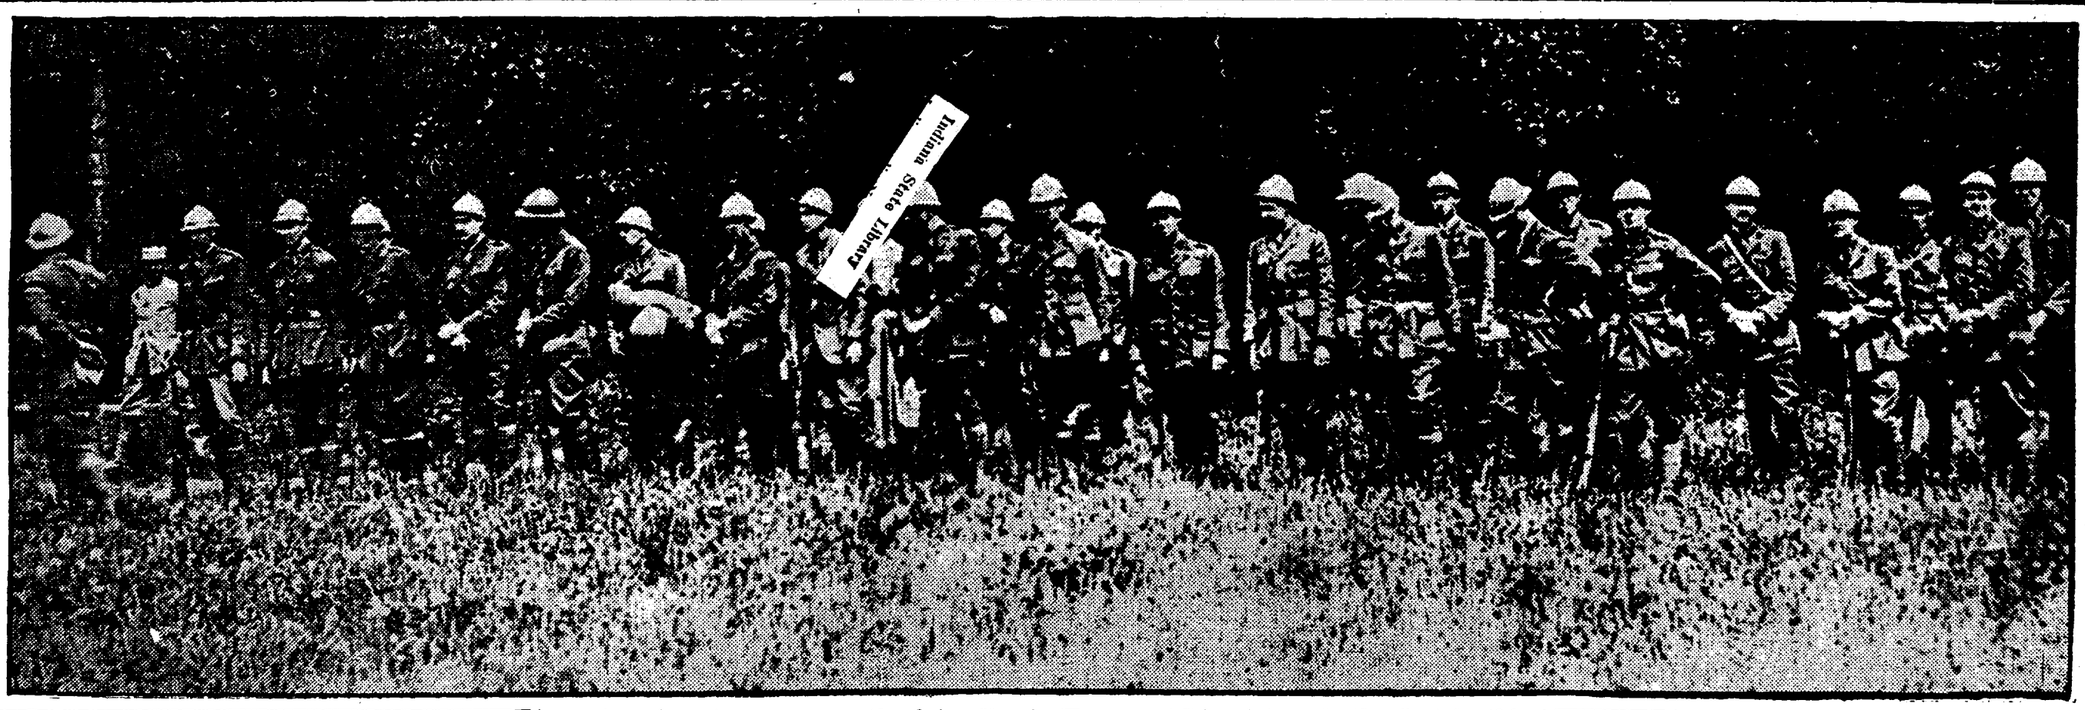
PERSHING'S ARMY HAS LANDED IN FRANCE

FIRST PICTURE OF AMERICAN TROOPS IN FRANCE



American troops are on the firing line in France. This picture is the first in this country. They are shown for the first timewearing metal helmets such as all U. S. troops will wear in Europe. This picture, exclusive from Kenneth Payne, London correspondent, reaches here before any wire announcement of the presence of armed American troops on the battle front. It is passed by the censors, and so constitutes the first official announcement that our armed soldiers are fighting beside our French and British allies. These troops reached the front May 24, and are commanded by Capt. E. J. Tinkham.

AMERICAN ARMY DISEMBARKS AT A FRENCH PORT

Second Contingent of United States Troops Safely Voyages Atlantic and Is Ready for Service.

AMERICAN WOODMEN REACH ENGLAND

A French Port, June 27.—The second contingent of American troops arrived and disembarked this morning.

The troops landsd amid the frantic cheers of the people, who had gathered for hours before in anticipation of duplication of yesterday's surprise.

Enthusiasm rose to fever pitch when it was learned that the transports and convoys had successfully passed the submarine zone. The port was speedily beflagged in honor of the occasion. The troops were transferred to a camp not far distant from this port, where Major General Wm. L. Sibert is installed.

Thence they probably will go soon to a point near the front. All the troops are in excellent shape, enthusiastic over the successful trip and their reception and eager for action.

EX-CZAR'S LADY FRIEND WANTS SOME MILLIONS

Petrograd, June 26.—(Delayed)—Mademoiselle Kahesinska, the dancer and favorite of the former emperor, has instituted suit against the provisional government for two million rubles owing to its failure to eject the followers of Nikoli Lenine, the radical socialist leader, from her palace, which they occupied during the revolution, and the refusal of the government to send troops to evict Lenine. The period for the evacuation of the villa expired today but the Leninites decline to leave.

A dispatch from Petrograd, May 29, said that after a long process in the courts, the keys of the palace had been delivered to Mademoiselle Kahesinska. At the time the dancer complained that furniture valued at 227,000 rubles was missing from the palace.

FAR WEST SHAMES EASTERN STATES

But Little Old Indiana is Well Up With the Leaders.

Washington, June 27.—With recruiting week half gone, war department officials estimated today that the regular army still is more than fifty thousand men short of war strength, the goal it had been hoped to attain by Friday night.

On the face of the returns so far, it is apparent that there has been no general response among men of military age to President Wilson's call for 70,000 volunteers during the week to fill up the ranks of the regular establishment and thus complete the first

THINK COCCHI'S MIND IS LOOSE FROM MOORINGS

Bologna, June 27.—An effort will probably be made to have Alfred Cocchi, the slayer of Ruth Cruger in New York, undergo a mental examination. Signor Venturini, Cocchi's attorney, believes such an examination is indispensible, as he is of the opinion that the man is not entirely responsible for his actions. According to the defense even Cocchi's behavior in prison is not that of an entirely sane person.

MEXICO RAISES IMPORT DUTIES ON NECESSITIES

Mexico City, June 27.—By order of the government all import duties were removed last night from articles of prime necessity, including foodstuffs, from July 1 to December 31. Import duties were also removed on gasoline and higher derivitives of petroleum. This places the refiners in Mexico in competition with refiners in the United States and undoubtedly brought about the sudden rise here in the price of gasoline from 21 to 50 centavos per litre, or approximately 50 cents a gallon.

RUSSIA WILL STAY IN WAR

Workmen's and Soldiers' Congress Declare for Loyalty to Allies.

WILL NOT MAKE A SEPARATE PEACE

Congress, However, Asserts That Early Peace is Necessary.

Petrograd, June 27.—A resolution categorically rejecting any move for a separate peace between Germany and Russia has been adopted by an overwhelming majority by the congress of workmen's and soldiers' deputies of all Russia.

The resolution at the same time declares that restoration of peace at the earliest possible day is the most important need of the Russian revolutionary democracy.

The resolution, which was proposed by revolutionary socialists and the social democrats, says:

"The present war arose in consequence of aspirations of imperialists prevailing among the ruling classes of all countries and tending toward the usurpation of markets and submission to their economic and political influence of small and decadent nations.

The war is leading to complete exof one of the belligerents would conand is placing the Russian revolution on the edge of a precipice. While

ALL RIGHT, BUT WHENCE COMETH THE STURDY LOG

Washington, D. C., June 27.—Restoration of the backyard wood pile as a precautionary measure against a possible coal shortage next winter is urged by the government forest service. Facilities will be furnished to those who desire to remove timber from national forests for use as fuel. Last year 250,000 cords of wood were permitted to be taken from the government preserves. A nation-wide use of wood as a fuel, it is believed, would help solve the transportation problem and relieve the increasing demand of industrial plants for coal.

Washington, June 27.—President Wilson may not approve the $26,000,000 river and harbor bill if it comes to him without provision for a presidential commission to study the waterway situation. Provision for such a commission, which the president strongly favored, was stricken out of the bill on a point of order in the house yesterday. After the bill is voted on finally in the house, which was expected today, it will go to the senate.

DAMAGE TO OLD DEWEY FLAGSHIP NOT YET KNOWN

Newport, R. I., June 27.—The condition of the United States cruiser, Olympia, which struck on a shoal in Block Island sound yesterday, was not revealed by navy authorities today. Although the crew abandoned the warship and came to the naval station here, reports sent to the navy department last night said the ship was resting easily. It was believed that she had sustained considerable damage. Whether an attempt to float the Olympia would be made today could not be learned.

New York, June 27.—A number of secret service men today were assigned to guard the court room at the trials of Alexander Berkman, editor of The Blast, and Emma Goldman in the United States district court. Both were indicted recently for conspiracy to obstruct the operation of the selective draft law and are out on $25,000 cash bail each. The court room was ordered guarded following the receipt of threatening letters by Judge Mayer, who will try the case, and Harold A. Content, an assistant United States attorney.

Washington, June 27.—Henry L. CROP OUTLOOK IS PROMISING

Less Rain and More Sunshine is Badly Needed for the Corn.

WILL CUT WHEAT IN ABOUT THREE WEEKS

Indications Are That Apple Crop Will Be Extremely Disappointing.

Crop prospects in Allen county are most encouraging, notwithstanding there has been more than a suffciency of rain. Corn is especially in need of dry weather.

Wheat in Allen county will be ready to cut in three weeks, and not much of it before that time, in the opinion of A. J. Hutchins, county agricultural agent. In some parts of the county the heads are now beginning to turn. The crop is much better than was anticipated.

Some clover is already being cut and within another week clover cutting will be general throughout the county. The clover is at its best. Most farmers are turning this clover into pigs—or the pigs into the clover, or both—except where they have a large surplus, as there is more money in pork at present prices than in almost anything else.

Oats and rye are in very good condition. The extremely wet weather has had some effect on corn, but in the opinion of Mr. Hutchins, no serious damage has been done up to the present time. Farmers predict at least a normal corn crop.

Indications are for a poor apple crop. Cherries will probably be scarce and there will be only about a half crop of peaches.

the Indiana commission to order preference given to certain kinds of freight," he wrote, "and the heavy demurrage charges and the limitation on the right to reconsign coal and then with an adequate force of inspectors to see to it that these orders are carried out, the coal situation can be largely worked out.

Operators Playing Horse.

"That the operators do not want an adequate supply of cars is being conclusively demonstrated in our state. We find them loading cars light, and slow about loading cars when delivered to them. In many cases large consumers of coal, too, are allowed to remain in cars, paying a light demurrage; so the demurrage should be prohibitive after the first forty-eight hours."

Assurances Given.

Assurances that the government and general public will be furnished coal at a reasonable price were given by representatives of both hard and soft coal interests, who again today conferred with the national defense council's coal committee. This is the coal operators' answer to warnings by Secretaries Lane and Daniels and others that unless they established fair prices and proper regulations their output would be taken over by the government.

The price of coal is to be determined, with the defense council's coal committee approval, by a special producers' committee which aims also to increase production and facilitate distribution.

AMERICAN SHIP SENT TO BOTTOM BY GERMAN BOMB

London, June 27.—The American sailing steamship Galena, 1,048 tons, was sunk by a bomb on June 25. There were no casualties.

The Galena was sunk off Ushant island (off the coast of France, 26 miles northwest of Brest). Fifteen survivors were taken to Brest.

NORWEGIAN SHIP SUNK.

London, June 27.—A Central news dispatch from Copenhagen says the Norwegian steamship Konghaakon has been sunk by a German submarine and that only six of the crew were saved. (There are two Norwegian ships Konghaakon of 2,231 and 874 tons gross). The Norwegian steamship Maggie (1,118 tons gross) has been sunk in the Atlantic. The crew was saved.

PIONEER BREWER CALLED BY DEATH

Xavier Hammerle Passes Away After Illness of Five Weeks.

Xavier Hammerle, aged 70 years, died at 5:20 o'clock Wednesday morning at his home, 1157 West Main street. Death was caused by paralysis, and followed an illness of five weeks' duration. The deceased had lived in Fort Wayne for the past fifty-two years, having been born in Germany. He would have celebrated his fiftieth wedding anniversary next May. Mr. Hammerle engaged in the brewing business in this city fifty years ago, starting the Nierman Brewing company, which was located at the corner of Superior and Harrison streets. He remained in this business for twenty years, when he opened a saloon in Nebraska. He retired from active business ten years ago. He was a member of the St. Paul's Catholic church, Holy Name society and Sacred Heart league. Surviving are the wife and six children, Edward, John, Otto, Frank and Anna Hammerle and Mrs. Theodore Witzingreuter. Five grandchildren and one great grandchild also survive.

Funeral services at St. Paul's Catholice church Saturday morning at an hour to be announced later.

FRENCH CHAMP CARPENTIER IS HEADED ACROSS

New York, June 27.—George Carpentier, the famous French army aviator and light heavyweight boxer, will visit America within the next few weeks, according to R. C. Kelgin, a boxing promoter, who has just returned from France. Carpentier, however, will not accept any engagements to meet American boxers while here, but will confine his activities to aiding recruiting for the French army flying corps. Carpentier will show some official war films depicting the work of the French army flying corps.

Several months ago there were persistent reports that Carpentier would come to America to engage in a bout with either Jesse Willard or the late Les Darcey. However, negotiations to this end failed, because, it is said, the French government would not grant a furlough.

ARGENTINE SEEKS PEACE

Latin-America in the world conflict will be determined and at which will be discussed how peace can best be brought about.

The diplomat said that the invitation from Argentina was sent about a month ago and Mexico had accepted.

Time Not Fixed.

The time for holding the congress, he said, was unfixed but urgent efforts are being made to hold it in the immediate future. It is understood that the fact that congress would include only Latin-American countries instead of the whole western hemisphere has been widely discussed by the South and Central American newspapers in view of the United States' entry into the war, some holding that a congress without the United States was important, others declaring Latin-America should take its own course regardless of the attitude of the United States.

United States Ignored.

Wide discussion continues over the declaration by the newspaper El Universal here that the most advantageous course for Mexico was to break relations with Germany. El Universal asserts that the propaganda represents the real opinion of thinking Mexicans. El Democrata attacks the proposal as unpatriotic in view of the fact that the government has declared a policy of strict neutrality and describes the horrors facing Mexican soldiers if sent to Europe.

RUSSIA WILL STAY IN WAR

making millions of victims and absorbing billions of the wealth of the countries, it threatens to increase still more the disorder in which Russia was left by the old regime, leading to famine and turning the country from productive labor for consolidation of its newly won liberty.

"The congress recognizes first that ending the war by means of the defeat o fone of the belligerents would constitute the point of departure for fresh wars, increase dissensions among the nations and lead them to complete exhaustion, famine and ruin. Second, that a separate peace would strengthen one of the belligerents and give it the possibility of a decisive victory over the others and would strengthen aspirations towards usurpation by the ruling classes, and while liberating Russia from the grip of world-wide imperialism, would hinder international unification of workers. Consequently the congress categorically rejects every policy tending in fact to the conclusion of a separate peace or to its prelude a separate armistice."

The workmen's and soldiers' deputies will send a delegation to Sweden, France and England to prepare for the convocation of an international conference on the base of the program adopted by the executive committee.

CALLING IN ALL MEMBERS

Equipment of Battery D is Rapidly Being Rounded Into Shape.

PREPARE TO LEAVE WITHIN A FEW DAYS

Company E, Infantry, Holds Election of Non-Commissioned Officers.

Assembly bugle is being blown by Battery D's bugler.

Following the order to mobilize, which was received Tuesday afternoon the officers with Lieutenant Luther Mertz in charge have set about calling in all the members of the organization. Those who could be reached by telephone were informed of the order in this manner.

Members who reside in the vicinity of Fort Wayne, were ordered by mail to report to the State street armory. Those boys who have gone to distant cities were informed by telegram. It is the opinion of the officers that all the members will have reported by Friday noon.

While a large force of men are doing clerical work, the larger number are engaged in rounding the equipment into order. Everything at the armory has assumed a military aspect.

Officers are of the opinion that they will be called to Fort Benjamin Harrison, Saturday. Although the boys are kept busy at the armory, nevertheless the chief topic of conversation is about the appointment of Lieutenant Dawson as captain of the organization. They still insist that Luther Mertz should be given the captaincy of the battery.

Company E Elects.

In view of the fact that many of the non-commissioned officers in Company E, the infantry unit of Fort Wayne, were given honorable discharges upon the return of this organization from the border, the vacancies were filled at the election of officers held Monday.

Sergeant Lynn Shoub was made top-sergeant. Others who were appointed as sergeants are: Herbert Loomis, Jay Fish, Harold Dennison, Walter Wheeler. The following men were named corporals: Paul Hunt, James Reynolds, Seal Ramsey, Dysert Ravenhall, Frank Barnett.

May Draft for Men.

In order to fill the ranks of Battery B, drafting in the state of Indiana may be inaugurated in Fort Wayne, according to local military officials. However, it is sincerely hoped that enough young men of this city will respond to the call for volunteers in order to fill the ranks of both batteries. Battery D is also in need of a few men.

Drill Schedule Received.

A schedule of drills for Company E has been received by Captain Ray McAdams. Recruits who have enlisted since June 25 and will enlist will be given special attention. According to the schedule drills must be held twice a week and school once a week.

DUTCH IN GLEE OVER BARGAIN WITH GERMANS

Amsterdam, June 27.—A dispatch from Amsterdam says that several Dutch newspapers approve the agreement between the Dutch and German governments with regard to the seven Dutch merchantmen which were torpedoed off the English coast last February. Holland is to pay Germany a sum equal to the total amount paid for insurance on the merchantmen, while Germany undertakes to replace the lost vessels by the cession of a number of ships in the Dutch East Indies. The Telegraaf describes the agreement as a pleasant surprise and the finest success for Dutch diplomacy since the beginning of the war.

sistent demand. He has been succeeded by Admiral Paul von Fintze, former minister to Mexico and Cuba.

Discovery of the German plot to destroy Norwegian steamers by explosives, unearthed late last week, has appalled the whole nation. The newspapers demand publication of all the facts in the case and of the steps which are being taken to bring the matter to the attention of the German government.

In all a ton of explosives has been discovered, concealed in artificial lumps of coal which presumably were to be placed in ship's bunkers and in bombs filled with the most ingenious mechanism.

It has developed that a trunkful of explosives was brought to Christina in February by a courier of the German foreign office, whose official seal was on the trunk. The trunk was addressed to the German embassy here and according to international usage it was admitted without examination.

After the discovery of the explosives the German embassy declared the trunk was destined for Finland, but no explanation was given as to why it had remained here so long.

The explosives were found in all manner of articles, including glass vials, fountain pens, pencils, cigarettes and tobacco.

ucts, lumber and timber are additional articles to which government control would be extended during the war under amendments to the food control bill adopted today by a senate agriculture committee.

By a vote of 8 to 7 the senate agriculture committee rejected the sub-committee's prohibition plan and proceeded to consider other substitute proposals.

After rejecting the sub-committee's prohibition plan the full committee adopted the house prohibition provisions with a modification as to manufacture of vinous beverages. The new provisions would prohibit manufacture of all intoxicants, including both distilled spirits and malt beverages and wines, but would allow the president discretion to permit further manufacture of wine only.

big military preparation in the war against Germany.

Drive Falls Below Average.

Returns for the first three days, in fact were below the average of the weeks preceding. They were far below the expectations of officials here who had been confident that the president's direct and clear cut appeal for volunteers would bring home to thousands the fact that their country needs them at once. While officials believe that in most communities the press and other semi-public agencies have responded to the request for co-operation in stimulating interest in the recruiting campaign they also are convinced that in some places the president's appeal had not been placed properly before the men who are eligible. Yesterday twenty-six states reported that they had secured during the day less than ten recruits each. Three states reported no recruits at all. Undoubtedly the remaining days of the week will see greater activity and officials still hope great gains in recruiting totals will result.

Still Have Faith.

They believe many hundreds of men of the class called upon by the president are only beginning now to realize the urgency of the call and will not allow recruiting week to go by without offering themselves for their country's service.

Only nine states are on the honor roll of those which have completed their quota of war volunteers. Only eight others have their quota 75 per cent complete. Twenty are below the 50 per cent line and six are below 25 per cent. Nevada has set a mark for all other states to shoot at, with her total war volunters to date exceeding her quota by a ratio of almost 4 to 1. Called upon for 162 men the state has enlisted 630. Oregon and Utah are running a neck and neck race for second place with their over enlistment approaching the 200 per cent mark. Down at the other end of the line is Vermont with only 79 men in a quota of 710.

GERMANS WARNED OF WORSE YET TO COME

Allowance of Fat Next Winter Will Be Less Than Now.

Copenhagen, June 27.—Germans are informed officially that rations of fat next winter will be less than the scanty allowance of 50 grams weekly last winter, and that therefore marmalade, preserves, etc., must be relied on almost exclusively to render the daily bread palatable.

Following the precedent set in the French revolution the central bureau charged with the distribution of fruits and vegetables has introduced a new division of time. The year hereafter will be divided into nine marmalade months and three compote months according to the materials for bread spreading.

Although the announcement has a semi-humorous appearance, it has serious bearing for it emphasizes measures taken to check the export from the United States of fats to Germany and also of shipments of apples, which occasionally reach the central empires from America. The bureau also contemplates a regulation limiting individual purchases of fruit to two or three pounds at a time, so as to make the supply go around.

Indianapolis, June 27.—An immediate session of the Indiana legislature is in prospect unless congress enacts legislation giving President Wilson power to fix coal prices and regulate the distribution of the fuel at prices other than what the Indiana public service commission has termed "outrageous." AMERICAN ARMY DISEMBARKS AT A FRENCH PORT

Maj. Gen. Pershing, the American commander, is expected tomorrow, when additional troops are expected. The harbor is dotted with convoys. The streets are filled with soldiers in khaki and wth bluejackets.

Great numbers of trucks are transporting immense supplies to the camp in whcih the troops are concentrating.

PART OF PERSHING'S FORCE.

Washington, June 27.—The epochal landing of American troops in France cannot be fully discussed at this time for obvious reasons.

It is entirely permissible to say that they are part of the force which will be under command of Major General Pershing and for whose arrival the general and his staff have been arranging ever since they landed on the other side. The American troops will be an entirely independent command, just as are the British troops, working, of course, with the French at the head of operations as they are on French soil.

WOODMEN REACH ENGLAND.

London, June 27.—Ten units of American woodmen sent over by New England states and organizations to turn various forests of the United Kingdom into lumber have arrived on English soil.

The complete equipments of the units caused much surprise and occasioned a great deal of favorable comment. The woodmen brought with them not only the necessary machinery, but were fully equipped in every way even to lubricating oils. Their arrival found them ready to establish their sawmills and begin work. The only necessity for their maintenance is raw food, which their own cooks will prepare.

GERMANY'S GOLD GOES DOWN.

Amsterdam, June 27.—The Frankfurter Zeitung says there are indications that the next returns of the imperial bank of Germany will show a considerable decrease in the stock of gold. Some of the German newspapers recently advocated the exportation of gold for the purpose of raising the exchange value of the mark.

Juice of Lemons! How to Make Skin White and Beautiful!

At the cost of a small jar of ordinary cold cream one can prepare a full quarter pint of the most wonderful lemon skin softener and complexion beautifier, by squeezing the juice of two fresh lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white. Care should be taken to strain the juice through a fine cloth so no lemon pulp gets in, then this lotion will keep fresh for months. Every woman knows that lemon juice is used to bleach and remove such blemishes as freckles, sallowness and tan, and is the ideal skin softener, smoothener and beautifier.

Just try it! Get three ounces of orchard white at any pharmacy and two lemons from the grocer and make up a quarter pint of this sweetly fragrant lemon lotion and massage it daily into the face, neck, arms and hands. It should naturally help to whiten, soften, freshen and bring out the roses and beauty of any skin. It is truly marvelous to smoothen rough, red hands.—Advertisement.

Says it is suicide to cut corns and tells how they lift right out.

You simply say to the drug store man, "Give me a quarter of an ounce of freezone." This will cost you very little, but is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn from one's feet.

A few drops applied directly upon a tender, aching corn should relieve the soreness instantly and soon the entire corn, root and all, can be lifted out with the fingers without pain.

This new way to rid one's feet of corns was introduced by a Cincinnati man, who says that while freezone is sticky, it dries in a moment and seems to simply shrivel up the corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue or skin.

Don't let father die of infection or lackjaw from whittling at his corns, but cut this out and make him try it. —Advertisement.

Announcing Bergo

A cereal beverage that establishes a new standard of liquid refreshment.

A sparkling, wholesome drink that upsets some of the world's oldest notions about cereal beverages

We expect Bergo to prove a sensation in more ways than one.

It upsets some ideas that are almost as old as mankind.

It has always been comonly thought that the wealth of food and flavor which Nature has stored up in her choicest grains, could be given liquid form only in alcoholic drinks, or in heavy, lifeless, unattractive substitutes.

But with the perfection of new and distinctive Berghoff processes, we have finally demonstrated that it is possible to produce a cereal beverage at once delightfully refreshing, full of nourishment, and free from every objection.

It can be done. It has been done.

Bergo is the proof.

Sparkling with life, refreshing in the truest sense of the word, with just enough snap to make it extremely inviting, Bergo is unlike anything you ever heard of before.

It has the true cereal flavor—a distinctive Bergo taste, neither bitter or sweet—which will appeal strongly to those who avoid alcoholic beverages yet find no physical gain or comfort in the average soft drink.

But the most remarkable thing about Bergo is that it is winning over many a man who thought no soft drink could interest him.

Bergo is not merely harmless. It is as beneficial as it is pleasing. It appeals to everybody, old and young

When you're hot and tired, let "Bergo" refresh you

It quenches the thirst, and it really refreshes.

For Bergo is not a compound of flavoring extracts, spices, or drugs.

Bergo is a liquid cereal—cool, delightful in taste, and nutritious.

It invigorates and refreshes the hot, tired body in the most natural way—by giving strength.

Bergo is distinctly the pure and healthful thing to drink.

And it is splendid for the invalid and the man or woman with failing appetite.

It doesn't "fill you up," either. You can drink all you want of it, without the slightest distress.

Nothing better for all social functions

For the afternoon party, try Bergo.

For the evening gathering, the "Dutch" lunch, Bergo will admirably serve every purpose. It helps make a perfect Welsh rarebit.

When you come home tired and nervous from the strain of shopping, a glass of sparkling Bergo will instill new life.

For the porch gathering, when human nature seeks diversion and entertainment in cooling drinks, remember that Bergo is the most delightful of them all.

The surprise of your life awaits you when you try Bergo. You may have tried other things, but nothing like Bergo. Served at soda fountains, cafes and clubs, or delivered to your home by your grocer.

Accept no substitute. Bergo is entirely different from anything you have ever tried.

Try Bergo at the soda fountain, or get some for your home today.

Most Common of Bodily Ills.

By far the most common of bodily ills is constipation. The usual cause is the indifference of many people to Nature's call. The inclination is not heeded, or it is put off until a more convenient time. When this is done repeatedly, constipation is almost sure to follow. It is of the utmost importance that everyone establish a certain time for the bowels to move each day and let nothing interfere with it. When that is done and proper food and exercise are taken and an abundance of drinking water, the bowels are not likely to give much trouble. When a laxative is required take Chamberlain's Tablets. They are mild and gentle, easy to take and agreeable in effect.—Advertisement.

Vol. LXXXIV..... No. 246

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 27, 1917.

MAKING IT CLEAR.

The government has put it up to the big coal interests of the country to choose between reason and something else. The coal interests know what the something else is likely to be if they elect that and not the alternative.

At a notable conference in Washington between officials of the government and the coal barons the coal situation was gone into with a deal of thoroughness. It was brought out that prices are above any warrant for the skyrocketing figures at which coal goes to the consumer. That this is the fact was admitted by some of the operators.

Secretary of the Interior Lane made strong appeal to the patriotic sentiments of the operators and was warmly applauded by them. That was fine and inspiring, but of itself will cut no figure in bringing down the price of coal, for that was and remains the chief matter in hand. If the operators have been for a fact stirred by appeal to their spirit of loyalty, to their sense of national stress and peril and to their impulses of patriotic duty, the outcome of the problem of coal may well be left to them; but transient emotions may weigh as nothing against the lure of sordid usury of profits when they get back to their books and begin to compute percentages and matters of the sort. The situation offers some perfectly elegant possibilities for adding up and adding to and it will take patriotism that is soundly imbedded to work against the cold blandishments of cash that simply waits to be taken.

The operators have, aside from the constraints of duty to which not even coal barons may remain indifferent in mind even if indifferent in morals, some material concern in the future as well as in the present status of the fuel business. What the government may today find compulsive for the fencing of the nation in war, might in the end work out to satisfactory demonstrations of possibilities for the public good after the war and indefinitely. The idea is not by any means new. Nationalization of coal lands and government control, if not actually government operation of coal mines, have been discussed heretofore. Some thinkers who are not open to any ascription of socialistic tendencies and are reasonably conservative in about all social, political and economic matters, have considered that on many accounts a basic material which invests one of the most vital domestic and industrial necessities ought to be brought under some sort of rule by government that insures supply and stabilizes price on fair levels. They believe this would be neither radical nor unreasonable. That idea appears not to have proceeded far in the general mind, though common experience of the past year must have done much to set people to thinking about natural resources, common abundances, vital necessaries, monopolies, extortions, exploitations, shortages, denials and government ownership or control. Another winter like the last, even without the intervention of war, would be quite apt to set public opinion ahead many years on this matter. With stern compulsion to meet all the necessities, multitudinous and dire, raised up against them by the great conflict, the people of America will not be slow to demand on their own account such protection as government can give them.

As for the government itself, it has no alternative. It has the prodigious responsibility of winning this war. Its straits cannot be compromised or modified or in any wise or to any degree temporized with. The compulsions under which it proceeds are absolute, inexorable. It can prosecute this war as well without men as without coal. It has just pronounced dictum that ten millions of young men are subject to and shall be ready for call to the colors and orders to the battle lines. The government that can conscript ten millions of young men cannot be held to be without either authority or reason to commandeer ten millions of tons of coal or all the coal and set the conditions and fix the terms as it has done and will do with the bodies and lives of its flowering youth.

The coal barons have been given something more than a hint. The thing has been made clear, we believe. It remains to be seen how they shall perform in the openness of new light and better understanding. They can do much for the people and more for their government, but most of all for themselves if they prove able to interpret the signs. The world is moving fast these days. The wheels refuse to stick to the ancient grooves, and are grinding new ones.

FALLING DOWN AGAIN.

This is the week of the big drive for 70,000 volunteers to fill the ranks of the regulars and bring the establishment to full war strength. The week is half gone and something less than a third of the men asked for in the president's proclamation have enlisted.

It is of no present importance that this result makes a jest of the cock-o-doodle-doo stuff about a "million men springing to arms over night," or turns to a shrieking joke the banal eloquence of that distinguished statesman who said that out in his home state of Missouri a "conscript is held in no better esteem than a convict." The important fact is a serious fact. The government wants seventy thousand men of military age and bodily fitness to join the army for immediate service in France. The government is not getting them. By the week's end the seventy thousand may be on the enlistment rolls, but the promise is not heartening that this will be so.

Ten millions of men are on the registration rolls for military service. Of these it is calculated that about one and one-half millions will be conscripted within a year. Near three-quarters of a million of them will be selected for service within a short time, for the draft may begin next week. Those who expect to be conscripted—certainly those who are willing and ready for service—might be thought of as having certain preferences for going into the service as volunteers, since they would on list only for the war, would escape some of the tediousness of the big training cantonments and would be sure to see service at an early day.

Less than three-quarters of one per cent of the men registered would make up the levy now proceeding. Considering that any fit and able man between the ages of 18 and 40—an advantage of three years in the minimum and nine years in the maximum for conscripts—is eligible to volunteer, it is a bit puzzling to make out why enlistments drag.

Most surely here is the opportunity for the men who want to see service and se it early.

IN EXTREMIS.

Nothing but fear of death and the devil ever could have moved the senate of the United States to surrender the keeping of the aegis and the palladium to the president. After a torrential waste of words and a sinful waste of time the senate now decides that the thing to do with Woodrow Wilson is to make him dictator—master of the absolute.

In short, the senate arrived at the point where it was under necessity to decide whether it would or would not smite the demon rum with the bludgeon of war prohibition. The senate lacked the sturdy insides to meet that situation with courage and unequivocation, as the house had done in passing the food bill. So the senate sidestepped—passed the buck—and has put it up to the president to smite booze or give it grace, just as he may will, and it's all one to the senate.

So the matter stands. The senate bill clothes the president with authority to sweep the nation with a bone-dry simoom or to let the country continue to swill itself in wonted fashion, war or no war, bread or no bread.

We don't know that there is any objection to this design itself. We believe the president will not hesitate to do what the senate should not have been afraid of doing. If the need of grain for food becomes such and is shown to be aggravated by the use of grain for drink, or the conversion of some two or three hundred thousand barrels of stored red liquor into denatured alcohol for munitions grows into an imperative matter, we do not believe President Wilson will dally with his duty.

But the spectacle of the senate is not inspiring. It is ludicrous.

There will be no quarrel with the senate for turning over to the president the power to deal with war-time prohobition, but it is rather a shock to see the Guardians of Liberty in congress going to sleep at the switch. If ever there was a time when vigilance was the price of liberty—and specially personal liberty—it is now, with war stress, public feeling and other considerations making a hostile set at the blood-bought provilege of making it and drinking it where sold. And the senate gives the keeping of the fate of that to the president. Gee whiz!

A drowsy humming away off in the air somewhere to the east makes a noise as though Alfonso of Spain were about to make application for membership in the ex-King's club.

At church one day, from the saucy depths

She stole an artful, coquettish glance
  At the inmate of my pew.

The blue of her eyes, the maid purloined
  From Italy's azure dome;
And her marble brow from the snowdrift pure,
  Or from Paria's distant home.

Her neck she filched from the stately swan,
  Her hair from the raven's breast;
And her dainty feet from a fairy maid,
  Who never gave them rest.

Her mouth she plucked from a rosebud fair,
  Her cheek from the shell of the sea,
Her lips from the tint of the poppy red—
  You marvel how this can be!

Her voice she got from the nightingale,
  Her teeth from the oyster pearl,
From Atalanta her graceful gait—
  A veritable "peach of a girl!"

But the worst of all her thefts you must know—
  Alas, that this should be!
In time she stole into my arms,

A NEW CONSTITUTION
By John A. Lapp, Bureau of Legislative Information

(Copyright 1917 by John A. Lapp.)

The Indiana constitution requires that all property be assessed uniformly and equally except such as may be exempted. These exemptions cover only religious, educational, charitable and municipal property and do not apply to any property in the hands of an individual. In Indiana then every bit of private property must be assessed at a uniform and equal rate. Farm lands, household goods, bonds, cattle and implements are required to be assessed at a uniform rate regardless of the income which they produce.

The first thought is that equality of assessment is a fair method but upon consideration it appears that if unproductive property such as household goods are assessed at a uniform value with farm land the system actually results in the confiscation of the household goods because they produce no income. Commercial deposits in banks are unproductive to the depositor but under the uniform system they would be subject to the same rate of taxation as productive bonds.

The first result of uniform assessment is to force into hiding many kinds of property to be assessed, thus leaving the burden to fall on tangible property which cannot be concealed.

This result being plain to tax administrators, led to the proposal that property be classified and that each kind of property be assessed at a value which would be fair for that kind of property.

All kinds of special taxes have been tried to reach property which was known to be escaping taxation. One of the most popular of these taxes is the registration taxes—such as those on mortgages. Recognizing that mortgages were escaping taxation, Alabama tried the plan of charging a small recording tax and exempting the mortgage from other taxation. Several other states, including New York, Michigan and Minnesota, followed the idea with good results. Connecticut exempted bonds of all kinds if they were recorded and the recording fee paid. New York did the same with all secured debts. These kinds of property which had largely escaped taxation were now taxed at a low rate and there was little attempt at evasion.

Six states, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Minnesota, Iowa, Rhode Island and North Dakota have gone farther and placed a low rate on all kinds of intangible property. The rates from two to five mills which is very low compared with other property. In all of these states a greatly increased amount of property of this kind was assessed. People more willingly listed their property, knowing that the rate was not confiscatory and in every state but Iowa the returns were greater from such property at low rate than had been previously secured at the high uniform rate.

Minnesota went further than any of the other states and classified all property. Tangible property is divided into four classes. Iron ore is assessed at 50 per cent of its value; urban real estate is assessed at 40 per cent; rural real estate at 33 1-3; household goods, wearing apparel and personal belongings at 25 per cent.

Of the workings of the Minnesota plan Professor Charles J. Bullock, of Harvard university, said in an address in Indianapolis last year: "This scheme of classification was very largely based upon the antecedent conditions existing in the state, and amounted virtually to a legalization of those conditions. It made possible a far better assessment of property in 1914 than had ever before been secured, and has therefore greatly improved conditions in Minnesota. Concerning it the tax commission of the state has said: 'From a theoretic standpoint it is open to very serious criticism and leaves much to be desired; but as a measure designed to accomplish a practical and much needed reform, it has proven a most pronounced success.'"

With this opinion I heartily concur. Other states can learn from Minnesota's experiment the great advantage that accrues from having property assessed in conformity with the law rather than according to standards established by local authorities in defiance of the law. But the plan of assessment at fractional valuation is in some respects unfortunate, and the classification of the different items of property is at some points open to criticism."

The classification in Minnesota is a rough one and merely follows the practice of assessment which quite generally prevailed in that state before the law was passed. The rates of assessment are arbitrarily fixed and are not defended as scientifically correct. Each state would probably have its own peculiar classification.

The question which arises in discussing the classification of property is this: Upon what basis is the classification to be made? Actually the classification must be based upon income and in a rough sort of way it is only another form of the income tax. A scientifically formulated classified tax is an income tax in different clothes.

The classified property tax requires for its success a high type of tax administration. No state has succeeded without giving ample power to the state tax board. In Iowa, which depended upon the old system of local assessors without state supervision the flat tax on intangibles had slight success while in Minnesota the whole plan has been highly successful because of the strong state tax commission and its control over local assessors. Under existing tax administration in Indiana the classified property tax would not be a success although it is highly probable that it would succeed better even with weak administration than the present system of uniform assessment. Under a state tax commission with real power over local assessors it would undoubtedly be successful.

Questions for Investigation.

1. Upon what basis should property be classified for taxation?
2. What property should be exempt entirely?

WORLD BROTHERHOOD IS TO COME AS RESULT OF WAR, SAYS A PREACHER

By REV. CHARLES STELZLE.

For those who cannot go to war—as well as those who will go to the front—there is a distinct obligation to dedicate themselves to the task of helping on the great new brotherhood of the world.

This brotherhood will be founded upon the revolution which is sweeping through every country on the globe, and which is working itself out through the war, from the effects of which no nation can escape.

Nor can this movement for the brotherhood of man be retarded by petty hates and spites or by the ambitions and intrigues of kings and cabinets and the heartless machinations of contemptuous politicians.

For hundreds of years the race of men has been getting ready for this world-wide brotherhood. And all the signs point toward the fulfillment of the noble ideals which have been vaguely, though persistently, floating through the hearts and minds of those who each in their day and generation brought their contributions toward this world democracy.

The Russia of hundreds of years is no more—the czar is gone forever. The Germany of generations has closed itself in—to be opposed by every forward-looking nation, and by the larger-minded Germans themselves, until it has been crushed for all time.

England—self-confident, self-satisfied, luxurious, with class-spirit highly devloped—though sound at heart—has seen the need of closer and sincerer co-operation with the wider visioned nations of earth.

France—light-hearted and gay, often careless—although it had the blood of heroes and martyrs in its veins—can never again be what it was.

And America—we are being shaken out of the ruts of commercial success and money-making—and brought to a clearer sense of the appreciation of the higher values of life, which we heretofore only half understood.

Out of all this will come a purified world seeing new ideals and holding truer aspirations. But if these are to be realized there must be great and constant individual devotion to the cause of democracy and brotherhood.

When enough of us catch this "vision-splendid" and determine to live it out—making the sacrifices demanded of us in shop and office and store—while those who are at the front are doing their share to "make democracy safe"—then "the day" will have arrived. For this may every man of us fervently pray and work.

There's a scripture passage to the effect that "righteousness exalteth a nation." This means justice, whatever else may be included in the definition. And don't let's forget that no nation can be righteous until its citizens are just. Nor can there bea world-democracy until there is in it at least the same standard of fair-dealing.

The coming of the world-brotherhood depends less upon platforms and pronouncements than it does upon our readiness to give to our brothers their just due.

And so that no man may escape "conscription" in this larger task, let it be understood by every one of us that there is no class or condition in society which is free from the personal obligation to give every other man the same square deal demanded by each of us for ourselves.

A DANGEROUS SUIT.

(New Castle Times.)

The suit brought by Henry W. Bennett, of Indiana, to have declared invalid the acts granting women the right of suffrage and the act calling a constitutional convention sets up a strang situation. The suit asks that the people of Indiana be restrained from expressing their desire at the polls and demands that the suffrage court declare what laws the people shall have and what they shall not have.

There will be no woman suffrage and there will be no new constitution unless the majority of the voters of Indiana demand them at the polls. But Mr. Bennett, in his suit, seems to take away the right of the people to say what laws they shall have. He wants to establish a government by courts instead of by the people to deprive the voters of Indiana the right of self-government. This suit would allow the people to govern themselves only as long as it suited the ideas of the supreme court.

Everything attacked in this suit by Mr. Bennett will be submitted to the people at a special election so that nothing will be forced upon the people of Indiana unless that majority of them demand it. When Mr. Bennett attacks these acts he asked for a government by the courts rather than by the people. It is a dangerous suit and attacks the very foundation of a free government by the people.

JUSTIFIED.

[Indiana Daily Times.]

That is our moral justification for now being at war with Germany but, as the president said, it is only part of the story.

The other part is concerned with Germany's ambition for world domination, the first step toward which was to be the welding of all the central European states into a great empire controlled by German militarism, which would hang like the sword of Damocles over the free democracies of the world.

The president points out in words that will probably be a great shock to those who are hypnotizing themselves into the belief that Germany is all but defeated, that the Germans have actually carried the greater part of that plan into execution: "From Hamburg to the Persian gulf the net is spread."

And now, having accomplished practically the purpose for which they set the world on fire, the Germans want peace.

The president says in effect that there can be no peace until the Germans are defeated and their dream of world domination, based upon what they have already won, is shattered.

There is no suggestion of "peace without victory" in the president's address, and there can be no such thought in the mind of any other American who appreciates the full meaning of the German ambition and menace.

THE AVIATION PROGRAM.

(Chicago Herald.)

Of all the plans for utilizing the new instruments of war most quickly and effectively for the aid of the allies the proposed aviation program is the most hopeful. Congress will be asked to back it up by appropriating an immense sum—$600,000,000—for the construction of an overwhelming aerial fleet.

Already the allies have an immense advantage over the Germans in the number of effectiveness of their fighting planes. At least that is the report that comes from the west front. Could this mastery be made absolutely overwhelming the eyes of the opposing army would be practically put out and military operations on its part would be made increasingly difficult.

Moreover, an immensely great and more effective air equipment would make possible more aggressive action against various points where munitions are made and stored, against submarine and other naval bases, and against the army in the field. The possibility of quick construction of submarines gave Germany a chance it was not slow to seize. Rapid construction of fighting planes offers the allies an advantage that must not be overlooked.

A SILVER LINING.

Who says there isn't a silver lining to war taxes? When the new tobacco tax comes in, every man may explain to Friend Wife that the more he smokes, the more he supports his country.

Plans are being laid for the establishment in Philadelphia of a great hydro-aeroplane school. It is reported that regular passenger routes will be established in connection with the school, and the practicality of the aeroplane will be demonstrated not only by trips between New York, Boston, Washington and Philadelphia but also by trans-Atlantic flight.

Recent excavation, following the caving of the bluffs, overlooking the Mississippi river, at Riverside park, near Memphis, brought to light a number of relics of Indian pottery, including a water bottle, a panel vase, pestles, hammers and arrow heads. The trophies of the art of the extinct mound builders have been added to the valuable Indian collection at the Cossitt library museum.

The Canning Interest.

Canning spinach, peas and green beans and making strawberry jam in the quickest an deasiest way is a part of the canning work that is being explained in different school buildings of the city this week. The pressing need of providing a large quantity for one's own household is increased by the urgent need to so provide that the call on factries will be diminished and this country can therefore aid her allies for the next few years. The more canned beans, peas, beets, spinach, tomatoes and so on and the more fruits put in home cellars the more the country can send away. At the Hoagland school yesterday spinach was cleaned, cooked for six minutes and then canned and cooked in hot water for ninety minutes. Peas were cooked from five to ten minutes and after being canned were in the boiling water cooker for two hours. Strawberry jam was made by measuring by cupfuls, two of sugar to one of berries, and cooking it for six minutes after the fruit and sirup began to boil. Some people add a quarter cup of water to the sugar and let the sirup form before adding the berries. Others mash the berries about half and mix with the sugar without water and cook seven minutes after it begins bubbling.

WERE WED IN ST. PATRICK'S CHURCH.

MR. AND MRS LYNN GARMAN.

A beautiful wedding in St. Patrick's church on Wednesday, was that of Miss Helen M. Gruber and Mr. Lynn A. Garman, which took place at 9 o'clock. Rev. Father Delaney performed the ceremony and officiated at the high nuptial mass. The bride, who is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gruber, of 226 East DeWald street, is an unusually pretty young woman of a sweet character, and she made a beautiful appearance in her bridal costume. Her gown was a white satin made with train which was embroidered and the chantilly lace bodice had a bertha of satin embroidered to correspond. Over the handsome bridal robe fell the full folds of a tulle veil that was fastened to the hair by a tiny wreath of swansonia blossoms that extended across the forehead and held the fullness of the veil. The bridal bouquet was of bride roses and swansonia, shower effect. The bride was accompanied by her father who gave her in marriage and her attendants were her sister, Miss Lenore Gruber, as maid of honor, and Miss Ada Garman, the groom's sister, as bridesmaid. Mr. Garman was attended by Mr. Alfred Diem and Mr. Harry Hinkle. Mr. Nelson Bauer and Mr. Ray Lindemuth were ushers. The maid of honor wore a coral pink satin gown trimmed with a tunic of lace and a hat of white maline which had a single crystal ornament. Miss Gruber carried a Tipperary cane that had a cluster of marguerites tied with tulle fastened to its top. Miss Garman was gowhed entirely in pink, her gown of taffeta having a fichu of georgette crepe and her hat being a combination of pink crepe edging the brim and a ribbon crown that formed a pompon on top. A bouquet of pink roses completed this pretty costume. The church was decorated with syringa blossoms and palms and the wedding party entered to the music of Grieg's "wedding day" march. The wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride and a crystal basket of daisies and the bride's cake that was ornamented on top with a dainty ornament used by her mother on her wedding cake, were the center of attraction. Smilax garlanded the table and the cake and many daisies and white roses were used in the diningroom and livingroom. Covers were laid for fifty. Members of the bride's graduating class at St. Catherine's academy served. They were Mrs. John Sullivan, Mrs. Arthur Mills, Miss Marie MacMullen, Miss Irma Blee and Miss Irene Lennon. Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Byers, of Pittsburg, sister and her husband of the groom. The bride and groom departed in the afternoon for Chicago, the bride wearing a good looking suit of gray and blue stripe satin, with pale pink georgette crepe blouse and a Milan braid hat trimmed with a feather edge on its brim and a crown of ribbon, also white. Boots and gloves were gray and a handkerchief bag was of material like the suit. On their return home Mr. and Mrs. Garman will go to housekeeping immediately at 120 Berger avenue. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Garman and he has an excellent position as head of the transformer productions department at the Fort Wayne Electric plant.

DRAMATIS RECITAL BY PUPILS.

Miss Philley Presents Class at Strand Theater Thursday.

Miss Anna Philley will present a class of pupils in dramatic recital in the Strand theater on Thursday morning at 8 o'clock. There will be organ numbers by Mrs. Georgia Wirth Jones, a cello solo by Bronson Rea, with Miss Gertrude Sivits accompanying, and an organ and piano duet by Mrs. Jones and Miss Sivits. Readings will be given by Miss Sylvia Berman, Miss Doris Sion Smith, Miss Martha Hahn, Miss Anna Trier, Mrs. Charles Gross and by Richard Scheifer and Bronson Rae in scenes from Shakesperian plays, and by Mrs. Horn and Miss Martha Hahn. Miss Philley is now connected with the factulty of the International Business college.

PUPILS' RECITAL PLEASES.

An audience that demonstrated much pleasure over the rendering of every number of the program, heard Miss Kay Spencer's pupils in recital in Elks' hall on Tuesday evening. Seven of the young women sang solos and others assisted in a chorus of women's voices that opened the program by singing the "Star Spangled Banner" and gave three other selections besides. Miss Pauline Woods accompanied the chorus. Other voice work was done by Miss Glen Hoover, of Ossian, who has a sweet and clear soprano; Miss Mable Loomis, of Kendallville, who, in addition to a voice of good quality, has plenty of natural expression; Miss Ilow Elzy, of Ossian, who has a pretty voice and pleasing manner; Miss Helen Ault, of this city, who has accomplished much in vocalization and style; Mrs. Winona Davis, of Auburn, who not only has quality and power, but who sings delightfully; Miss Ruth Gumpper, whose work is always pleasing, and who did remarkably well, particularly in "Happy Song," and Miss Afton Wolf, who repeated, by request, "Lo, Hear the Gentle Lark," which she sings very well, indeed. Miss Leah Gardner gave a brilliant rendition of a Rubenstein etude and played beautiful accompaniments to the singers. A trio for violins was well played by Mr. Patterson, Misses Mess and Roos and Paul Gregg, in flute obligato to Miss Wolf, demonstrated again his splendid acquirements on that instrument.

June Bride Has a Pretty Wedding

MRS. FRANCIS SULLIVAN.

A pretty wedding took place in St. Mary's church on Tuesday morning at half-past 9 o'clock when Miss Marcella Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Smith, of Oak street, became the bride of Mr. Francis Sullivan, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Sullivan, of 817 Cottage avenue. Mgr. J. H. Oechtering performed the ceremony and officiated at the high nuptial mass. The bride was beautifully gowned in white crepe de meteor with lace and silver trimmings and she wore a veil and carried a shower of bride roses and swansonia. The bridesmaid was Miss Teresa Bauman and she wore a good-looking gown of oyster gray taffeta satin with large picture hat and carried pink roses. After the wedding service the bridal party were served breakfast at the home of the bride, where many friends and relatives awaited the arrival of the bride and groom and showered them with congratulations and good wishes. The bride was presented with many beautiful gifts. At 5 o'clock the bride and groom left for Chicago, where they will be entertained by relatives. On their return home Mr. and Mrs. Sullivan will go to housekeeping in their newly furnished home at 526 East Creighton avenue.

Women Often Help in Boosting High Prices

A number of women were talking about the great Woman's Army Against Waste, and one of them said, "Isn't it about time this army should point its heavy artillery against other wastes in the household?"

"What particular one have you in mind?" was asked.

"The one where women indiscriminately have goods sent to their homes and then for no valid reason send them back."

One of the big stores told the other day that it cost 24 cents to make a delivery of any parcel and that one-eighth of their entire force was concerned in the department of delivery.

This man added significantly that one-twentieth of their work was out on approval and liable to be returned at any time. "This makes us keep much larger stocks than we would otherwise find necessary, and taken all together the cost of that slogan 'If you are not satisfied bring it back,' is actually thousands of dollars monthly."

Of course, the merchants themselves are somewhat to blame for this state of affairs. The modern sales methods require a spartan spirit of a woman to go into a great department store and see the tables filled with bargains and not fall for the temptation.

In the easy and luxurious days that have gone the house of the average family has been run on a go-as-you-please schedule. The merchant has found that whatever he tempted the women to buy, the complacent head of the family managed in some way to pay for.

Today the war crisis has found the American home quite as unprepared as the nation.

Put your household on a budget system. You will find it will rob you of much of the monotony of household tasks and much of the worry that the household bills entail. There is no reason why so much should not be put aside for food and the meals of the family kept within that sum.

TRAPSHOOTING FOR WOMEN BRINGS THRILLS, HEALTH AND POISE

BY MRS. ADA SCHILLING

Pacific Coast Champion Woman Trapshot.

In starting gun clubs or joining them I would advise women not to shoot more than 15 clay targets a week. Make that the limit, not to be exceeded, no matter how enthusiastic you may become.

Thus women of the most moderate means can indulge in the sport. Otherwise the expense becomes a bar to the very women who need this kind of recreation most—those who work at home or in shops and who are indoors most of the week.

Clay birds cost 1½ cents each, and shotgun shells range from 85 cents to $1.10 per box of 25. Good serviceable shotguns can be had for from $10 to $30. Small bore rifles for less.

They may also be borrowed from brothers and husbands.

I use a 12 gauge pump gun, costing $30, for all my trapshooting.

And I shoot only every other week, one day. More than that will tend to make one "stale," as we say—out of form.

I have seen some wonderful changes in women who have taken up this recreation.

About a year ago I shot with a woman who was just beginning—a pampered, soft house-woman who had always been waited on and deferred to because of her station and her sex. She was snobbish, hateful and extremely jealous.

The other day I met her again on the field. That year of shooting, of association with sportsmen, of taking her medicine when beaten, and of no sex deference had remade her into a wholesome, kindly, democratic woman. The snobbery and pettiness had all gone up in smoke.

That is typical. Every woman who takes up trap or field shooting is greatly benefited and broadened, it has been my observation, during the five years I have wielded a gun.

Where but a score of women were shooting throughout the country five years ago there are today above 500. But as a woman's sport it is still in its infancy.

If you want a real thrill, and one that keeps its edge, get a gun and go afield.

(The End.)

MRS. ADA SCHILLING.

OLD GLOVES CAN BE MADE OVER INTO BABY BOOTS.

Chamois is sometimes used for boottees for baby, and several clever mothers save all the upper sections of their long kid gloves and use them for the same purpose. Kid gloves are generally worn out first in the fingers or palm, and the upper part of discarded gloves is usually in good condition and is easily converted into soft, comfortable bootees.

Select a simple pattern and if it is a paper pattern with embroidery omit the latter, use carbon paper and trace only the outer lines, then cut out with scissors, make a plain edge, or cut it round in the form of scallops.

When chamois or kid is used work a loose buttonhole or blanket stitch around the edge, placing the stitches quite some distance apart. This prevents the leather from stretching and makes the bootees prettier. The sole and seam should be overcast with small stitches on the right side. The stitching should be of the same color as the leather or a shade darker and ribbon should be used to lace the bootee and hold it in its place.

VEGETABLE WATER GOOD FOR SEASONING SOUPS.

When cooking vegetables—carrots, asparagus and especially spinach—save the water, which is most delicately flavored and contains much of the mineral salts of the vegetable.

Use in making soup, thus eliminating the purchase of that particular vegeable for flavoring the stock.

Or, for a change, use it instead of milk, for making the various cream of vegetable soups. An extra amount of butter and a tablespoonful or two of cream, if desired, can be added to make up the necessary amount of fat.

The problem of household refrigeration is one of paramount importance to every American family.

It resolves itself into a necessity and a duty to the individual, as regards the actual maintenance of the family's health, to say nothing of adding immeasurably to the convenience of the housewife and saving her labor and worry.

If care and intelligent discrimination is used in the choice of a refrigerator your purchase is made for an indefinite number of years. In fact it may be considered a permanent investment, as a Herrick Refrigerator is built to last a life-time.

Buy a Herrick and enjoy sanitary refrigeration. It will keep salt dry for weeks, years or as long as the refrigerator is iced up.

FIREWORKS DISPLAY AT COUNCIL SESSION

Killea Street Sidewalk Matter Agitates Warm Word Wrangle.

A premature fireworks exhibit shook the council session Tuesday evening. Explosive and scintillating sentences made up the pyrotechnic display. Rigorous retorts were rampant. Every council member sought a part in the verbal holocaust.

The matter of the placing of sidewalks along Killea avenue, from Webster street to Calhoun street, proved the fire brand. It's virilty gave the flame of life to what had promised to be a prolix session of the city body.

Louis S. C. Schroeder, former president of the council, had a part in discharging the flashing phrase rockets. He had been invited to take a position at the side of Council President William Bayer. Schroeder sat on the raised platform to the right of the presiding officer.

When the subject of placing sidewalks on Killea avenue was mentioned, Mr. Schroeder arose and spoke in behalf of the installing of the walks. He explained that a heavy damage suit might be headed off by repairing the sidewalks. Baby carriages have to be wheeled in the street, along the two squares in question, because there are no sidewalks, he told. He urged that the committee on streets and alleys make a favorable report on the topic of installing walks along the street.

Councilman Herman Korte, representing the Tenth ward, leaped to his feet. He is a member of the streets and alleys committee. He had stated earlier in the evening that the committee was not ready to make a report.

"What kind of a meeting is this?" inquired Korte in stentorian accents. "What right has this man to tell the council what to do?" asked the council member, looking straight at Schroeder. "Is he presiding over the council? It looks like it. What right has he to sit by our president? Why don't he take a place at the back of the room like other visitors do? I object to such conduct."

Several councilmen sprang from their seats. There was a general shouting of "Mr. President." Mr. Schroeder sought to speak.

Councilman Smith was granted the floor and told why Schroeder was in his position of honor. He proclaimed the right of Schroeder to talk in the meeting. Other members defended the action of Schroeder.

"He can't come here and tell the committee what to do," retorted Korte.

After a heated debate in which council members from three wards told that walks in their neighborhood also needed repairing, it was decided that the streets and alleys committee, made up of Korte, Offenloch and Johns, could report at the next meeting.

Residents of the Killea avenue vicinity do not appear to desire the installing of sidewalks. Councilman Offenloch says that they object because of high price of materials and because they have just finished the paving of the street. All council members agreed that there should be a suitable sidewalk laid along the avenue. It is expected that a report favoring the placing of the walks will be made at the next session.

The council passed an ordinance appropriating $4,000 to the sewer repair account. An ordinance naming the street between Cornell and Seminole circles, Radio lane, was also passed.

The contract between the board of works and the General Electric works, providing for a spur track along Wall street, was ratified.

BUILT NEW BARN IN FIFTEEN DAYS

Then Entire Neighborhood in Whitley County Helps Raise It.

Columbia City, Ind., June 27.—A barn 32 by 52 with a straw mow 32 feet square, was built in fifteen and one-half days on the farm of J. W. Marker, in Troy township. Joseph Hildebrand, of Packerton, Ind., and his crew of five men, consisting of Clarence Sisck, Chester Deafenbaugh, Percy Deafenbaugh, John Fruit and Alvin Brallier did the work. Four days after they begun work the barn was raised with one hundred and sixty-two people present. All the neighbors and friends were invited. Cyrus Kaiser superintended the cooking of the beef and potatoes in a large iron kettle in the yard, while J. P. Bills was chief cook and bottle washer.

WOMAN IS ELECTED.

Portland, Ind., June 27.—For the first time in the history of the city schools a woman will be upon the school board. Miss Katheryn Humphries has been elected to serve for one year to fill out the unexpired term held by Albert Lara. Miss Humphries is secretary in the People's bank. The second member elected to fill the place made vacant by C. S. Bishop is Frank Gillespie, of the law firm of Moran and Gillespie. Miss Humphries was not a candidate from any faction of women of the city, but was chosen by the city council, her election being a surprise to everyone and an agreeable one.

$14,500 IS RAISED.

Warsaw, Ind., June 27.—The finance committee of the Kosciusko Red Cross, through its chairman, James Frazer, has reported that in round numbers the Red Cross subscription of Kosciusko county will overrun $4,000, that instead of $10,500, Kosciusko has raised $14,500. It is impossible to give the exact figures at this time, for the reason that the reports from various townships will not be fully compiled by the finance committee until the last of this week. However, the committee is quite certain that Kosciusko has done great credit to herself by a surplusage of $4,000.

CYCLIST INJURED.

Kendallville, Ind., June 27.—S. E. Temple, employed at the McCray factory, was severely injured Tuesday noon when he struck a clothesline on Garden street while riding a bicycle. He was on his way home and in the effort to pass another bicyclist, rode into a yard and ran directly into the clothesline, which struck him across the face and severely wrenched his neck. He later became unconscious. The Chappell ambulance was called and took him to his home. Late in the afternoon he was reported to be resting easy.

PREPARING FOR CAMPAIGN.

Warsaw, Ind., June 27.—E. A. Loop, of Warsaw, recently elected president of the Indiana State Fire Prevention association, is mapping out an active campaign which will extend over the entire state. Bakeries, groceries, meat packing houses, store houses and in fact every establishment producing or handling foodstuffs will be inspected with the view of taking every precaution to prevent destruction of food products through fire. Fire insurance men in all sections of the state will be delegated to conduct such inspections. All will serve without pay.

FORM FRANCHISE LEAGUE.

Angola, Ind., June 27.—Following an address by Mrs. A. C. Hughston, of New York city, field secretary of the National Franchise league, a branch of the Franchise League of Indiana was organized here with the election of the following officers: President, Mrs. Tina Morse; first vice president, Dr. Mary Ritter; second vice president, Mrs. W. F. Shearer; secretary, Mrs. Edward D. Willis; treasurer, Mrs. W. C. Patterson; chairman, First ward, Miss Sarah Morse; chairman, Second ward, Mrs. Edward Powers; chairman, Third ward, Mrs. H. W. Morley.

CELEBRATION AT HUNTINGTON.

Huntington, Ind., June 27.—Partly completed plans have been made for an American day Fourth of July in Huntington, with a flag raising by the G. A. R., an address and other exercises. Invitations were sent out Monday to Warren, Bippus, Markle, Roanoke and Andrews to attend. Some of these places will have exercises of their own, but it is believed that they will not regard the invitation to Huntington as an encroachment on their own plans. Claude Bowers, of Fort Wayne, will be the speaker.

SHOOTS SELF BY ACCIDENT.

Decatur, Ind., June 27.—While handling a revolver Sunday Vernon Lyons, a young man residing near Pleasant Mills, accidentally shot himself in the leg, inflicting an ugly wound that will lay him up for some time. The ball passed entirely through the lower part of the limb, tearing an ugly hole as it went. He was taken to a physician, where the injury was dressed and, unless complications develop, it is thought he will have a speedy recovery. He is, however, assured of a very sore leg for some time to come. The young man is about 21 years old.

"DEAR,-Stop Your Dandruff by using Pompeian HAIR Massage."

"Dandruff has made your hair straggly, thin looking and lifeless. Your coat collar is always covered with ugly scales. Stop your Dandruff now. You can. Just look at my hair.

The Dandruff is entirely gone and almost overnight Pompeian HAIR Massage made my hair attractive."

The success of Pompeian HAIR Massage is in its name—"Massage." It is a treatment, not merely a tonic. The massaging (rubbing) of the scalp wakes up the roots of the hair to new life. This massaging also opens the pores of the scalp to the wonderfully stimulating liquids in Pompeian HAIR Massage. Dandruff goes. Your hair will become and stay healthy, vigorous, attractive.

All that is needed is a little massaging once or twice a week. One application shows results. Your scalp will immediately feel clean and invigorated. In one month your Dandruff will be gone.

Pompeian HAIR Massage is a clear amber liquid. Not oily. Not sticky. Very pleasant to use.

"Greatest treatment for Dandruff in the world," says J. A. Y., Chicago, Ill., "and I speak from experience. My hair before I started using it had gone beyond the ordinary stages of Dandruff and was covered with scales which embarrassed me greatly. I have introduced Pompeian HAIR Massage to my friends."

Practically every user says—one bottle shows actual results. Get a 25c, 50c or $1 bottle at the stores and say the same.

Have your barber every now and then apply a careful Pompeian HAIR Massage. Used in over 30,000 of the best barber shops from Maine to California.

Made by the reliable makers of the famous Pompeian MASSAGE Cream and Pompeian NIGHT Cream. Adv. 31

STORM PLAYS HAVOC IN COLUMBIA CITY

Many Telephones Are Put Out of Commission by the Lightning.

(Special to The Sentinel.)

Columbia City, Ind., June 27.—Two 2,300 volt high tension city wires were torn down during the storm Tuesday noon when the wind broke two large branches from a tree standing near the alley on the Judd Smith premises on South Chauncey street. Practically all of the city was deprived of current until linemen could remedy the damage an hour later. The high tension wires as they fell came into contact with the lines of the Whitley County Telephone Co. and the heavy current became grounded in them, resulting in the burning out of several telephones. The Etna and Larwill trunk lines and several city telephones of the Farmers' Mutual Telephone Co. were also burned out during the storm Tuesday afternoon.

Columbia City Short Items.

John Loe, who shot himself in the head a month ago, and who Monday drove members of his family from out of the home northwest of the city and who was brought to the county jail and later to the home of his father, Joseph Loe, of this city, was adjudged insane by a board Tuesday afternoon composed of Justice B. F. Null and Drs. F. G. Grisier and O. V. Schuman and he will be taken to Longcliff asylum as soon as admitted.

Charles Heller, who has been associated in business with Arthur Corse, returned Monday from New York city, where he was wedded recently to Miss Gussie Neusbaum, who will arrive here next week. The groom is a native of Vilna, Russia, coming to America twelve years ago.

William D. Barney, reared in Thorncreek township, died Tuesday morning at the Logansport hospital. The remains arrived in Columbia City Tuesday evening for burial. Surviving are his widow, formerly Miss Martha Wassup, of Delphos, Kas., and four children: Lawrence and Estella, of Fort Wayne, and Lester and Golda, at home. E. A. Barney and Mrs. Hugh Spear, of this city; Mrs. Mary J. Lovering, of Delphos, Kas., and Mrs. Jos. Archer, of north of the city, are surviving brother and sisters. The deceased was 53 years old and had been an inmate of the asylum two years.

The case of the State of Indiana vs. John and Edward Bashop, charged with cruelty to animals, with Asa Burt, neighbor, of Union township, as prosecuting witness, was dismissed in 'Squire Elder's court Tuesday, the father of the defendants paying for the cow shot by one of the defendants.

GLAD HAND IS EXTENDED

SESSIONS CONTINUE FOR THREE DAYS

Various Committee Members Are Named at Opening Meeting.

Attorney Guy Colerick delivered the address of welcome to the delegates to the convention of the Indiana Jewelers' association which opened in the Anthony hotel Wednesday morning. Mayor William J. Hosey was scheduled to give the address but on account of his absence out of the city Attorney Colerick consented to take his place.

The speaker invited the fifty or more delegates who had gathered at the morning session to partake of all the conveniences which this city provides. F. S. Crebs, second vice president of the organization, of Frankfort, Ind., responded to the address and said that in behalf of the association he thanked Fort Wayne, noted for its business enterprises and the city of homes, for the hospitality already shown and for the cordial greeting extended.

Rev. A. J. Folsom, pastor of the Plymouth Congregational church, led in prayer immediately after the meeting had been called to order by President Otto. The president delivered his address at the morning session and said that statistics showed that the members of their craft were among the first to respond to the nation's call for men. He thanked the members of the association who assisted in overthrowing the proposed law which would have placed a heavy tax on all jewelers.

H. L. Rost, the first president of the association, and J. A. Oswald, the first secretary, were called upon at the morning session to make a few remarks. They were greeted with a hearty applause.

The following committees were reappointed at the morning session:

Resolutions — Walter H. Mellor, Michigan City; H. L. Rost, Columbus; Geo. F. Beach, Valparaiso; James Scribner, Attica; W. A. Howard, Rochester.

Membership—H. H. Bishop, Indianapolis; John C. Koegel, Fort Wayne; J. H. Henks, Vincennes; H. L. Trask, Crawfordsville; Frank J. Voirol, Fort Wayne.

Deceased Members — August Bruder, Fort Wayne; J. H. Young, Fort Wayne; C. A. Reinard, Kentland; J. W. Thompson, Danville; Herman Vollmer, Princeton; Fred O. Kuckuck, Fort Wayne.

Trade Interests—Chas. F. Arts, Evansville; Carl F. Walk, Indianapolis; O. P. M. Squires, Laporte; Carl Rose, Fort Wayne; John Goldsworthy, Elkhart.

Afternoon Session.

When the afternoon session opened at 1:30 o'clock many of the chairs, which were vacant at the morning session, were occupied. During the noon hour all the delegates visited room 30 in the hotel and viewed the exhibit of cut glassware and painted china in charge of George Switzer, who represents the Cambridge Cut Glass company. Many declared that it was the finest exhibit they had ever seen.

Hon. Samuel M. Foster, president of the German-American bank, addressed the delegates at the afternoon session. An address on "National Association, Its Importance to the Retail Jewelers," was delivered by Charles T. Evans, president of the A. N. R. J. A.

Immediately after the close of the afternoon session the delegates were taken for a twenty-five mile ride about the city. The trip will end at the Country club, where a 6 o'clock dinner will be served, followed by an informal dance.

The convention will resume Thursday morning at 9:30 o'clock. This will be a closed session for members only. The ladies who are attending the convention will visit Robison park Thursday afternoon, where a business session will be held.

PIONEER RESIDENT ANSWERS SUMMONS

Mrs. Catherine Bothner Had Lived in City for Past 59 Years.

Mrs. Catherine Bothner, aged 67 years, one of the pioneer women of the city, died at her home, 1018 Calhoun street, Tuesday night. Death was due to a stroke of apoplexy. The deceased was the widow of John G. Bothner. She was born in St. Joe township in 1850, but had lived in Fort Wayne since she was eight years old. She was prominent in church circles, being a member of the St. Mary's Catholic church and the Altar society. From her long residence in the city Mrs. Bothner had acquired a wide circle of friends and acquaintances, who will mourn her death. The deceased had suffered a first stroke of apoplexy about ten weeks ago, but had shown signs of recovery, until a week ago, when another stroke followed, which resulted in her death. All through her illness Mrs. Bothner had been patient and uncomplaining, and her noble qualities had endeared her to many. Surviving are a son and daughter, John and Anna Bothner, who lived with the deceased, and two sisters, Mrs. Christina Pierr and Miss Barbara Leuthner.

MRS. CATHERINE BOTHNER.

WAR NO HINDRANCE TO MAIL BUSINESS

Business is good at the postoffice since the United States entered the world war. The receipts for all kinds of transactions at the Fort Wayne office have run farahead of those for last year, since war was declared.

Balance for the first twenty days of June show that the present month has already run $3,000 in advance of the business done for the same period of June in 1916. There has been heavier mail traffic in every branch of the service, it is given out.

FOUR ARE WRITING IN CIVIL SERVICE EXAM.

One woman and three men were engaged in taking the civil service examination, given on the second floor of the federal building, Wednesday. The young woman and one of the male applicants are trying to enter the United States stenographic service. Two young men seek entrance into a national naval academy.

SHOULD HAVE MORE MEMBERS

Such is Opinion of Officials of Red Cross Society.

SHOWING HERE NOT UP TO OTHER CITIES

Small Towns and Churches Are Giving Great Help to Local Chapter.

While Fort Wayne never falls down in any worthy endeavor, officials of the local chapter of the Red Cross society are of the opinion that local citizens have not been sufficiently aroused to the purpose of the Red Cross and the imperative need of every patriotic citizen being identified with it.

There are at the present time between 5,000 and 6,000 members of the Fort Wayne chapter, not including the auxiliaries that have asked to join this chapter. Officials are of the opinion that Fort Wayne, with its population of 80,000, should have easily between 15,000 and 20,000 members. The following table shows what a few New York cities are doing in Red Cross membership:

	Pop.	Mem.
Ithaca	14,000	3,800
Olean	14,700	4,600
Little Falls	12,000	3,200
Ilion	13,000	8,000
Bradford	13,500	5,000

The above figures do not include auxiliaries.

Before war was declared with Germany the chapter at Detroit had a membership of 25,000. On April 30, the membership was 75,000 and will now exceed 100,000. Detroit's population is 700,500.

The membership fee is $1, half of which remains with the local chapter and the other half is forwarded to the national headquarters. Application for membership may be made at Red Cross headquarters on East Berry street.

Work at Headquarters.

Enthusiasm in the work of the Red Cross has not lessened since the close of the great campaign in Allen county to raise $100,000. Workers at the headquarters on East Berry street are actively engaged in the sewing and cutting of garments, and in attendance at the classes in the home care of the sick. A large class was present Tuesday night and Wednesday morning, working on fracture pillows. More volunteers are wanted at the headquarters, however, and the work of every person who reports will be appreciated.

A contribution of $5 was received at the headquarters from Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Thiebolt, of 736 West Berry street. The auxiliary chapter at Kendallville is reported as doing some fine work. Wednesday morning several workers from that town called at headquarters with a supply of finished garments, and asked for more for work in the coming week. The ladies of the Cathedral are also doing splendid work, it was reported at headquarters. Twenty-five new members were received Tuesday.

Mrs. Calvin at Antwerp.

Mrs. W. D. Calvin, general secretary of the Fort Wayne chapter, accompanied by Mrs. H. L. Askew and Miss Frances Ott, Red Cross nurse in charge of the home care of sick classes, were the principal speakers at an enthusiastic Red Cross meeting at Antwerp, O., Tuesday evening. Mrs. Calvin spoke on proper methods of organization, pointing out that if the rules of the society as sent out from national headquarters at Washington, D. C., are strictly followed there will be no trouble. Mrs. Askew, a member of the woman's committee of the Fort Wayne chapter, told of the work of that committee, its functions and its duties as defined by national headquarters. Miss Ott told of her work here in the classes for the home care of the sick.

The Antwerp auxiliary is a branch of the Paulding chapter. Mrs. Calvin has been invited to attend a Red Cross meeting to be held in Paulding, O., within the next few days.

Mrs. Guy Bassett and children are now at their summer home at Clear Lake. Mr. Bassett joins them for week-ends and his vacation.

He states that the supply houses have the material, but that they are unable to get the railroad cars to ship the stone and gravel.

NAVY HONOR ROLL.

Leander Finley, Fort Wayne; Bruce J. Carey, Huntington; William White, La Motte, Ind.

Results of the big campaign waged for recruits by the United States army recruiting station here are beginning to show up. Where for the past few weeks the number of enlistments has been four or five a day, Tuesday it was thirty-five.

A meeting was held at the plant of the General Electric company Wednesday noon and the hundreds of young men who attended listened to talks by Rev. C. Claud Travis and Capt. Thomas Ryan. Rev. Travis pointed out the path of duty to young men at the present time, especially that of men without the responsibilities of families who can feel much more free to serve the country in the field than those upon whom others are dependent. Captain Ryan told of the need for men and of the hopes of those in charge of the army that 70,000 red-blooded American young men could be secured without the aid of conscription.

Wednesday afternoon Captain Ryan went to Mishawaka to address a patriotic gathering, while Sergeant Turner with the Jefferson drum corps left for Wabash to attend a meeting there. Thursday afternoon some of the force from the office will go to Garrett to attend and address the Firemen's convention.

Repetitions of the band concert given last evening at the southeast corner of the court house will be given Thursday and Saturday nights, with the largest and final one scheduled for the latter evening. Some of the city's best speakers will give short addresses and the final drive in the big campaign for recruits will be made at this time.

DES MOINES GETS CAMP.

Washington, June 27.—Des Moines, Iowa, was finally confirmed today by Secretary Baker as the site of one of the sixteen national army cantonment sites after receipt of a supplemental report from Major General Barry, commanding the central department. The general stated that after personal examination of the ground he was entirely satisfied of its suitability for military purposes.

BIG PAYMENT ON THE LIBERTY LOAN IS DUE

Government Arranges for a Way That Will Spare Money Market.

New York, June 27.—Distribution by the federal reserve bank of between $80,000,000 and $100,000,000, received in payment on liberty loan subscriptions, began here today to the various banks and trust companies in the second federal reserve district, which have qualified as liberty loan depositories on liberty loan funds.

It was announced that the second installment of 18 per cent. on the liberty loan, amounting to $360,000,000, which is due today, will not have to be paid out by the dopistory banks.

Instead these funds will be retained and by a bookkeeping arrangement they will be placed to the credit of the government. It was said this action was taken because the withdrawal of such a large sum from the banks at this time might be followed by serious disturbances in the money market.

Summary of the Day's War News

(By The Associated Press.)

While General Haig is closing in so closely upon Lens that the capture by the British of that coal-mining city and its adjacetn fields seems imminent, it is a question whether the British operation will be accompanied by any offensive move by the French on a like scale.

Although there has been more or less constant jockeying for position by the two commanders along the Aisne and Champagne fronts, particularly the former, the German activities appear more like efforts to choke off any possible extended movement by the French than anything else. On the other hand General Petain's occasional strokes gives the impression that all he is trying to do is to preserve his vantage points as the basis for resuming the French advance at some future time when that effort seems advisable.

The most important of the recent French drives was that of Monday at Hurtebels, west of Craonne. The Germans seem to have suffered a considerable deprivation here, one of the positions taken being a fortress of some magnitude which had served the crown prince well as a point of departure for counter-attacks. No further attempts to retake the lost ground at Hurtebeis were made last night, the Germans contenting themselves with a spirited bombardment.

Cumulative evidence that all Russian opinion of influential character is now definitely set against any idea of a separate peace continues to come from Petrograd. The powerful pan-Russian efforts of soldiers and workmen's councils is emphasized on this point in a resolution adopted by an overwhelming majority.

The program of the entente in Greece continues to develop more and more tangibly. It is now evident that it is their purpose to cause the convocation of the parliament of May 31, 1915, which was controlled by the Venizelists have a majority for the entente cause. It was the dissolution of this parliament by Constantine that has been denounced as unconstitutional by the allies, the act being one of the chief counts of the indictment of Constantine as a betrayer of his people into a desertion of their natural allies.

Sinking of several vessels by German submarines or mines is reported. The list includes the American sailing ship Galena, of 1,048 tons, sunk by a bomb off the coast of France, on June 25. The sinking was unaccompanied by casualties. The Norwegian steamers Konghaaken and Magle were other vessels sent to the bottom.

WHAT DOES THIS MEAN

John W. H. Koehler and Wife Deed Over Property to Aunt Emma.

PRICE SAID TO HAVE BEEN $3,000

"Sammy" is Slated to Appear in Court to Receive His Sentence Saturday.

A transfer of property was recorded in the county auditor's office and a deed for the same property was filed in the county recorder's office Wednesday morning, which is causing much talk.

John W. H. Koehler, familiarly known as "Sammy," and his wife, deeded over lot No. 197 of Fairfield Height's addition, and part of lot No. 1, of the Koehler estate, to Emma Koehler, an aunt of Sammy's. The price of the property is said to have been $3,000.

It will be remembered that "Sammy" was found guilty of criminal assault on a fourteen-year-old girl by a jury in the circuit court last week. He was released on a $3,000 bail furnished by his aunt, Emma Koehler, and his brother, Mike Koehler. "Sammy" is slated to appear before Judge W. H. Eichorn next Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock to receive his sentence. He has his freedom until that time.

Officials have been notified of the property transaction. Koehler has been seen on the downtown streets several times since he gained his liberty from the county jail, when his aunt and brother furnished a real estate bail.

SHIFTS MARK BUSY POSTOFFICE LIFE

Five changes in the roster of the postoffice force marked the activities of Wednesday at the mail distributing center. Leslie Maxwell, city carrier No. 37, resigned his position to take effect at once. William Hackmyer, senior substitute carrier, is promoted to take his place. Albert Heft is also advanced to regular city carrier.

Oswald C. P. Brudi, chief registration clerk, gave up his position to take employment with the S. F. Bowser company. He will not leave his postoffice work until July 2. His place will be filled by a general shifting of the clerical force. John R. Erwin, senior substitute clerk, will be made a regular clerk.

SECRET SERVICE MAN IS WORKING IN CITY

Investigation of conditions, which have been reported from Fort Wayne, are being made by a government secret service representative. Thomas E. Hall, of Indianapolis, is the federal agent who arrived in the city on Tuesday afternoon. He is one of the most efficient of the United States secret service men in Indiana. It is not given out how long he will be in Fort Wayne nor the exact nature of his investigation.

E. M. Gnau, an apprentice at the Pennsylvania shops, is sick and off duty.

With the Kind Permission of Weather, Chiefs Will Play Today

MUST HAVE CHANCE AT NUTS DURING SEASON

Evansville Here for Three Day Visit Starting With Tomorrow's Game.

With the kind permission of the weather, which is ruling almost everything lately, the Chiefs were to play ball this afternoon. It is the final day of the series with Richmond, and as yet the visiting players have not tried wearing their uniforms. They made room for Honus Wagner and the Pirates Monday; they were all set to play yesterday, and it rained; they were slated for a double-header today, and—watch it.

Today's double-header was more than important for it was to be the first of a series of boys' days. All boys under 15 will be admitted on these occasions which will come at regular intervals during the vacation season. Both Manager Vandagrift and Secretary Essig are keen on having the youngsters attend, for they like to have the boys enjoy the games and like to hear them pull for the home club.

After today we will have with us Punch Knoll and his gang from Evansville. The Evas are a strong lot of athletes and the Chiefs will have to kick up a bunch of dust—if there is such a thing—to make any headway in getting out of the hole. For three days the Punchers will cavort around the local lot, after which the Chiefs will go to South Bend for three days. They will return from there bringing the Benders with them for the Fourth of July contest, and a few after that.

BOB GROOM, ONE OF BASEBALL'S VETERANS, IMPROVES WITH AGE; MAY HAVE HIS BEST SEASON THIS YEAR

(By Paul Purman.)

Some pitchers go along season after season without attracting much attention until a glance over their records show that they have really been pitching remarkable ball without anyone knowing about it.

Usually their work has been overshadowed by some brilliant star on their club and their consistent work is lost sight of as a result.

Matthewson caused the really wonderful work of Red Ames to be forgotten and Ames has gone along for years without reciving the credit he really deserves.

Bob Groom has gone along in the American and Federal leagues for more than a decade for the same reason.

He was at Washington at a time when Washington meant Walter Johnson with a big "W" and a capital "J." and when Groom jumped to the St. Louis Feds no particular attention was paid to it.

But Groom's work this year, when he has really passed the best years of his pitching career, as such careers are measured, deserves more than passing attention.

Groom, playing with a losing club, has won half his games, has pitched in more games than any other member of his club, except one, and than any pitcher in the league with three exceptions.

In these games he has allowed less than 2.50 earned runs per game and has come through with one no-hit and several low-hit contests.

With the exception of 1916 he is pitching better ball than ever, and along with Eddie Cicotte, Red Ames, Jack Coombs and a few others may be regarded as a direct refutation to the old-time baseball adage that a man's first years are his best.

BEST SEMI-PRO GAME OF THE SEASON NEXT

What is expected to be the best semi-pro game of the season here will be played next Sunday with the Chicago Keystones furnishing the opposition to Mart Cleary's Lincoln Life club. The Keystones make up one of the fastest clubs traveling out of the Windy city, and they will give the insurance men the time of their lives trying to put over a win. McWeeney, of the Dubuque Central association club, will hurl for the visitors.

Oestermeyer, who has been going at a great rate for the policy venders, will oppose the leaguer and he will be backed up by Devilbiss on the receiving end. Hines is leaving the city on his vacation, and during his absence "Bud" will catch all the games. Weberus, one of the city's fastest infielders, has been signed and will play second base. The playing of the semi-pros has pleased many fans and a large turnout is expected as the Lincoln Lifes will appear here only once more during July.

SPORT CHATTER

Pretty soft for winning Chicago golfers.

Pirates didn't lose the other day. They played a tie.

Umpire Gentle has been released by the Southern league. How could a guy with that kind of a name expect to get by as an umpire?

Scouts watch Brewers, comments a contem. Can't blame 'em with all this prohibition talk.

Johnny Maulbetsch Signs Contract and Keeps It Dark.

Holland, June 27.—John H. Maulbesch, 1916 Michigan football captain, signed a contract for life when he led Miss Ida Elizabeth Cappon, of this city, to the altar. Mr. and Mrs. Baulbesch will locate in Enid, Okla., where Maulbetsch will hold a position as coach in athletics.

UNITED STATES OFFICERS PEEVED AT STATEMENTS OF BOXERS

According to reports from Washington military and naval authorities are losing their patience at boxers who are using publicity about their intended enlistments for personal advertising.

When the United States first entered the war Jess Willard gave out several interviews regarding his intended enlistment. He even went so far as to intimate later that he would have enlisted, but that the army wouldn't accept him on account of his size. Chicago recruiting officers denied this and Jess became strangely silent.

Benny Leonard made a public statement that he would enlist immediately after he won the lightweight title from Fred Welsh. He failed to enlist, and a couple of weeks later went to Washington and gave out an interview that he had gone to the navy department to make arrangements to enlist in the navy.

Leonard has not yet enlisted.

LOUIS ISLAND WILL GO WITH BATTERY D

When Battery D leaves here the latter part of this week or the first of next week its roll will include the name of one of the best athletes of the city, Louis Island. Louis went to headquarters last night and signed up, ready to do his bit as a true American wherever the unit may be ordered. He is a well known figure in local sport circles, having played on the Friar football team, coached amateur elevens and served in an official capacity at basketball games.

Island is a full blooed Indian of the Oneida tribe. He is a graduate of Carlisle university, and was a member of the varsity football squad in 1906 and 1907. In 1914 he came here as a member of the Jackson independents to play the Friars. The local football men took a liking to him and he played here the remainder of the season and all of 1915. He has been employed by the General eElctric company heree. When he leaves the city it will be with the best wishes of a host of friends and admirers.

OFFICERS ELECTED.

At the regular meeting of the Phoenix lodge, No. 101, Knights of Pythias, held Tuesday night, the following officers were elected to serve for a period of six months: Chancellor-commander, F. E. Elder; vice chancellor, Samuel Randolph; prelate, Roy Bates; master-at-arms, J. M. Zollars; inner guard, J. W. Hostler; outer guard, J. D. Steinman; musical director, Charles Evarts; host, E. A. Sivits; representatives to grand lodge, J. H. McNamara and Peter Mumma.

In high or rough water, in angling for black bass, light colored and bright flies are most effective.

THE RING AS I SAW IT By "Spider" Kelly

(By "Spider" Kelly King of Seconds).

"Young' 'Corbett was blamed a whole lot because he went back so quickly.

I watched Corbett start as a youngster and saw that from the first he had a hard time making weight. It was this difficulty of taking off flesh and holding his strength that put Corbett down.

Many people have no idea how this weight business worries a fighter. And those who are naturally chubby or inclined to adopt flesh go through misery. No matter how careful some are in what they eat and drink, they become heavy. And when this happens to a fighter who has to box at a certain weight it is a serious and discouraging proposition.

Fully a dozen more entries are expected during this week and it may be necessary to run elimination to decide the entries for the main event.

Portz, Cleveland, Buick Special; Charles Mowery, Pittsburg, Stutz Special; Billy Knipper, Toledo, Knipper Special; Herbert Rudy, Lima, Lightning Comet; Glen Richardson, Warren, Ind., Baby Buick; Gail Dawson, Napoleon, O., Flying Maxwell; E. Rudy is at present holder of the Ohio state championship, and expects to experience no trouble in the coming races in maintaining his place at the top.

The program as arranged now will open with the 100 mile time trials in which all the cars will be entered. The driver making the fastest time will be given a silver trophy donated by the Lima chamber of commerce. Chicago, June 27.—Contestants for boxing championships of the United States naval training station at Great Lakes, Ill., announced themselves ready today for the deciding bouts tomorrow. James J. Corbett, former heavyweight champion, will referee and Chief Turret Captain Jack Kennedy, former champion of the north Atlantic fleet, will supervise the events. SENIOR MEETS

Of Central A. A. U. to Be Held at Stagg Field Saturday.

Chicago, June 27.—Despite the enlistment of many athletes in army and navy, more than 250 performers have entered in the central amateur athletic union senior track meets to be held Saturday on Stagg field at the university. The proceeds of the meet will go to purchase of an ambulance for service in France.

LITTLE GIANTS WILL CONTINUE ATHLETICS

Will Try to Secure the Release of Sheeks from the O. R. C.

Crawfordsville, Ind., June 27.—At a meeting of the athletic committee of the faculty and R. M. Rich, alumni member of the committee, it was decided to resume athletics at Wabash college next year. Football will be started as usual and it is believed twelve or more old men will be back for the nucleus of the 1917 eleven. The basketball, baseball and track schedules are being arranged and will contain about the same number of events as usual. Coach Paul P. Sheeks, now in the officers' training camp, may be had again, as high officials are trying to obtain his return to Wabash as military instructor of the Wabash battalion. Should it be impossible for him to return, some other well-known athlete will be engaged to take charge of the work.

The Wabash gymnasium will be finished before the start of the football season and the athletes will be comfortably housed in the new building.

Two tennis courts have been made and two more are in the process of construction. The authorities will put a new brick fence around the field to replace the old board one, and the field will be enlarged to make bleacher room on the east side of the field. Those in charge of athletics claim Wabash has a good crop of new men lined up who look promising, and the Little Giants of 1917-18 will be as strong as ever. The old men returning for the football season are: Stonebraker, Bacon, Captain Hannicker, Neal, Thompson, Cravens, Moses and Green, all letter men with a possibility of Lindsay, last year's find, at quarter. Haley, Mikels, Heald, Cravens, Tingley, Crone and a few of the second string men. The Wabash football schedule will be carried out as scheduled last winter.

MRS. GAVIN, METROPOLITAN WINNER, THREATENS MISS STIRLING'S TITLE

America and England are allies in the war, but America and England are foes in golf.

Mrs. W. A. Gavin is America's greatest foe on the links. She may dehtrone Miss Alexis Sterling, Atlanta's champion, and the greatest phenom the world has ever known.

Mrs. Gavin has won the metropolitan championship in New York and played such phenomenal golf that the best critics sat up and took notice.

Miss Sterling has played no golf this year, but this is not unusual as she was the "dark horse" last year when she won the national woman's championship, and she plays under the tutorship of Malcolm Stuart, who has advised her not to play against anybody who could not beat her.

The golfers who could beat Miss Sterling could be counted on your ten fingers. The American golfers who could beat her might be counted on the fingers of one hand and two of them live in her home town, Atlanta—Bobby Jones and Perry Adair.

Can Mrs. Gavin accomplish this?

"CHOPPING WOOD" BENEFICIAL— BRINGS ALL MUSCLES INTO PLAY

(By Jim Rice).

"Chopping wood" is an old exercise I learned as a young man up in Canada in the summer time. I don't mean chopping real wood with a real axe, but just going through all the movements of a man felling a tree.

Take up a stand as you would if you were about to commence to fell a big oak. Hack away at the old trunk with all the vim you can command. Imagine yourself a champion lumberman giving an exhibition of chopping against time. Keep putting your feet in different positions as if you were moving in order to get a better position for hacking.

When you begin to get puffed and tired start working away with the axe from the other shoulder. This will bring into play a different set of muscles than you were using at first and you will be able to continue at your task with comparative freshness.

After about ten minutes of this strenuous exercise you will at first have had about enough. You will probably be in a good perspiration and ready for the cold shower and rub down with a rough towel.

GREAT CONSERVATION OF FOOD CONVENTION

W. J. Bryan, Governor Goodrich and Prof. Christie to Be in Plymouth.

Plymouth, Ind., June 27.—Arrangements have been completed wherein Governor James P. Goodrich, Prof. G. I. Christie and W. J. Bryan will speak at Plymouth, Ind., July 9, on the subject of "Food Conservation." The bringing together of these national characters has been accomplished through the efforts of Hon. James K. Risk, of Lafayette, in co-operation with Plymouth citizens, and offers an opportunity to the citizens of Indiana to attend and come in touch with a food conservation meeting of national scope. Every citizen of the state and especially the northern half of Indiana should not fail to take advantage of this opportunity and join the crowd to hear these prominent speakers on the all absorbing subject of food conservation.

The meeting will be presided over by Governor James P. Goodrich, of Indiana, who will deliver the opening address.

Prof. G. I. Christie is in charge of the agricultural extension work at Purdue university, and also has charge of the Indiana food conservation. The professor is carrying on a marvelous campaign in the interest of food production and conservation in Indiana. The extension department of Purdue university of which Professor Christie is in direct charge has field men in every county in the state, through which much interest is being manifested in behalf of this meeting.

Hon. W. J. Bryan is speaking for the federal government, under the directions of both the president of the United States and the secretary of the department of agriculture. Mr. Bryan arranged to deliver one address in Indiana on July 9. Professor Christie in order to suit Mr. Bryan's convenience arranged this meeting at Plymouth, Ind., as Mr. Bryan was scheduled for an evening address at Winona.

The women of northern Indiana like the women in every section of this wonderful country, play a very important part in food conservation and food production, and they undoubtedly will be intensely interested in complimenting Indiana's great governor and the nation's great commoner, with their presence at this meeting; as these two men have rendered to the women of Indiana, in the quite recent past, a great service in making it possible for women to have a voice and vote in her government.

In fact, it is hoped that all people of Indiana will honor themselves, by honoringfi these great leaders, by being present at what is expected to be the greatest and most important meeting that will be held in our state in the next decade. This is a meeting in the interest of humanity; a meeting for the purpose of creating enthusiasm for the growing of foods and conserving same.

In addition to the great addresses that will be delivered by Professor Christie, Governor Goodrich and Mr. Bryan, there will be music not only by our local bands, but many of the best bands of northern Indiana will be in attendance. Also, a flag will be offered to the county outside of Marshall, sending the largest auto delegation to the meeting.

Plymouth and Marshall county appreciate fully the honor that has come to them on this occasion and cordially invite the citizenship of the entire state to become their guests on July 9.

SYSTEMATIC CONTROL OF BACK LOT GARDENS

Thirty-Five Districts Will Include All City Truck Patches.

Efficiency in the organization of the city food resources is to include the apportioning of Fort Wayne into thirty-five garden districts. G. W. Gray, Purdue university food expert, was busily engaged on Wednesday in planning the boundaries of the city truck sections.

A supervisor will be appointed by the food relief committee to inspect all gardens for each district. He will inspect all gardens in his given section. He will have two or three assistants. The supervisor will be a man who has had much gardening experience and who can direct the care of the garden patches.

The supervisors will be named by the food relief committee within the next two days. They will be called before members of the committee for definite instructions as to their work.

The garden districts include fifteen blocks in the section of city including the business district. The sections are smaller at the out edge of the city where much of the ground is used for gardens.

City gardeners are requested to seek information as to proper cultivation of their plats, from the supervisors of their district. The district directors are to discourage neglect of gardens. They are to urge constant attention of the growing vegetables.

Much rainfall has made the care an unending work this spring. In making a tour of inspection Tuesday Superintendent Gray found several plats where weeds, which have been neglected but a few days, have grown to the height of the potato vines. The weeds must be kept down and the ground constantly loosened if plants are to reach their best yield, Gray points out.

NEW STORE.

R. H. Brothers & Co. to Open Ladies' Ready-to-Wear Store About July 20.

A new acquisition to Fort Wayne's business district is now in course of completion at 119 West Wayne street, where the R. H. Brothers Co. will open up about July 20 one of the classiest and up-to-date ladies' ready-to-wear stores in northern Indiana.

The new store has a frontage of 35 feet with a depth of 120 feet. The front is being fitted out with French windows and art glass ovals at the top. Plenty of light has been provided for the interior by installing high windows on the east wall, making it the best lighted ladies' garment store to be seen anywhere. The interior finish will be ivory with ebony inlaid finish.

The two floors will be occupied by the new firm, which embraces the whole building.

The splendid variety of merchandise to be carried will be of the medium and better class of ladies' and misses' coats, suits, waists, dresses, silk underwear, fine negligees, etc.

Mr. Brothers needs no introduction to Fort Wayne, as he will be best remember as having been associated with the G. W. Gates Co. Mr. M. H. Ankenbruck—"Mart," whom everyone in this city knows, is the president of the new firm, and Mr. Brothers treasurer and general manager. The store will open its doors to the public about July 20, formal announcement of which will be made later.

Get ready for the Fourth—why wait until the last minute? Furnishings for the outing and the lake.

TAKE GRANDMA ALONG ON BOYS' DAY

Grandma goes so seldom, why don't you take her along on Boys' day? Take her to the Bijou building in the grove, where Miss Basteus will register her name and address. She will then receive her bit of the candy treat and a little souvenir of Boys' day from far off Japan. She will also be given one of the copper trail pennies. A dear old grandma who had always attended all the park's special days was called home in January. In her time worn and faded purse her daughter found a penny that grandma had gotten in the copper trail on Romp day. She was in the midst of the big scramble and she had won her battle just as she had won every other battle through her long years. Grandma will enjoy Boys' day, because it will recall her own happy childhood.

INSTALLING NEW MACHINERY.

The Pennsylvania millwrights have just completed the work of installing a new discharge header at the coal docks, just east of the round house, putting the docks in first class operating condition again. Arrangements are now under way for the installation of a modern heavy face and guide bar grinding machine in the machine shop, to take the place of a planer employed at present in doing that kind of work. The new machine has a table 134 feet long and is provided with a sixteen-horse power individual motor, being the most powerful machine of its kind in the city. It was built by the Diamond Machine company, of Providence, R. I.

TICKET AGENTS HAVE EATS.

A group of local passenger men were guests of Traveling Passenger Agent J. J. Teeters, of the Burlington, at the Pennsylvania lines restaurant, Monday noon, the object being to give the local business hustlers opportunity to meet General Passenger Agent J. Francis, of the Burlington, who came down from Chicago for that purpose. Seated at the table with Mr. Francis and Mr. Teeters, were P. Parnin, district passard Pierce, assistant ticket agent of senger agent of the Nickel Plate; Howthe Pennsylvania, and F. C. Eggers, local passenger agent of the Wabash. Passenger business in all its phases was the chief subject of discussion.

INVENTORY CLERKS BACK.

Two of the local Pennsylvania men engaged in annual inventory work at different places on Pennsylvania lines west of Pittsburg have returned to the city. Frank Kelker was at Lancaster, O., on the Panhandle, and William Bade was at Logansport on the same system. C. P. Cherry, general material inspector for the northwest system, who has been looking after inventory work on the eastern divisions, is still there, and J. H. Hobrock, who had charge of the work on the Grand Rapids and Indiana system, is still on the north end of the line. Both will probably return tonight.

TAKES POSITION AT DENVER.

W. Large, for a week or two employed as a tester at the General Electric works, retires from the works Saturday and will leave soon afterwards for Denver, where he enters a two years' student course with the Henry L. Doherty corporation. This corporation controls 150 lighting and power plants in the country and the school it maintains at Denver is for the purpose of training young men for electrical expert work or superintendents of plants. They guarantee each pupil a good job at the close of his school term. Mr. Large is a son of Master Carpenter H. M. Large, of the G. R. & I.

FOUR SECTION MEN HURT.

A derailment and subsequent collision of hand cars on the Pennsylvania near Kirby, Ohio, at 3:45 o'clock yesterday afternoon resulted in painful injuries to four section men. The two hand cars were moving rapidly over the line in the same direction, running about 100 feet apart. The car in the lead suddenly became derailed, throwing two of the men off and injuring them. Before the second car could be stopped it dashed into the derailed car, knocking two more men off and hurting them. Nobody was killed and it is understood that the wounded are not seriously injured.

TELEGRAPH SERVICE KNOCKED OUT.

Lightning put the Grand Rapids telegraph lines north of this city out of commission for over three hours yesterday afternoon. It struck the sub-box at Wallen at 2 o'clock and it was 5:30 o'clock before the damage was repaired and the service restored. The telephone and telegraph service in the vicinity of Grable, on the Wabash, was also deranged yesterday afternoon, when the high winds carried three or four poles down and crossed the wires. The repairs were soon made.

WOMEN IN CONNEAUT SHOPS.

A dozen women are at work in the Conneaut shops of the Nickel Plate. Three are running drill presses and machines of that character and nine have been assigned the task of picking up scrap iron and kindred work in the shop yards, subject to transfer into the factory to operate machines whenever necessity occurs. It is said that the women so far have given satisfaction and that more of them will be put to work as soon as they can be secured. Men are scarce at Conneaut.

ARNOLD TRANSFERRED.

The "boys" in the Pennsylvania trainmaster's office are in receipt of a letter from U. A. Arnold, who enlisted in the medical department of the army several weeks ago and went to Fort Thomas. He is now located at Fort Benjamin Harrison in the capacity of stenographer to Major Ruffner. "Tony" likes army life as far as his experience has gone and according to the letter he is in the best of spirits.

COMPANY WANTS TO SETTLE.

In settlement of a damage suit instituted by the heirs of Engineer W. J. Kisiman against the L. E. & W. company, the latter proposes to pay the plantiffs $4,500, providing the administrator executes a release from further liability. TWO WEEKS REMAIN IN WHICH TO APPLY

More Mature Men Wanted for Officers Reserve Training Camp.

Only two weeks remain for accepting applications to the second officers' reserve camp, which will open at Fort Benjamin Harrison August 27. The examining committee, under Captain E. H. Kilbourne, is meeting daily at the Commercial club at 1 o'clock at noon and at 7:30 in the evenings. A number of applications have been received to date, but not enough of the men that are desired by the government. The requirements for the second camp are extremely rigid, first as to age, and secondly as to military experience and executive ability. The quota for Indiana for the new camp is much lower than for the first and the branch committees are being instructed by the government to use utmost discretion in selecting men.

The last day for accepting applicants will be July 15, and shortly after that date army examiners will be sent to various points to examine the records of applicants who are considered suitable. Chairman E. H. Kilbourne, of the local examining board, wishes to impress upon men desiring admittance to the second camp, the requirements as to age and experience demanded by the government. Men below thirty-one are to be given little encouragement, unless they possess pre-eminent qualifications or have considerable military experience. The board will meet again Wednesday night and Thursday noon.

WOMEN WILL KEEP AT IT

Advised to Register for September Voting as Long as Possible.

COUNSEL EMPLOYED TO ADVISE STEPS

Register So Long as Clerks Will Permit, and Then Before Notary.

Indianapolis, Ind., June 27.—Plans for continuing the registration of women to vote for delegates to the constitutional convention were made today and instructions to "continue to register for the constitutional convention so long as the clerks will take registrations. Then register by notary," were sent broadcast in the state by Mrs. Richard Edwards, president of the Women's Franchise league of Indianapolis.

The message was sent to 160 branch leagues in the state. It follows the interpretations of a decision by a judge of the superior court here on Monday that the law giving women the right to vote for delegates to the convention is unconstitutional and registration must cease when an injunction is issued.

The same suit attacked the validity of the law calling the constitutional convention but the court held that valid.

Mrs. Edwards said today she feels the franchise league won a victory by that part of the court's decision. Abram Simmons, of Bluffton, and Allison Stuart, of Lafayette, two lawyers retained by the women, made arguments in favor of the convention law. If the Indiana supreme court should overrule the decision of the lower court in holding that women cannot vote for the delegates, the women plan to file with the county clerks the registrations before notaries.

MAY FORCE BULGARIA TO BREAK RELATIONS

Germany Puts Her Ally Under Pressure to Cut Out America.

Copenhagen, June 27.—Although Bulgaria is opposed to breaking off relations with the United States, the fear is expressed, according to information reaching here, that Premier Radioslavoff may have been compelled to purchase concessions, for which he went to Berlin, by a sacrifice of American relations as part payment.

The influences against a break with the United States are of a twin nature, a sentimental character based on the influence of the American Roberts college education upon many prominent men of old and new Bulgaria and upon the respect for the faraway republic with no ax to grind in Bulgaria. The practical Bulgarian does not expect to see any thoroughgoing dominance of either of present power groups after the war. The only circumstances which would lead to native Bulgarian sentiment for a rupture with the United States would be, according to information received by The Associated Press correspondent, the appearance of American troops at Saloniki. Bulgaria having got possession of all advantages which are included in the present stage of its ambitions—Macedonia and Dobruga—and finding the burden of running even a minor power share of the world war a growing menace to its financial future, is a strong advocate of the Germany peace movement.

Premier Radioslavoff has talked peace both in Berlin and Vienna. The government dispatched a Bulgarian socialist deputation to Stockholm with its godspeed and instructions to work for peace, however, with the retention of Macedonia and at least southern Dobruga as an adequate essential. The plan for a so-called corridor cut from Serbian territory along the west bank of the Danube to join with Austria-Hungary is more an Austro-German than Bulgarian idea. Bulgarians are not particularly enthusiastic for it.

HOAX OF GRAVE NATURE SPRUNG OUT OF CHICAGO

Chicago, June 27.—A hoax of a serious nature was discovered here today when Mayor Thompson received a telegram from Secretary of State Lansing accepting an invitation to the Belgian mission to visit Chicago. In the midst of excitement over the school board row neither the mayor nor the city council extended such an invitation, investigation is said to have disclosed. Alderman R. H. McCormick, who entertained the Italian mission here recently, said that he would present a resolution for an invitation to the distinguished Belgians at the next council meeting Friday.

DANISH VESSEL TORPEDOED.

Washington, D. C., June 27.—Sinking of the Danish steamer Gunhild was reported to the state department today. Her survivors said the steamer was torpedoed without warning and sank before lifeboats could be lowered. Five of the crew were drowned. One was killed by the propeller. A destroyer rescued the remainder of the crew and two passengers twenty minutes after the ship was struck. There were no Americans aboard.

SOCIALIST OF INDIANAPOLIS IS IN TROUBLE

Indianapolis, June 27.—The case of Joseph Zimmerman, an Indianapolis socialist, who was arrested in South Bend Sunday because of a speech in which it is said he advised against enlisting in the army or navy and condemned the war, was taken over by the federal government today on affidavit made by George N. Murdock, an agent of the department of justice, charging violation of section 3 of the recently enacted espionage law. This is the first case under the new law in the state. Deputy United States marshals were to go to South Bend this afternoon to take charge of the prisoner. The maximum penalty under the law is a fine of $10,000 or twenty years' imprisonment, or both.

RED CROSS WELCOMES CATHOLIC SISTERS

No Purpose or Desire to Keep Them from Mercy Service in War.

Baltimore, Md., June 27.—To offset a malicious rumor which has been put in circulation that the American Red Cross was discriminating against the nursing sisterhoods of the Catholic church, Cardinal Gibbons took up the matter with the Red Cross, and has received a letter from Eliot Wadsworth, acting chairman of the American Red Cross, Washington, D. C., which says in part: "Your Eminence: The question of the attitude of the American Red Cross toward utilizing the services of nursing sisterhoods has been raised several times lately. It might almost appear from the form of some of these questions that a rumor was being deliberately circulated that the American Red Cross was in an unfavorable attitude toward allowing the sisterhoods to assist in the care of wounded soldiers and sailors.

"It seems advisable to state unequivocally to you at this time that members of the nursing sisterhoods may wear their official dress while serving as nurses under the Red Cross, and that the Red Cross has no desire in any way to debar the sisters on account of their dress, or on any other account, from serving their country as all other nurses will desire to do."

F. A. Huguenard, of Hanna street, and his niece, Miss Ethel Hayes, of Eliza street, have returned from Decatur.

ROOMER FINED FOR ATTACK ON LANDLADY

Bert Spitler, Bartender, is Shown No Leniency by the Court.

Mrs. Alice Miller, 522 Calhoun street, was afraid to tell her husband about the visits which Bert Spitler, bartender, made to her boudoir because she thought he might fly into a rage, she told in police court Wednesday morning. She finally mustered courage to tell Mr. Miller when she realized that Spitler would not desist from his designs, she tearfully told Judge Kerr.

In the presence of the many eager-faced male spectators who filled the railed enclosure of the basement court Wednesday morning Mrs. Miller related to the judge how Spitler had taken advantage of the absence of her husband, who was working a night shift at the Dudlo plant, to enter her bedroom. She begged the man to leave her room, she told, holding her small baby in her arms as she testified.

Spitler, who was represented by an attorney, refused to testify in the case. He has been away from the city for a week since he was told to leave the home of the Millers. He was fined $35 and costs upon the charg of assault and battery.

"Next time a man comes into your room stick your head out of the window and call a policeman," Judge Kerr told Mrs. Miller.

Had No Card.

Whereas, The party of the second part desires to procure a sidetrack connecting the main tracks of the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad Company and the Pennsylvania Company with the portion of the manufacturing plant of the party of the second part lying south of Wall street in order to facilitate the shipping of property of the party of the second part to and from the said portion of said plant, and

Whereas, The said Railroad Companies are unwilling in their name to construct and operate said sidetrack for said purposes;

Now, therefore, in consideration of the covenants and agreements to be performed and complied with by the party of the second part as hereinafter provided, consent, permission and authority are hereby given and granted by the party of the first part to construct, maintain and operate or cause to be constructed, maintained and operated, a single track railroad across Wall street in the City of Fort Wayne at a point substantially eighty-nine (89) feet west of west property line of Union street, all in accordance with a plan P. 1,735,711 hereto attached and made a part hereof.

LAKESIDE SWIMMERS MAY GET BATH HOUSE

Boys Who Plunge in Park Lake Have No Place to Change Clothes.

A temporary bath house may be erected by the side of the lagoon in Lakeside park for the benefit of boys who seek the cooling depths of the lake these sun-blessed days. Building of a shed may come as the result of objections from residents in the park neighborhood, who complain of the present facilities for the changing of garments of the swimmers.

The boys who take a "plunge" must wear their bathing suits from home or change apparel by the side of the lake. The lads who come from home with bathing trunks under their clothes must wear the wet togs back home. Many youngsters come from a distance and there is danger of bad colds in making the journey in wet garments. Others of the lads insist on changing their array near the water. This practice is the chief objectionto the present plan.

A conference between park officers and city officials may be held later to determine on definite action for conducting bathing in all park waters.

Driveway Opened.

The repair of the driveway across the Coombs street bridge has been completed and is now open for traffic. New flooring has not been laid as yet for the entire strip of sidewalks along the side of the bridge.

THE MARKETS

WHEAT CONTINUES TO SELL AT OLD PRICES

Hay Features Markets With a Two-Dollar Drop Wednesday.

Reports that wheat had dropped sensationally late Tuesday afternoon were found to be erroneous Wednesday, the grain continuing to sell at the prices set one week ago, $2.30@2.32. The fact that the grain is dropping all over the country probably led to the anticipation of a decrease in quotations by local dealers, but as yet none has been made.

Receipts on the wholesale department fell off considerably Wednesday and only fourteen loads were weighed at the city scales. Eleven of these were hay, which caused a slight sensation by falling $2 in spite of the small quantities for sale. The price now ranges from $11.00 to $13.00 per ton.

Two loads of corn brought $1.59@1.60 per bushel ,while one load of oats sold at 70c. The latter figure shows an increase of about 10c per bushel.

EMBARGO TALK PUTS WHEAT DOWN FURTHER

Prospect of Early Employment of Restraint is Depressing Factor.

Chicago, June 27.—Wheat prices showed a decided downward tendency today as a result of assertions that immediate embargo restrictions on wheat shipments from the United States were likely and that the Canadian surplus would be given preference in supplying European needs. Opening quotations, which ranged from the same as yesterday's finish to 1c lower, were followed by a sharp descent and then something of a rally which, however, failed to last.

Embargo talk had a bearish effect on corn as well as on wheat. After opening unchanged to 1c lower, recovered somewhat and later underwent a fresh sag all around.

Oats eased down a little in sympathy with other cereals.

OUTLOOK FOR EASIER MONEY HELPS STREET

Stock Market Displays Increase of Strength on Prospect.

New York, June 27.—Probability of easier money conditions as a result of the decision of the treasury department to distribute a large part of the liberty loan fund among local banks imparted general strength to the stock market at today's opening. War shares asserted their recent prominence, many of the more popular equipments rising a point or more with United States Steel. Motors and oils also rallied from their depression of the previous session and coppers and shippings were more steady. Later railway shares, especially coalers, became increasingly active at higher levels. Reading gaining a point and Pittsburg Coal two points.

United States Steel became the dominant issue of the forenoon on its rise of 2¼ points to 132½. Similar industrials also recorded advances of 1½ to 2½ points and coppers, shippings and petroleums developed greater strength. Inquiry for rails was light with consequent reactions in that quarter. Studebaker and Saxon Motors were among the few heavy stocks, with Ohio Gas, but exerted little adverse influence.

Activity in liberty bonds mostly at a premium of 1-50, with odd lots at 4-50, was the noteworthy feature of the firm bond market.

MAKING SEARCH FOR FIREWORKS IN GREAT CITY

New York, June 27.—Inspector Owen Egan, of the bureau of combustibles, today continued his search for fireworks. Four dealers were cited to appear before him and explain the possession of fireworks, and ten others arrested yesterday were convicted and fined, while fireworks to the estimated value of $2,000, have been seized. The police are cooperating with the bureau of combustibles in an effort to stop the unlawful sale of fire crackers and fireworks for use in Fourth of July celebrations.

RAIN AND ELECTRICAL STORM PLAYS HAVOC

Lightning Hits Three Houses and Performs Many Queer Pranks.

Much damage was done by the frenzy of a rain and electrical storm which visited these parts Tuesday afternoon. Lightning struck three houses besides damaging telephone and telegraph lines. Rain fell in torrents and it is also reported that hail was plentiful in some sections. Thirty-three hundredths of an inch of rain fell during the storm.

Reports from the rural distrcits near the city are that the crops were somewhat damaged by the storm. The rain, hail and wind layed flat many oats and wheat fields. Cabbage plants were cut to pieces by the hail and tomato and potato stalks were stricken to the ground.

The lightning was fierce and the peals of thunder were deafening. The fuses in many street cars were burned out and telephone and telegraph wires were put out of commission. Railroad companies also state that their telegraph poles and wires were damaged.

The city fire department was kept busy during the storm answering three calls. In each instance houses had been struck by lightning resulting in small blazes. The first call was to the home of B. E. Smith, 1329 Dodge avenue. The second to the home of W. Schwager, 927 East Creighton avenue, and the third at the residence of M. Hahn, 443 East Leith street. The damage in each of the cases did not exceed $25 by fire.

In the fiscal year 1915-1916, the British postoffice collected nearly 11,000,000 letters and 875,000 parcels weekly for the troops abroad and handed them over to the army. It distributed £2,200,000 weekly in separation allowances to 2,700,000 persons.

DEMONSTRATION TO BE GIVEN BY RED CROSS

At the Big Fourth of July Celebration at Swinney Park.

Everyone attending the patriotic Fourth of July celebration at Swinney park will be privileged to see a practical demonstration of Red Cross work. Immediately following the afternoon program at the speaker's stand, a Red Cross and ambulance unit will give a battlefield exhibition. The purpose of this demonstration is not spectacular play or even entertainment, but education of a most serious present need.

The staging of this interesting feature of the day will take place either on the Camp Allen recruiting ground, directly across the St. Mary's river from the park, or within the open spaces of the driving course. Extensive arrangements are under way to make the exhibition realistic and impressive, and worthy of the patriotism expressing itself in the quiet and tender ministry of the Red Cross.

BARN ON THE JOHN SPINDLER FARM BURNS

Structure Reduced to Ashes After Being Struck by Lightning in Storm.

The frame barn on the farm of John Spindler, in Milan township, eleven miles from Fort Wayne, just off the Maysville road, was struck by lightning during the storm Tuesday afternoon and burned to the ground.

County Agent A. J. Hutchins, who had been in Harlan attending the address given by Mrs. Charles Sewell to the members of the Harlan Woman's Country club, was at the scene of the fire. None of the family was home and consequently nothing was saved.

The barn was 35x50 in dimensions, but luckily it contained no grain, hay or live stock. A binder, buggy, riding plow and a cultivator were consumed by the flames.

Mr. Hutchins stated that the storm which swept through this part of the country was one of th most severe ones he had ever experienced. He said the wind attaind a high velocity and wrecked many smaller buildings. He also said that there was not a farmer who did not lose more than two trees by lightning. All the smaller creeks were out of their banks.

CONSIDERING TWO TOWNS FOR COURSE

Farmers' Institute Will Be Held Either at New Haven or Monroeville.

G. M. Frier, the farmers' short course man from Purdue university, who was in Allen county Monday looking for a place for holding of a farmers' short course next year, left the city with two cities under consideration. New Haven and Monroeville are the two towns which are being kept in mind.

It has not been definitely decided as yet whther Allen county will secure the big or the small course next year. The big course includes a car load of live stock. Another town in Indiana is making a strong bid for the long course, but it is known that Mr. Frier favors Allen county in this respect.

The enthusiasm as shown by the farmers in the vicinity of the two towns where it is possible that the short course will be given will be one of the determining factors in making the seleetion, it is said.

PERSHING'S ARMY HAS LANDED IN FRANCE

FIRST PICTURE OF AMERICAN TROOPS IN FRANCE

American troops are on the firing line in France. This picture is the first in this country. They are shown for the first timewearing metal helmets such as all U. S. troops will wear in Europe. This picture, exclusive from Kenneth Payne, London correspondent, reaches here before any wire announcement of the presence of armed American troops on the battle front. It is passed by the censors, and so constitutes the first official announcement that our armed soldiers are fighting beside our French and British allies. These troops reached the front May 24, and are commanded by Capt. E. J. Tinkham.

AMERICAN ARMY DISEMBARKS AT A FRENCH PORT

Second Contingent of United States Troops Safely Voyages Atlantic and Is Ready for Service.

AMERICAN WOODMEN REACH ENGLAND

A French Port, June 27.—The second contingent of American troops arrived and disembarked this morning.

The troops landsd amid the frantic cheers of the people, who had gathered for hours before in anticipation of duplication of yesterday's surprise.

Enthusiasm rose to fever pitch when it was learned that the transports and convoys had successfully passed the submarine zone. The port was speedily beflagged in honor of the occasion. The troops were transferred to a camp not far distant from this port, where Major General Wm. L. Sibert is installed.

Thence they probably will go soon to a point near the front. All the troops are in excellent shape, enthusiastic over the successful trip and their reception and eager for action.

EX-CZAR'S LADY FRIEND WANTS SOME MILLIONS

Petrograd, June 26.—(Delayed)—Mademoiselle Kahesinska, the dancer and favorite of the former emperor, has instituted suit against the provisional government for two million rubles owing to its failure to eject the followers of Nikoli Lenine, the radical socialist leader, from her palace, which they occupied during the revolution, and the refusal of the government to send troops to evict Lenine. The period for the evacuation of the villa expired today but the Leninites decline to leave.

A dispatch from Petrograd, May 29, said that after a long process in the courts, the keys of the palace had been delivered to Mademoiselle Kahesinska. At the time the dancer complained that furniture valued at 227,000 rubles was missing from the palace.

Washington, June 27.—With recruiting week half gone, war department officials estimated today that the regular army still is more than fifty thousand men short of war strength, the goal it had been hoped to attain by Friday night.

On the face of the returns so far, it is apparent that there has been no general response among men of military age to President Wilson's call for 70,000 volunteers during the week to fill up the ranks of the regular establishment and thus complete the first

THINK COCCHI'S MIND IS LOOSE FROM MOORINGS

Bologna, June 27.—An effort will probably be made to have Alfred Cocchi, the slayer of Ruth Cruger in New York, undergo a mental examination. Signor Venturini, Cocchi's attorney, believes such an examination is indispensible, as he is of the opinion that the man is not entirely responsible for his actions. According to the defense even Cocchi's behavior in prison is not that of an entirely sane person.

MEXICO RAISES IMPORT DUTIES ON NECESSITIES

Mexico City, June 27.—By order of the government all import duties were removed last night from articles of prime necessity, including foodstuffs, from July 1 to December 31. Import duties were also removed on gasoline and higher derivitives of petroleum. This places the refiners in Mexico in competition with refiners in the United States and undoubtedly brought about the sudden rise here in the price of gasoline from 21 to 50 centavos per litre, or approximately 50 cents a gallon.

RUSSIA WILL STAY IN WAR

Workmen's and Soldiers' Congress Declare for Loyalty to Allies.

WILL NOT MAKE A SEPARATE PEACE

Congress, However, Asserts That Early Peace is Necessary.

Petrograd, June 27.—A resolution categorically rejecting any move for a separate peace between Germany and Russia has been adopted by an overwhelming majority by the congress of workmen's and soldiers' deputies of all Russia.

The resolution at the same time declares that restoration of peace at the earliest possible day is the most important need of the Russian revolutionary democracy.

The resolution, which was proposed by revolutionary socialists and the social democrats, says:

"The present war arose in consequence of aspirations of imperialists prevailing among the ruling classes of all countries and tending toward the usurpation of markets and submission to their economic and political influence of small and decadent nations.

The war is leading to complete exof one of the belligerents would conand is placing the Russian revolution on the edge of a precipice. While

ALL RIGHT, BUT WHENCE COMETH THE STURDY LOG

Washington, D. C., June 27.—Restoration of the backyard wood pile as a precautionary measure against a possible coal shortage next winter is urged by the government forest service. Facilities will be furnished to those who desire to remove timber from national forests for use as fuel. Last year 250,000 cords of wood were permitted to be taken from the government preserves. A nation-wide use of wood as a fuel, it is believed, would help solve the transportation problem and relieve the increasing demand of industrial plants for coal.

Washington, June 27.—President Wilson may not approve the $26,000,000 river and harbor bill if it comes to him without provision for a presidential commission to study the waterway situation. Provision for such a commission, which the president strongly favored, was stricken out of the bill on a point of order in the house yesterday. After the bill is voted on finally in the house, which was expected today, it will go to the senate.

DAMAGE TO OLD DEWEY FLAGSHIP NOT YET KNOWN

Newport, R. I., June 27.—The condition of the United States cruiser, Olympia, which struck on a shoal in Block Island sound yesterday, was not revealed by navy authorities today. Although the crew abandoned the warship and came to the naval station here, reports sent to the navy department last night said the ship was resting easily. It was believed that she had sustained considerable damage. Whether an attempt to float the Olympia would be made today could not be learned.

SECRET SERVICE MEN GUARDING A FEDERAL JUDGE

New York, June 27.—A number of secret service men today were assigned to guard the court room at the trials of Alexander Berkman, editor of The Blast, and Emma Goldman in the United States district court. Both were indicted recently for conspiracy to obstruct the operation of the selective draft law and are out on $25,000 cash bail each. The court room was ordered guarded following the receipt of threatening letters by Judge Mayer, who will try the case, and Harold A. Content, an assistant United States attorney.

Washington, June 27.—Henry L. Consular agents of the allies are forbidden to vize passports of such persons, yet a large number of American citizens of that class are nurses or physicians in base hospitals.

London, June 27.—Reports received here from Norway say that the German legation at Christiana formally protested against breaking of the official seals on the baggage of Aarn Rautenfels, a German who is among those arrested in connection with the conspiracy to blow up seized ships.

The legation demanded the surrender of his trunk but without success. There is no confirmation of the statement printed in Paris that Germany asked Norway to apologize for the breaking of the seals.

CROP OUTLOOK IS PROMISING

Less Rain and More Sunshine is Badly Needed for the Corn.

WILL CUT WHEAT IN ABOUT THREE WEEKS

Indications Are That Apple Crop Will Be Extremely Disappointing.

Crop prospects in Allen county are most encouraging, notwithstanding there has been more than a sufficiency of rain. Corn is especially in need of dry weather.

Wheat in Allen county will be ready to cut in three weeks, and not much of it before that time, in the opinion of A. J. Hutchins, county agricultural agent. In some parts of the county the heads are now beginning to turn. The crop is much better than was anticipated.

Some clover is already being cut and within another week clover cutting will be general throughout the county. The clover is at its best. Most farmers are turning this clover into pigs—or the pigs into the clover, or both—except where they have a large surplus, as there is more money in pork at present prices than in almost anything else.

Oats and rye are in very good condition. The extremely wet weather has had some effect on corn, but in the opinion of Mr. Hutchins, no serious damage has been done up to the present time. Farmers predict at least a normal corn crop.

Indications are for a poor apple crop. Cherries will probably be scarce and there will be only about a half crop of peaches.

the Indiana commission to order preference given to certain kinds of freight," he wrote, "and the heavy demurrage charges and the limitation on the right to reconsign coal and then with an adequate force of inspectors to see to it that these orders are carried out, the coal situation can be largely worked out.

Operators Playing Horse.

"That the operators do not want an adequate supply of cars is being conclusively demonstrated in our state. We find them loading cars light, and slow about loading cars when delivered to them. In many cases large consumers of coal, too, are allowed to remain in cars, paying a light demurrage; so the demurrage should be prohibitive after the first forty-eight hours."

Assurances Given.

Assurances that the government and general public will be furnished coal at a reasonable price were given by representatives of both hard and soft coal interests, who again today conferred with the national defense council's coal committee. This is the coal operators' answer to warnings by Secretaries Lane and Daniels and others that unless they established fair prices and proper regulations their output would be taken over by the government.

The price of coal is to be determined, with the defense council's coal committee approval, by a special producers' committee which aims also to increase production and facilitate distribution.

PIONEER BREWER CALLED BY DEATH

Xavier Hammerle Passes Away After Illness of Five Weeks.

Xavier Hammerle, aged 70 years, died at 5:20 o'clock Wednesday morning at his home, 1157 West Main street. Death was caused by paralysis, and followed an illness of five weeks' duration. The deceased had lived in Fort Wayne for the past fifty-two years, having been born in Germany. He would have celebrated his fiftieth wedding anniversary next May. Mr. Hammerle engaged in the brewing business in this city fifty years ago, starting the Nierman Brewing company, which was located at the corner of Superior and Harrison streets. He remained in this business for twenty years, when he opened a saloon in Nebraska. He retired from active business ten years ago. He was a member of the St. Paul's Catholic church, Holy Name society and Sacred Heart league. Surviving are the wife and six children, Edward, John, Otto, Frank and Anna Hammerle and Mrs. Theodore Witzingreuter. Five grandchildren and one great grandchild also survive.

Funeral services at St. Paul's Catholice church Saturday morning at an hour to be announced later.

FRENCH CHAMP CARPENTIER IS HEADED ACROSS

New York, June 27.—George Carpentier, the famous French army aviator and light heavyweight boxer, will visit America within the next few weeks, according to R. C. Kelgin, a boxing promoter, who has just returned from France. Carpentier, however, will not accept any engagements to meet American boxers while here, but will confine his activities to aiding recruiting for the French army flying corps. Carpentier will show some official war films depicting the work of the French army flying corps.

Several months ago there were persistent reports that Carpentier would come to America to engage in a bout with either Jesse Willard or the late Les Darcey. However, negotiations to this end failed, because, it is said, the French government would not grant a furlough.

Latin-America in the world conflict will be determined and at which will be discussed how peace can best be brought about.

The diplomat said that the invitation from Argentina was sent about a month ago and Mexico had accepted.

Time Not Fixed.

The time for holding the congress, he said, was unfixed but urgent efforts are being made to hold it in the immediate future. It is understood that the fact that congress would include only Latin-American countries instead of the whole western hemisphere has been widely discussed by the South and Central American newspapers in view of the United States' entry into the war, some holding that a congress without the United States was important, others declaring Latin-America should take its own course regardless of the attitude of the United States.

United States Ignored.

Wide discussion continues over the declaration by the newspaper El Universal here that the most advantageous course for Mexico was to break relations with Germany. El Universal asserts that the propaganda represents the real opinion of thinking Mexicans. El Democrata attacks the proposal as unpatriotic in view of the fact that the government has declared a policy of strict neutrality and describes the horrors facing Mexican soldiers if sent to Europe.

making millions of victims and absorbing billions of the wealth of the countries, it threatens to increase still more the disorder in which Russia was left by the old regime, leading to famine and turning the country from productive labor for consolidation of its newly won liberty.

"The congress recognizes first that ending the war by means of the defeat o fone of the belligerents would constitute the point of departure for fresh wars, increase dissensions among the nations and lead them to complete exhaustion, famine and ruin. Second, that a separate peace would strengthen one of the belligerents and give it the possibility of a decisive victory over the others and would strengthen aspirations towards usurpation by the ruling classes, and while liberating Russia from the grip of world-wide imperialism, would hinder international unification of workers. Consequently the congress categorically rejects every policy tending in fact to the conclusion of a separate peace or to its prelude a separate armistice."

The workmen's and soldiers' deputies will send a delegation to Sweden, France and England to prepare for the convocation of an international conference on the base of the program adopted by the executive committee.

CALLING IN ALL MEMBERS

Equipment of Battery D is Rapidly Being Rounded Into Shape.

PREPARE TO LEAVE WITHIN A FEW DAYS

Company E, Infantry, Holds Election of Non-Commissioned Officers.

Assembly bugle is being blown by Battery D's bugler.

Following the order to mobilize, which was received Tuesday afternoon the officers with Lieutenant Luther Mertz in charge have set about calling in all the members of the organization. Those who could be reached by telephone were informed of the order in this manner.

Members who reside in the vicinity of Fort Wayne, were ordered by mail to report to the State street armory. Those boys who have gone to distant cities were informed by telegram. It is the opinion of the officers that all the members will have reported by Friday noon.

While a large force of men are doing clerical work, the larger number are engaged in rounding the equipment into order. Everything at the armory has assumed a military aspect.

Officers are of the opinion that they will be called to Fort Benjamin Harrison, Saturday. Although the boys are kept busy at the armory, nevertheless the chief topic of conversation is about the appointment of Lieutenant Dawson as captain of the organization. They still insist that Luther Mertz should be given the captaincy of the battery.

Company E Elects.

In view of the fact that many of the non-commissioned officers in Company E, the infantry unit of Fort Wayne, were given honorable discharges upon the return of this organization from the border, the vacancies were filled at the election of officers held Monday.

Sergeant Lynn Shoub was made top-sergeant. Others who were appointed as sergeants are: Herbert Loomis, Jay Fish, Harold Dennison, Walter Wheeler. The following men were named corporals: Paul Hunt, James Reynolds, Seal Ramsey, Dysert Ravenhall, Frank Barnett.

May Draft for Men.

In order to fill the ranks of Battery B, drafting in the state of Indiana may be inaugurated in Fort Wayne, according to local military officials. However, it is sincerely hoped that enough young men of this city will respond to the call for volunteers in order to fill the ranks of both batteries. Battery D is also in need of a few men.

Drill Schedule Received.

A schedule of drills for Company E has been received by Captain Ray McAdams. Recruits who have enlisted since June 25 and will enlist will be given special attention. According to the schedule drills must be held twice a week and school once a week.

DUTCH IN GLEE OVER BARGAIN WITH GERMANS

Amsterdam, June 27.—A dispatch from Amsterdam says that several Dutch newspapers approve the agreement between the Dutch and German governments with regard to the seven Dutch merchantmen which were torpedoed off the English coast last February. Holland is to pay Germany a sum equal to the total amount paid for insurance on the merchantmen, while Germany undertakes to replace the lost vessels by the cession of a number of ships in the Dutch East Indies. The Telegraaf describes the agreement as a pleasant surprise and the finest success for Dutch diplomacy since the beginning of the war.

sistent demand. He has been succeeded by Admiral Paul von Fintze, former minister to Mexico and Cuba.

Discovery of the German plot to destroy Norwegian steamers by explosives, unearthed late last week, has appalled the whole nation. The newspapers demand publication of all the facts in the case and of the steps which are being taken to bring the matter to the attention of the German government.

In all a ton of explosives has been discovered, concealed in artificial lumps of coal which presumably were to be placed in ship's bunkers and in bombs filled with the most ingenious mechanism.

It has developed that a trunkful of explosives was brought to Christina in February by a courier of the German foreign office, whose official seal was on the trunk. The trunk was addressed to the German embassy here and according to international usage it was admitted without examination.

After the discovery of the explosives the German embassy declared the trunk was destined for Finland, but no explanation was given as to why it had remained here so long.

The explosives were found in all manner of articles, including glass vials, fountain pens, pencils, cigarettes and tobacco.

By a vote of 8 to 7 the senate agriculture committee rejected the sub-committee's prohibition plan and proceeded to consider other substitute proposals.

After rejecting the sub-committee's prohibition plan the full committee adopted the house prohibition provisions with a modification as to manufacture of vinous beverages. The new provisions would prohibit manufacture of all intoxicants, including both distilled spirits and malt beverages and wines, but would allow the president discretion to permit further manufacture of wine only.

ENLISTMENTS RUNNING SHY

Drive Falls Below Average.

Returns for the first three days, in fact were below the average of the weeks preceding. They were far below the expectations of officials here who had been confident that the president's direct and clear cut appeal for volunteers would bring home to thousands the fact that their country needs them at once. While officials believe that in most communities the press and other semi-public agencies have responded to the request for co-operation in stimulating interest in the recruiting campaign they also are convinced that in some places the president's appeal had not been placed properly before the men who are eligible. Yesterday twenty-six states reported that they had secured during the day less than ten recruits each. Three states reported no recruits at all. Undoubtedly the remaining days of the week will see greater activity and officials still hope great gains in recruiting totals will result.

Still Have Faith.

They believe many hundreds of men of the class called upon by the president are only beginning now to realize the urgency of the call and will not allow recruiting week to go by without offering themselves for their country's service.

Only nine states are on the honor roll of those which have completed their quota of war volunteers. Only eight others have their quota 75 per cent complete. Twenty are below the 50 per cent line and six are below 25 per cent. Nevada has set a mark for all other states to shoot at, with her total war volunters to date exceeding her quota by a ratio of almost 4 to 1. Called upon for 162 men the state has enlisted 630. Oregon and Utah are running a neck and neck race for second place with their over enlistment approaching the 200 per cent mark. Down at the other end of the line is Vermont with only 79 men in a quota of 710.

GERMANS WARNED OF WORSE YET TO COME

Allowance of Fat Next Winter Will Be Less Than Now.

Copenhagen, June 27.—Germans are informed officially that rations of fat next winter will be less than the scanty allowance of 50 grams weekly last winter, and that therefore marmalade, preserves, etc., must be relied on almost exclusively to render the daily bread palatable.

Following the precedent set in the French revolution the central bureau charged with the distribution of fruits and vegetables has introduced a new division of time. The year hereafter will be divided into nine marmalade months and three compote months according to the materials for bread spreading.

Although the announcement has a semi-humorous appearance, it has serious bearing for it emphasizes measures taken to check the export from the United States of fats to Germany and also of shipments of apples, which occasionally reach the central empires from America. The bureau also contemplates a regulation limiting individual purchases of fruit to two or three pounds at a time, so as to make the supply go around.

AMERICAN ARMY DISEMBARKS AT A FRENCH PORT

Maj. Gen. Pershing, the American commander, is expected tomorrow, when additional troops are expected. The harbor is dotted with convoys. The streets are filled with soldiers in khaki and wth bluejackets.

Great numbers of trucks are transporting immense supplies to the camp in whcih the troops are concentrating.

PART OF PERSHING'S FORCE.

Washington, June 27.—The epochal landing of American troops in France cannot be fully discussed at this time for obvious reasons.

It is entirely permissible to say that they are part of the force which will be under command of Major General Pershing and for whose arrival the general and his staff have been arranging ever since they landed on the other side. The American troops will be an entirely independent command, just as are the British troops, working, of course, with the French at the head of operations as they are on French soil.

WOODMEN REACH ENGLAND.

London, June 27.—Ten units of American woodmen sent over by New England states and organizations to turn various forests of the United Kingdom into lumber have arrived on English soil.

The complete equipments of the units caused much surprise and occasioned a great deal of favorable comment. The woodmen brought with them not only the necessary machinery, but were fully equipped in every way even to lubricating oils. Their arrival found them ready to establish their sawmills and begin work. The only necessity for their maintenance is raw food, which their own cooks will prepare.

GERMANY'S GOLD GOES DOWN.

Says it is suicide to cut corns and tells how they lift right out.

You simply say to the drug store man, "Give me a quarter of an ounce of freezone." This will cost you very little, but is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn from one's feet.

A few drops applied directly upon a tender, aching corn should relieve the soreness instantly and soon the entire corn, root and all, can be lifted out with the fingers without pain.

This new way to rid one's feet of corns was introduced by a Cincinnati man, who says that while freezone is sticky, it dries in a moment and seems to simply shrivel up the corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue or skin.

Don't let father die of infection or lackjaw from whittling at his corns, but cut this out and make him try it. —Advertisement.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Catarrh is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is a constitutional remedy, is taken internally and acts thru the Blood on the Mucous Surfaces of the System. One Hundred Dollars reward is offered for any case that Hall's Catarrh Medicine fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

Most Common of Bodily Ills.

By far the most common of bodily ills is constipation. The usual cause is the indifference of many people to Nature's call. The inclination is not heeded, or it is put off until a more convenient time. When this is done repeatedly, constipation is almost sure to follow. It is of the utmost importance that everyone establish a certain time for the bowels to move each day and let nothing interfere with it. When that is done and proper food and exercise are taken and an abundance of drinking water, the bowels are not likely to give much trouble. When a laxative is required take Chamberlain's Tablets. They are mild and gentle, easy to take and agreeable in effect.—Advertisement.

Announcing Bergo

A cereal beverage that establishes a new standard of liquid refreshment.

A sparkling, wholesome drink that upsets some of the world's oldest notions about cereal beverages

We expect Bergo to prove a sensation in more ways than one.

It upsets some ideas that are almost as old as mankind.

It has always been comonly thought that the wealth of food and flavor which Nature has stored up in her choicest grains, could be given liquid form only in alcoholic drinks, or in heavy, lifeless, unattractive substitutes.

But with the perfection of new and distinctive Berghoff processes, we have finally demonstrated that it is possible to produce a cereal beverage at once delightfully refreshing, full of nourishment, and free from every objection.

It can be done. It has been done.

Bergo is the proof.

Sparkling with life, refreshing in the truest sense of the word, with just enough snap to make it extremely inviting, Bergo is unlike anything you ever heard of before.

It has the true cereal flavor—a distinctive Bergo taste, neither bitter or sweet—which will appeal strongly to those who avoid alcoholic beverages yet find no physical gain or comfort in the average soft drink.

But the most remarkable thing about Bergo is that it is winning over many a man who thought no soft drink could interest him.

Bergo is not merely harmless. It is as beneficial as it is pleasing. It appeals to everybody, old and young

When you're hot and tired, let "Bergo" refresh you

It quenches the thirst, and it really refreshes.

For Bergo is not a compound of flavoring extracts, spices, or drugs.

Bergo is a liquid cereal—cool, delightful in taste, and nutritious.

It invigorates and refreshes the hot, tired body in the most natural way—by giving strength.

Bergo is distinctly the pure and healthful thing to drink.

And it is splendid for the invalid and the man or woman with failing appetite.

It doesn't "fill you up," either. You can drink all you want of it, without the slightest distress.

Nothing better for all social functions

For the afternoon party, try Bergo.

For the evening gathering, the "Dutch" lunch, Bergo will admirably serve every purpose. It helps make a perfect Welsh rarebit.

When you come home tired and nervous from the strain of shopping, a glass of sparkling Bergo will instill new life.

For the porch gathering, when human nature seeks diversion and entertainment in cooling drinks, remember that Bergo is the most delightful of them all.

The surprise of your life awaits you when you try Bergo. You may have tried other things, but nothing like Bergo. Served at soda fountains, cafes and clubs, or delivered to your home by your grocer.

Accept no substitute. Bergo is entirely different from anything you have ever tried.

Try Bergo at the soda fountain, or get some for your home today.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 27, 1917.

MAKING IT CLEAR.

The government has put it up to the big coal interests of the country to choose between reason and something else. The coal interests know what the something else is likely to be if they elect that and not the alternative.

At a notable conference in Washington between officials of the government and the coal barons the coal situation was gone into with a deal of thoroughness. It was brought out that prices are above any warrant for the skyrocketing figures at which coal goes to the consumer. That this is the fact was admitted by some of the operators.

Secretary of the Interior Lane made strong appeal to the patriotic sentiments of the operators and was warmly applauded by them. That was fine and inspiring, but of itself will cut no figure in bringing down the price of coal, for that was and remains the chief matter in hand. If the operators have been for a fact stirred by appeal to their spirit of loyalty, to their sense of national stress and peril and to their impulses of patriotic duty, the outcome of the problem of coal may well be left to them; but transient emotions may weigh as nothing against the lure of sordid usury of profits when they get back to their books and begin to compute percentages and matters of the sort. The situation offers some perfectly elegant possibilities for adding up and adding to and it will take patriotism that is soundly imbedded to work against the cold blandishments of cash that simply waits to be taken.

The operators have, aside from the constraints of duty to which not even coal barons may remain indifferent in mind even if indifferent in morals, some material concern in the future as well as in the present status of the fuel business. What the government may today find compulsive for the fencing of the nation in war, might in the end work out to satisfactory demonstrations of possibilities for the public good after the war and indefinitely. The idea is not by any means new. Nationalization of coal lands and government control, if not actually government operation of coal mines, have been discussed heretofore. Some thinkers who are not open to any ascription of socialistic tendencies and are reasonably conservative in about all social, political and economic matters, have considered that on many accounts a basic material which invests one of the most vital domestic and industrial necessities ought to be brought under some sort of rule by government that insures supply and stabilizes price on fair levels. They believe this would be neither radical nor unreasonable. That idea appears not to have proceeded far in the general mind, though common experience of the past year must have done much to set people to thinking about natural resources, common abundances, vital necessaries, monopolies, extortions, exploitations, shortages, denials and government ownership or control. Another winter like the last, even without the intervention of war, would be quite apt to set public opinion ahead many years on this matter. With stern compulsion to meet all the necessities, multitudinous and dire, raised up against them by the great conflict, the people of America will not be slow to demand on their own account such protection as government can give them.

As for the government itself, it has no alternative. It has the prodigious responsibility of winning this war. Its straits cannot be compromised or modified or in any wise or to any degree temporized with. The compulsions under which it proceeds are absolute, inexorable. It can prosecute this war as well without men as without coal. It has just pronounced dictum that ten millions of young men are subject to and shall be ready for call to the colors and orders to the battle lines. The government that can conscript ten millions of young men cannot be held to be without either authority or reason to commandeer ten millions of tons of coal or all the coal and set the conditions and fix the terms as it has done and will do with the bodies and lives of its flowering youth.

The coal barons have been given something more than a hint. The thing has been made clear, we believe. It remains to be seen how they shall perform in the openness of new light and better understanding. They can do much for the people and more for their government, but most of all for themselves if they prove able to interpret the signs. The world is moving fast these days. The wheels refuse to stick to the ancient grooves, and are grinding new ones.

FALLING DOWN AGAIN.

This is the week of the big drive for 70,000 volunteers to fill the ranks of the regulars and bring the establishment to full war strength. The week is half gone and something less than a third of the men asked for in the president's proclamation have enlisted.

It is of no present importance that this result makes a jest of the cock-o-doodle-doo stuff about a "million men springing to arms over night," or turns to a shrieking joke the banal eloquence of that distinguished statesman who said that out in his home state of Missouri a "conscript is held in no better esteem than a convict." The important fact is a serious fact. The government wants seventy thousand men of military age and bodily fitness to join the army for immediate service in France. The government is not getting them. By the week's end the seventy thousand may be on the enlistment rolls, but the promise is not heartening that this will be so.

Ten millions of men are on the registration rolls for military service. Of these it is calculated that about one and one-half millions will be conscripted within a year. Near three-quarters of a million of them will be selected for service within a short time, for the draft may begin next week. Those who expect to be conscripted—certainly those who are willing and ready for service—might be thought of as having certain preferences for going into the service as volunteers, since they would enlist only for the war, would escape some of the tediousness of the big training cantonments and would be sure to see service at an early day.

Less than three-quarters of one per cent of the men registered would make up the levy now proceeding. Considering that any fit and able man between the ages of 18 and 40—an advantage of three years in the minimum and nine years in the maximum for conscripts—is eligible to volunteer, it is a bit puzzling to make out why enlistments drag.

Most surely here is the opportunity for the men who want to see service and se it early.

IN EXTREMIS.

Nothing but fear of death and the devil ever could have moved the senate of the United States to surrender the keeping of the aegis and the palladium to the president. After a torrential waste of words and a sinful waste of time the senate now decides that the thing to do with Woodrow Wilson is to make him dictator—master of the absolute.

In short, the senate arrived at the point where it was under necessity to decide whether it would, or would not smite the demon rum with the bludgeon of war prohibition. The senate lacked the sturdy insides to meet that situation with courage and unequivocation, as the house had done in passing the food bill. So the senate sidestepped—passed the buck—and has put it up to the president to smite booze or give it grace, just as he may will, and it's all one to the senate.

So the matter stands. The senate bill clothes the president with authority to sweep the nation with a bone-dry simoom or to let the country continue to swill itself in wonted fashion, war or no war, bread or no bread.

We don't know that there is any objection to this design itself. We believe the president will not hesitate to do what the senate should not have been afraid of doing. If the need of grain for food becomes such and is shown to be aggravated by the use of grain for drink, or the conversion of some two or three hundred thousand barrels of stored red liquor into denatured alcohol for munitions grows into an imperative matter, we do not believe President Wilson will dally with his duty.

But the spectacle of the senate is not inspiring. It is ludicrous.

There will be no quarrel with the senate for turning over to the president the power to deal with war-time prohibition, but it is rather a shock to see the Guardians of Liberty in congress going to sleep at the switch. If ever there was a time when vigilance was the price of liberty—and specially personal liberty—it is now, with war stress, public feeling and other considerations making a hostile set at the blood-bought provilege of making it and drinking it where sold. And the senate gives the keeping of the fate of that to the president. Gee whiz!

A drowsy humming away off in the air somewhere to the east makes a noise as though Alfonso of Spain were about to make application for membership in the ex-King's club.

A NEW CONSTITUTION

(Copyright 1917 by John A. Lapp.)

The Indiana constitution requires that all property be assessed uniformly and equally except such as may be exempted. These exemptions cover only religious, educational, charitable and municipal property and do not apply to any property in the hands of an individual. In Indiana then every bit of private property must be assessed at a uniform and equal rate. Farm lands, household goods, bonds, cattle and implements are required to be assessed at a uniform rate regardless of the income which they produce.

The first thought is that equality of assessment is a fair method but upon consideration it appears that if unproductive property such as household goods are assessed at a uniform value with farm land the system actually results in the confiscation of the household goods because they produce no income. Commercial deposits in banks are unproductive to the depositor but under the uniform system they would be subject to the same rate of taxation as productive bonds.

The first result of uniform assessment is to force into hiding many kinds of property to be assessed, thus leaving the burden to fall on tangible property which cannot be concealed.

This result being plain to tax administrators, led to the proposal that property be classified and that each kind of property be assessed at a value which would be fair for that kind of property.

All kinds of special taxes have been tried to reach property which was known to be escaping taxation. One of the most popular of these taxes is the registration taxes—such as those on mortgages. Recognizing that mortgages were escaping taxation, Alabama tried the plan of charging a small recording tax and exempting the mortgage from other taxation. Several other states, including New York, Michigan and Minnesota, followed the idea with good results. Connecticut exempted bonds of all kinds if they were recorded and the recording fee paid. New York did the same with all secured debts. These kinds of property which had largely escaped taxation were now taxed at a low rate and there was little attempt at evasion.

Six states, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Minnesota, Iowa, Rhode Island and North Dakota have gone farther and placed a low rate on all kinds of intangible property. The rates from two to five mills which is very low compared with other property. In all of these states a greatly increased amount of property of this kind was assessed. People more willingly listed their property, knowing that the rate was not confiscatory and in every state but Iowa the returns were greater from such property at low rate than had been previously secured at the high uniform rate.

Minnesota went further than any of the other states and classified all property. Tangible property is divided into four classes. Iron ore is assessed at 50 per cent of its value; urban real estate is assessed at 40 per cent; rural real estate at 33 1-3; household goods, wearing apparel and personal belongings at 25 per cent.

Of the workings of the Minnesota plan Professor Charles J. Bullock, of Harvard university, said in an address in Indianapolis last year: "This scheme of classification was very largely based upon the antecedent conditions existing in the state, and amounted virtually to a legalization of those conditions. It made possible a far better assessment of property in 1914 than had ever before been secured, and has therefore greatly improved conditions in Minnesota. Concerning it the tax commission of the state has said: 'From a theoretic standpoint it is open to very serious criticism and leaves much to be desired; but as a measure designed to accomplish a practical and much needed reform, it has proven a most pronounced success.'"

With this opinion I heartily concur. Other states can learn from Minnesota's experiment the great advantage that accrues from having property assessed in conformity with the law rather than according to standards established by local authorities in defiance of the law. But the plan of assessment at fractional valuation is in some respects unfortunate, and the classification of the different items of property is at some points open to criticism."

The classification in Minnesota is a rough one and merely follows the practice of assesement which quite generally prevailed in that state before the law was passed. The rates of assessment are arbitrarily fixed and are not defended as scientifically correct. Each state would probably have its own peculiar classification.

The question which arises in discussing the classification of property is this: Upon what basis is the classification to be made? Actually the classification must be based upon income and in a rough sort of way it is only another form of the income tax. A scientifically formulated classified tax is an income tax in different clothes.

The classified property tax requires for its success a high type of tax administration. No state has succeeded without giving ample power to the state tax board. In Iowa, which depended upon the old system of local assessors without state supervision the flat tax on intangibles had slight success while in Minnesota the whole plan has been highly successful because of the strong state tax commission and its control over local assessors. Under existing tax administration in Indiana the classified property tax would not be a success although it is highly probable that it would succeed better even with weak administration than the present system of uniform assessment. Under a state tax commission with real power over local assessors it would undoubtedly be successful.

WORLD BROTHERHOOD IS TO COME AS RESULT OF WAR, SAYS A PREACHER

By REV. CHARLES STELZLE.

For those who cannot go to war—as well as those who will go to the front—there is a distinct obligation to dedicate themselves to the task of helping on the great new brotherhood of the world.

This brotherhood will be founded upon the revolution which is sweeping through every country on the globe, and which is working itself out through the war, from the effects of which no nation can escape.

Nor can this movement for the brotherhood of man be retarded by petty hates and spites or by the ambitions and intrigues of kings and cabinets and the heartless machinations of contemptuous politicians.

For hundreds of years the race of men has been getting ready for this world-wide brotherhood. And all the signs point toward the fulfillment of the noble ideals which have been vaguely, though persistently, floating through the hearts and minds of those who each in their day and generation brought their contributions toward this world democracy.

The Russia of hundreds of years is no more—the czar is gone forever. The Germany of generations has closed itself in—to be opposed by every forward-looking nation, and by the larger-minded Germans themselves, until it has been crushed for all time.

England—self-confident, self-satisfied, luxurious, with class-spirit highly developed—though sound at heart—has seen the need of closer and sincerer co-operation with the wider visioned nations of earth.

France—light-hearted and gay, often careless—although it had the blood of heroes and martyrs in its veins—can never again be what it was.

And America—we are being shaken out of the ruts of commercial success and money-making—and brought to a clearer sense of the appreciation of the higher values of life, which we heretofore only half understood.

Out of all this will come a purified world seeing new ideals and holding truer aspirations. But if these are to be realized there must be great and constant individual devotion to the cause of democracy and brotherhood.

When enough of us catch this "vision-splendid" and determine to live it out—making the sacrifices demanded of us in shop and office and store—while those who are at the front are doing their share to "make democracy safe"—then "the day" will have arrived. For this may every man of us fervently pray and work.

There's a scripture passage to the effect that "righteousness exalteth a nation." This means justice, whatever else may be included in the definition. And don't let's forget that no nation can be righteous until its citizens are just. Nor can there bea world-democracy until there is in it at least the same standard of fair-dealing.

The coming of the world-brotherhood depends less upon platforms and pronouncements than it does upon our readiness to give to our brothers their just due.

And so that no man may escape "conscription" in this larger task, let it be understood by every one of us that there is no class or condition in society which is free from the personal obligation to give every other man the same square deal demanded by each of us for ourselves.

A DANGEROUS SUIT.

(New Castle Times.)

The suit brought by Henry W. Bennett, of Indiana, to have declared invalid the acts granting women the right of suffrage and the act calling a constitutional convention sets up a strang situation. The suit asks that the people of Indiana be restrained from expressing their desire at the polls and demands that the suffrage court declare what laws the people shall have and what they shall not have.

There will be no woman suffrage and there will be no new constitution unless the majority of the voters of Indiana demand them at the polls. But Mr. Bennett, in his suit, seems to take away the right of the people to say what laws they shall have. He wants to establish a government by courts instead of by the people to deprive the voters of Indiana the right of self-government. This suit would allow the people to govern themselves only as long as it suited the ideas of the supreme court.

Everything attacked in this suit by Mr. Bennett will be submitted to the people at a special election so that nothing will be forced upon the people of Indiana unless that majority of them demand it. When Mr. Bennett attacks these acts he asked for a government by the courts rather than by the people. It is a dangerous suit and attacks the very foundation of a free government by the people.

JUSTIFIED.

[Indiana Daily Times.]

That is our moral justification for now being at war with Germany but, as the president said, it is only part of the story.

The other part is concerned with Germany's ambition for world domination, the first step toward which was to be the welding of all the central European states into a great empire controlled by German militarism, which would hang like the sword of Damocles over the free democracies of the world.

The president points out in words that will probably be a great shock to those who are hypnotizing themselves into the belief that Germany is all but defeated, that the Germans have actually carried the greater part of that plan into execution: "From Hamburg to the Persian gulf the net is spread."

And now, having accomplished practically the purpose for which they set the world on fire, the Germans want peace.

The president says in effect that there can be no peace until the Germans are defeated and their dream of world domination, based upon what they have already won, is shattered.

There is no suggestion of "peace without victory" in the president's address, and there can be no such thought in the mind of any other American who appreciates the full meaning of the German ambition and menace.

THE AVIATION PROGRAM.

(Chicago Herald.)

Of all the plans for utilizing the new instruments of war most quickly and effectively for the aid of the allies the proposed aviation program is the most hopeful. Congress will be asked to back it up by appropriating an immense sum—$600,000,000—for the construction of an overwhelming aerial fleet.

Already the allies have an immense advantage over the Germans in the number of effectiveness of their fighting planes. At least that is the report that comes from the west front. Could this mastery be made absolutely overwhelming the eyes of the opposing army would be practically put out and military operations on its part would be made increasingly difficult.

Moreover, an immensely great and more effective air equipment would make possible more aggressive action against various points where munitions are made and stored, against submarine and other naval bases, and against the army in the field. The possibility of quick construction of submarines gave Germany a chance it was not slow to seize. Rapid construction of fighting planes offers the allies an advantage that must not be overlooked.

A SILVER LINING.

Who says there isn't a silver lining to war taxes? When the new tobacco tax comes in, every man may explain to Friend Wife that the more he smokes, the more he supports his country.

Plans are being laid for the establishment in Philadelphia of a great hydro-aeroplane school. It is reported that regular passenger routes will be established in connection with the school, and the practicality of the aeroplane will be demonstrated not only by trips between New York, Boston, Washington and Philadelphia but also by trans-Atlantic flight.

Recent excavation, following the caving of the bluffs, overlooking the Mississippi river, at Riverside park, near Memphis, brought to light a number of relics of Indian pottery, including a water bottle, a panel vase, pestles, hammers and arrow heads. The trophies of the art of the extinct mound builders have been added to the valuable Indian collection at the Cossitt library museum.

The Canning Interest.

Canning spinach, peas and green beans and making strawberry jam in the quickest an deasiest way is a part of the canning work that is being explained in different school buildings of the city this week. The pressing need of providing a large quantity for one's own household is increased by the urgent need to so provide that the call on factries will be diminished and this country can therefore aid her allies for the next few years. The more canned beans, peas, beets, spinach, tomatoes and so on and the more fruits put in home cellars the more the country can send away. At the Hoagland school yesterday spinach was cleaned, cooked for six minutes and then canned and cooked in hot water for ninety minutes. Peas were cooked from five to ten minutes and after being canned were in the boiling water cooker for two hours. Strawberry jam was made by measuring by cupfuls, two of sugar to one of berries, and cooking it for six minutes after the fruit and sirup began to boil. Some people add a quarter cup of water to the sugar and let the sirup form before adding the berries. Others mash the berries about half and mix with the sugar without water and cook seven minutes after it begins bubbling.

WERE WED IN ST. PATRICK'S CHURCH.

MR. AND MRS LYNN GARMAN.

A beautiful wedding in St. Patrick's church on Wednesday, was that of Miss Helen M. Gruber and Mr. Lynn A. Garman, which took place at 9 o'clock. Rev. Father Delaney performed the ceremony and officiated at the high nuptial mass. The bride, who is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gruber, of 226 East DeWald street, is an unusually pretty young woman of a sweet character, and she made a beautiful appearance in her bridal costume. Her gown was a white satin made with train which was embroidered and the chantilly lace bodice had a bertha of satin embroidered to correspond. Over the handsome bridal robe fell the full folds of a tulle veil that was fastened to the hair by a tiny wreath of swansonia blossoms that extended across the forehead and held the fullness of the veil. The bridal bouquet was of bride roses and swansonia, shower effect. The bride was accompanied by her father who gave her in marriage and her attendants were her sister, Miss Lenore Gruber, as maid of honor, and Miss Ada Garman, the groom's sister, as bridesmaid. Mr. Garman was attended by Mr. Alfred Diem and Mr. Harry Hinkle. Mr. Nelson Bauer and Mr. Ray Lindemuth were ushers. The maid of honor wore a coral pink satin gown trimmed with a tunic of lace and a hat of white maline which had a single crystal ornament. Miss Gruber carried a Tipperary cane that had a cluster of marguerites tied with tulle fastened to its top. Miss Garman was gowned entirely in pink, her gown of taffeta having a fichu of georgette crepe and her hat being a combination of pink crepe edging the brim and a ribbon crown that formed a pompon on top. A bouquet of pink roses completed this pretty costume. The church was decorated with syringa blossoms and palms and the wedding party entered to the music of Grieg's "wedding day" march. The wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride and a crystal basket of daisies and the bride's cake that was ornamented on top with a dainty ornament used by her mother on her wedding cake, were the center of attraction. Smilax garlanded the table and the cake and many daisies and white roses were used in the diningroom and livingroom. Covers were laid for fifty. Members of the bride's graduating class at St. Catherine's academy served. They were Mrs. John Sullivan, Mrs. Arthur Mills, Miss Marie MacMullen, Miss Irma Blee and Miss Irene Lennon. Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Byers, of Pittsburg, sister and her husband of the groom. The bride and groom departed in the afternoon for Chicago, the bride wearing a good looking suit of gray and blue stripe satin, with pale pink georgette crepe blouse and a Milan braid hat trimmed with a feather edge on its brim and a crown of ribbon, also white. Boots and gloves were gray and a handkerchief bag was of material like the suit. On their return home Mr. and Mrs. Garman will go to housekeeping immediately at 120 Berger avenue. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Garman and he has an excellent position as head of the transformer productions department at the Fort Wayne Electric plant.

June Bride Has a Pretty Wedding

MRS. FRANCIS SULLIVAN.

A pretty wedding took place in St. Mary's church on Tuesday morning at half-past 9 o'clock when Miss Marcella Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Smith, of Oak street, became the bride of Mr. Francis Sullivan, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Sullivan, of 817 Cottage avenue. Mgr. J. H. Oechtering performed the ceremony and officiated at the high nuptial mass. The bride was beautifully gowned in white crepe de meteor with lace and silver trimmings and she wore a veil and carried a shower of bride roses and swansonia. The bridesmaid was Miss Teresa Bauman and she wore a good-looking gown of oyster gray taffeta satin with large picture hat and carried pink roses. After the wedding service the bridal party were served breakfast at the home of the bride, where many friends and relatives awaited the arrival of the bride and groom and showered them with congratulations and good wishes. The bride was presented with many beautiful gifts. At 5 o'clock the bride and groom left for Chicago, where they will be entertained by relatives. On their return home Mr. and Mrs. Sullivan will go to housekeeping in their newly furnished home at 525 East Creighton avenue.

Women Often Help in Boosting High Prices

A number of women were talking about the great Woman's Army Against Waste, and one of them said, "Isn't it about time this army should point its heavy artillery against other wastes in the household?"

"What particular one have you in mind?" was asked.

"The one where women indiscriminately have goods sent to their homes and then for no valid reason send them back."

One of the big stores told the other day that it cost 24 cents to make a delivery of any parcel and that one-eighth of their entire force was concerned in the department of delivery.

This man added significantly that one-twentieth of their work was out on approval and liable to be returned at any time. "This makes us keep much larger stocks than we would otherwise find necessary, and taken all together the cost of that slogan 'If you are not satisfied bring it back,' is actually thousands of dollars monthly."

Of course, the merchants themselves are somewhat to blame for this state of affairs. The modern sales methods require a spartan spirit of a woman to go into a great department store and see the tables filled with bargains and not fall for the temptation.

In the easy and luxurious days that have gone the house of the average family has been run on a go-as-you-please schedule. The merchant has found that whatever he tempted the women to buy, the complacent head of the family managed in some way to pay for.

Today the war crisis has found the American home quite as unprepared as the nation.

Put your household on a budget system. You will find it will rob you of much of the monotony of household tasks and much of the worry that the household bills entail. There is no reason why so much should not be put aside for food and the meals of the family kept within that sum.

Pacific Coast Champion Woman Trapshot.

In starting gun clubs or joining them I would advise women not to shoot more than 15 clay targets a week. Make that the limit, not to be exceeded, no matter how enthusiastic you may become.

Thus women of the most moderate means can indulge in the sport. Otherwise the expense becomes a bar to the very women who need this kind of recreation most—those who work at home or in shops and who are indoors most of the week.

Clay birds cost 1½ cents each, and shotgun shells range from 85 cents to $1.10 per box of 25. Good serviceable shotguns can be had for from $10 to $30. Small bore rifles for less.

They may also be borrowed from brothers and husbands.

I use a 12 gauge pump gun, costing $30, for all my trapshooting.

And I shoot only every other week, one day. More than that will tend to make one "stale," as we say—out of form.

I have seen some wonderful changes in women who have taken up this recreation.

About a year ago I shot with a woman who was just beginning—a pampered, soft house-woman who had always been waited on and deferred to because of her station and her sex. She was snobbish, hateful and extremely jealous.

The other day I met her again on the field. That year of shooting, of association with sportsmen, of taking her medicine when beaten, and of no sex deference had remade her into a wholesome, kindly, democratic woman. The snobbery and pettiness had all gone up in smoke.

That is typical. Every woman who takes up trap or field shooting is greatly benefited and broadened, it has been my observation, during the five years I have wielded a gun.

Where but a score of women were shooting throughout the country five years ago there are today above 500. But as a woman's sport it is still in its infancy.

If you want a real thrill, and one that keeps its edge, get a gun and go afield.

(The End.)

OLD GLOVES CAN BE MADE OVER INTO BABY BOOTS.

Chamois is sometimes used for boottees for baby, and several clever mothers save all the upper sections of their long kid gloves and use them for the same purpose. Kid gloves are generally worn out first in the fingers or palm, and the upper part of discarded gloves is usually in good condition and is easily converted into soft, comfortable bootees.

Select a simple pattern and if it is a paper pattern with embroidery omit the latter, use carbon paper and trace only the outer lines, then cut out with scissors, make a plain edge, or cut it round in the form of scallops.

When chamois or kid is used work a loose buttonhole or blanket stitch around the edge, placing the stitches quite some distance apart. This prevents the leather from stretching and makes the bootees prettier. The sole and seam should be overcast with small stitches on the right side. The stitching should be of the same color as the leather or a shade darker and ribbon should be used to lace the bootee and hold it in its place.

VEGETABLE WATER GOOD FOR SEASONING SOUPS.

When cooking vegetables—carrots, asparagus and especially spinach—save the water, which is most delicately flavored and contains much of the mineral salts of the vegetable.

Use in making soup, thus eliminating the purchase of that particular vegeable for flavoring the stock.

Or, for a change, use it instead of milk, for making the various cream of vegetable soups. An extra amount of butter and a tablespoonful or two of cream, if desired, can be added to make up the necessary amount of fat.

PUPILS' RECITAL PLEASES.

An audience that demonstrated much pleasure over the rendering of every number of the program, heard Miss Kay Spencer's pupils in recital in Elks' hall on Tuesday evening. Seven of the young women sang solos and others assisted in a chorus of women's voices that opened the program by singing the "Star Spangled Banner" and gave three other selections besides. Miss Pauline Woods accompanied the chorus. Other voice work was done by Miss Glen Hoover, of Ossian, who has a sweet and clear soprano; Miss Mable Loomis, of Kendallville, who, in addition to a voice of good quality, has plenty of natural expression; Miss Ilow Elzy, of Ossian, who has a pretty voice and pleasing manner; Miss Helen Ault, of this city, who has accomplished much in vocalization and style; Mrs. Winona Davis, of Auburn, who not only has quality and power, but who sings delightfully; Miss Ruth Gumpper, whose work is always pleasing, and who did remarkably well, particularly in "Happy Song," and Miss Afton Wolf, who repeated, by request, "Lo, Hear the Gentle Lark," which she sings very well, indeed. Miss Leah Gardner gave a brilliant rendition of a Rubenstein etude and played beautiful accompaniments to the singers. A trio for violins was well played by Mr. Patterson, Misses Mess and Roos and Paul Gregg, in flute obligato to Miss Wolf, demonstrated again his splendid acquirements on that instrument.

FIREWORKS DISPLAY AT COUNCIL SESSION

Killea Street Sidewalk Matter Agitates Warm Word Wrangle.

A premature fireworks exhibit shook the council session Tuesday evening. Explosive and scintillating sentences made up the pyrotechnic display. Rigorous retorts were rampant. Every council member sought a part in the verbal holocaust.

The matter of the placing of sidewalks along Killea avenue, from Webster street to Calhoun street, proved the fire brand. It's virility gave the flame of life to what had promised to be a prolix session of the city body.

Louis S. C. Schroeder, former president of the council, had a part in discharging the flashing phrase rockets. He had been invited to take a position at the side of Council President William Bayer. Schroeder sat on the raised platform to the right of the presiding officer.

When the subject of placing sidewalks on Killea avenue was mentioned, Mr. Schroeder arose and spoke in behalf of the installing of the walks. He explained that a heavy damage suit might be headed off by repairing the sidewalks. Baby carriages have to be wheeled in the street, along the two squares in question, because there are no sidewalks, he told. He urged that the committee on streets and alleys make a favorable report on the topic of installing walks along the street.

Councilman Herman Korte, representing the Tenth ward, leaped to his feet. He is a member of the streets and alleys committee. He had stated earlier in the evening that the committee was not ready to make a report.

"What kind of a meeting is this?" inquired Korte in stentorian accents. "What right has this man to tell the council what to do?" asked the council member, looking straight at Schroeder. "Is he presiding over the council? It looks like it. What right has he to sit by our president? Why don't he take a place at the back of the room like other visitors do? I object to such conduct."

Several councilmen sprang from their seats. There was a general shouting of "Mr. President." Mr. Schroeder sought to speak.

Councilman Smith was granted the floor and told why Schroeder was in his position of honor. He proclaimed the right of Schroeder to talk in the meeting. Other members defended the action of Schroeder.

"He can't come here and tell the committee what to do," retorted Korte.

After a heated debate in which council members from three wards told that walks in their neighborhood also needed repairing, it was decided that the streets and alleys committee, made up of Korte, Offenloch and Johns, could report at the next meeting.

Residents of the Killea avenue vicinity do not appear to desire the installing of sidewalks. Councilman Offenloch says that they object because of high price of materials and because they have just finished the paving of the street. All council members agreed that there should be a suitable sidewalk laid along the avenue. It is expected that a report favoring the placing of the walks will be made at the next session.

The council passed an ordinance appropriating $4,000 to the sewer repair account. An ordinance naming the street between Cornell and Seminole circles, Radio lane, was also passed.

The contract between the board of works and the General Electric works, providing for a spur track along Wall street, was ratified.

Newer Blouse Styles and Better Blouse Values

FOR the great growth and popularity of our Blouse Department there was—as there must be for every effect—a sound, valid cause. This might be briefly summed up in the words, "Newer blouse styles and better blouse values." Back of this, however—and what accounts for this condition—is our intimate co-operation with the manufacturers—whereby large savings in making and selling costs are put into the Waists—and the new styles are sent to us as soon as they are created.

BUILT NEW BARN IN FIFTEEN DAYS

Then Entire Neighborhood in Whitley County Helps Raise It.

Columbia City, Ind., June 27.—A barn 32 by 52 with a straw mow 32 feet square, was built in fifteen and one-half days on the farm of J. W. Marker, in Troy township. Joseph Hildebrand, of Packerton, Ind., and his crew of five men, consisting of Clarence Sisck, Chester Deafenbaugh, Percy Deafenbaugh, John Fruit and Alvin Brallier did the work. Four days after they begun work the barn was raised with one hundred and sixty-two people present. All the neighbors and friends were invited. Cyrus Kaiser superintended the cooking of the beef and potatoes in a large iron kettle in the yard, while J. P. Bills was chief cook and bottle washer.

WOMAN IS ELECTED.

Portland, Ind., June 27.—For the first time in the history of the city schools a woman will be upon the school board. Miss Katheryn Humphries has been elected to serve for one year to fill out the unexpired term held by Albert Lara. Miss Humphries is secretary in the People's bank. The second member elected to fill the place made vacant by C. S. Bishop is Frank Gillespie, of the law firm of Moran and Gillespie. Miss Humphries was not a candidate from any faction of women of the city, but was chosen by the city council, her election being a surprise to everyone and an agreeable one.

$14,500 IS RAISED.

Warsaw, Ind., June 27.—The finance committee of the Kosciusko Red Cross, through its chairman, James Frazer, has reported that in round numbers the Red Cross subscription of Kosciusko county will overrun $4,000, that instead of $10,500, Kosciusko has raised $14,500. It is impossible to give the exact figures at this time, for the reason that the reports from various townships will not be fully compiled by the finance committee until the last of this week. However, the committee is quite certain that Kosciusko has done great credit to herself by a surplusage of $4,000.

CYCLIST INJURED.

Kendallville, Ind., June 27.—S. E. Temple, employed at the McCray factory, was severely injured Tuesday noon when he struck a clothesline on Garden street while riding a bicycle. He was on his way home and in the effort to pass another bicyclist, rode into a yard and ran directly into the clothesline, which struck him across the face and severely wrenched his neck. He later became unconscious. The Chappell ambulance was called and took him to his home. Late in the afternoon he was reported to be resting easy.

PREPARING FOR CAMPAIGN.

CELEBRATION AT HUNTINGTON.

Huntington, Ind., June 27.—Partly completed plans have been made for an American day Fourth of July in Huntington, with a flag raising by the G. A. R., an address and other exercises. Invitations were sent out Monday to Warren, Bippus, Markle, Roanoke and Andrews to attend. Some of these places will have exercises of their own, but it is believed that they will not regard the invitation to Huntington as an encroachment on their own plans. Claude Bowers, of Fort Wayne, will be the speaker.

PORTLAND PIONEER DEAD.

Portland, Ind., June 27.—Mrs. Sarah Perdieu, one of the oldest residents of the city, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. F. Fowler, of Shelbyville, Ind., Monday. Mrs. Perdieu was 81 years of age. Her husband was one of the pioneer lawyers of eastern Indiana. Three sons reside in Portland: T. C. Perdieu, E. C. Perdieu and Charles Perdieu. The remains arrived in Portland Tuesday afternoon and were taken to her home in South Portland.

HUNTINGTON MEN PASSED.

Huntington, Ind., June 27.—All of Huntington county's young men at the Fort Harrison training camp passed the physical examination which was held last week. Some of the men were not as lucky as the Huntington contingent. Twenty-eight men of one company were dismissed and sent home because they could not pass.

MARRIED AT HILLSDALE.

Hillsdale, Mich., June 27.—Two couples were married Monday afternoon by Rev. Louis DeLamarter at the Methodist church. They were: Verne E. Smith and Miss Vera B. Zimmerman, of Kendallville, Ind., and Harve W. McKean and Miss Lulu E. Bollinger, of Adams county, Indiana.

SHOOTS SELF BY ACCIDENT.

Decatur, Ind., June 27.—While handling a revolver Sunday Vernon Lyons, a young man residing near Pleasant Mills, accidentally shot himself in the leg, inflicting an ugly wound that will lay him up for some time. The ball passed entirely through the lower part of the limb, tearing an ugly hole as it went. He was taken to a physician, where the injury was dressed and, unless complications develop, it is thought he will have a speedy recovery. He is, however, assured of a very sore leg for some time to come. The young man is about 21 years old.

$14,200 IN DEKALB.

Auburn, Ind., June 27.—With a subscription amount nearly doubling the apportionment for DeKalb county, Chairman C. M. Brown, of the Red Cross war fund, was enabled to report to national headquarters Tuesday that the total sum of $14,200.69 had been subscribed.

NO FOOD FOR TRAMPS.

Huntington, Ind., June 27.—The Huntington council of defense at a meeting Saturday issued a request to Huntington housewives not to feed tramps, in order to make it necessary for transients to produce something in order to feed themselves.

Since the beginning of the war, Canada has provided 414,402 volunteers for active military duty, and, in addition, has sent 21,250 British reservists and 10,000 men for the aerial and naval services.

"DEAR,-Stop Your Dandruff by using Pompeian HAIR Massage."

"Dandruff has made your hair straggly, thin looking and lifeless. Your coat collar is always covered with ugly scales. Stop your Dandruff now. You can. Just look at my hair. The Dandruff is entirely gone and almost overnight Pompeian HAIR Massage made my hair attractive."

The success of Pompeian HAIR Massage is in its name—"Massage." It is a treatment, not merely a tonic. The massaging (rubbing) of the scalp wakes up the roots of the hair to new life. This massaging also opens the pores of the scalp to the wonderfully stimulating liquids in Pompeian HAIR Massage. Dandruff goes. Your hair will become and stay healthy, vigorous, attractive.

All that is needed is a little massaging once or twice a week. One application shows results. Your scalp will immediately feel clean and invigorated. In one month your Dandruff will be gone.

Pompeian HAIR Massage is a clear amber liquid. Not oily. Not sticky. Very pleasant to use.

"Greatest treatment for Dandruff in the world," says J. A. Y., Chicago, Ill., "and I speak from experience. STORM PLAYS HAVOC IN COLUMBIA CITY

(Special to The Sentinel.)

Columbia City, Ind., June 27.—Two 2,300 volt high tension city wires were torn down during the storm Tuesday noon when the wind broke two large branches from a tree standing near the alley on the Judd Smith premises on South Chauncey street. Practically all of the city was deprived of current until linemen could remedy the damage an hour later. The high tension wires as they fell came into contact with the lines of the Whitley County Telephone Co. and the heavy current became grounded in them, resulting in the burning out of several telephones. The Etna and Larwill trunk lines and several city telephones of the Farmers' Mutual Telephone Co. were also burned out during the storm Tuesday afternoon.

F. Null and Drs. F. G. Grisier and O. V. Schuman and he will be taken to Longcliff asylum as soon as admitted.

GLAD HAND IS EXTENDED

SESSIONS CONTINUE FOR THREE DAYS

Various Committee Members Are Named at Opening Meeting.

Attorney Guy Colerick delivered the address of welcome to the delegates to the convention of the Indiana Jewelers' association which opened in the Anthony hotel Wednesday morning. Mayor William J. Hosey was scheduled to give the address but on account of his absence out of the city Attorney Colerick consented to take his place.

The speaker invited the fifty or more delegates who had gathered at the morning session to partake of all the conveniences which this city provides. F. S. Crebs, second vice president of the organization, of Frankfort, Ind., responded to the address and said that in behalf of the association he thanked Fort Wayne, noted for its business enterprises and the city of homes, for the hospitality already shown and for the cordial greeting extended.

Rev. A. J. Folsom, pastor of the Plymouth Congregational church, led in prayer immediately after the meeting had been called to order by President Otto. The president delivered his address at the morning session and said that statistics showed that the members of their craft were among the first to respond to the nation's call for men. He thanked the members of the association who assisted in overthrowing the proposed law which would have placed a heavy tax on all jewelers.

H. L. Rost, the first president of the association, and J. A. Oswald, the first secretary, were called upon at the morning session to make a few remarks. They were greeted with a hearty applause.

The following committees were reappointed at the morning session:

Resolutions — Walter H. Mellor, Michigan City; H. L. Rost, Columbus; Geo. F. Beach, Valparaiso; James Scribner, Attica; W. A. Howard, Rochester.

Afternoon Session.

When the afternoon session opened at 1:30 o'clock many of the chairs, which were vacant at the morning session, were occupied. During the noon hour all the delegates visited room 30 in the hotel and viewed the exhibit of cut glassware and painted china in charge of George Switzer, who represents the Cambridge Cut Glass company. Many declared that it was the finest exhibit they had ever seen.

Hon. Samuel M. Foster, president of the German-American bank, addressed the delegates at the afternoon session. An address on "National Association, Its Importance to the Retail Jewelers," was delivered by Charles T. Evans, president of the A. N. R. J. A.

Immediately after the close of the afternoon session the delegates were taken for a twenty-five mile ride about the city. The trip will end at the Country club, where a 6 o'clock dinner will be served, followed by an informal dance.

The convention will resume Thursday morning at 9:30 o'clock. This will be a closed session for members only. The ladies who are attending the convention will visit Robison park Thursday afternoon, where a business session will be held.

PIONEER RESIDENT ANSWERS SUMMONS

Mrs. Catherine Bothner Had Lived in City for Past 59 Years.

Mrs. Catherine Bothner, aged 67 years, one of the pioneer women of the city, died at her home, 1018 Calhoun street, Tuesday night. Death was due to a stroke of apoplexy. The deceased was the widow of John G. Bothner. She was born in St. Joe township in 1850, but had lived in Fort Wayne since she was eight years old. She was prominent in church circles, being a member of the St. Mary's Catholic church and the Altar society. From her long residence in the city Mrs. Bothner had acquired a wide circle of friends and acquaintances, who will mourn her death. The deceased had suffered a first stroke of apoplexy about ten weeks ago, but had shown signs of recovery, until a week ago, when another stroke followed, which resulted in her death. All through her illness Mrs. Bothner had been patient and uncomplaining, and her noble qualities had endeared her to many. Surviving are a son and daughter, John and Anna Bothner, who lived with the deceased, and two sisters, Mrs. Christina Pierr and Miss Barbara Leuthner.

MRS. CATHERINE BOTHNER.

WAR NO HINDRANCE TO MAIL BUSINESS

Business is good at the postoffice since the United States entered the world war. The receipts for all kinds of transactions at the Fort Wayne office have run farahead of those for last year, since war was declared.

Balance for the first twenty days of June show that the present month has already run $3,000 in advance of the business done for the same period of June in 1916. There has been heavier mail traffic in every branch of the service, it is given out.

FOUR ARE WRITING IN CIVIL SERVICE EXAM.

One woman and three men were engaged in taking the civil service examination, given on the second floor of the federal building, Wednesday. The young woman and one of the male applicants are trying to enter the United States stenographic service. Two young men seek entrance into a national naval academy.

SHOULD HAVE MORE MEMBERS

Such is Opinion of Officials of Red Cross Society.

Small Towns and Churches Are Giving Great Help to Local Chapter.

While Fort Wayne never falls down in any worthy endeavor, officials of the local chapter of the Red Cross society are of the opinion that local citizens have not been sufficiently aroused to the purpose of the Red Cross and the imperative need of every patriotic citizen being identified with it.

There are at the present time between 5,000 and 6,000 members of the Fort Wayne chapter, not including the auxiliaries that have asked to join this chapter. Officials are of the opinion that Fort Wayne, with its population of 80,000, should have easily between 15,000 and 20,000 members. The following table shows what a few New York cities are doing in Red Cross membership:

	Pop.	Mem.
Ithaca	14,000	3,800
Olean	14,700	4,600
Little Falls	12,000	3,200
Ilion	13,000	3,000
Bradford	13,500	5,000

The above figures do not include auxiliaries.

Before war was declared with Germany the chapter at Detroit had a membership of 25,000. On April 30, the membership was 75,000 and will now exceed 100,000. Detroit's population is 700,500.

The membership fee is $1, half of which remains with the local chapter and the other half is forwarded to the national headquarters. Application for membership may be made at Red Cross headquarters on East Berry street.

Work at Headquarters.

Enthusiasm in the work of the Red Cross has not lessened since the close of the great campaign in Allen county to raise $100,000. Workers at the headquarters on East Berry street are actively engaged in the sewing and cutting of garments, and in attendance at the classes in the home care of the sick. A large class was present Tuesday night and Wednesday morning, working on fracture pillows. More volunteers are wanted at the headquarters, however, and the work of every person who reports will be appreciated.

A contribution of $5 was received at the headquarters from Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Thiebolt, of 736 West Berry street. The auxiliary chapter at Kendallville is reported as doing some fine work. Wednesday morning several workers from that town called at headquarters with a supply of finished garments, and asked for more for work in the coming week. The ladies of the Cathedral are also doing splendid work, it was reported at headquarters. Twenty-five new members were received Tuesday.

Mrs. Calvin at Antwerp.

Mrs. W. D. Calvin, general secretary of the Fort Wayne chapter, accompanied by Mrs. H. L. Askew and Miss Frances Ott, Red Cross nurse in charge of the home care of sick classes, were the principal speakers at an enthusiastic Red Cross meeting at Antwerp, O., Tuesday evening. Mrs. Calvin spoke on proper methods of organization, pointing out that if the rules of the society as sent out from national headquarters at Washington, D. C., are strictly followed there will be no trouble. Mrs. Askew, a member of the woman's committee of the Fort Wayne chapter, told of the work of that committee, its functions and its duties as defined by national headquarters. Miss Ott told of her work here in the classes for the home care of the sick.

The Antwerp auxiliary is a branch of the Paulding chapter. Mrs. Calvin has been invited to attend a Red Cross meeting to be held in Paulding, O., within the next few days.

Mrs. Guy Bassett and children are now at their summer home at Clear Lake. Mr. Bassett joins them for week-ends and his vacation.

NAVY HONOR ROLL.

Leander Finley, Fort Wayne; Bruce J. Carey, Huntington; William White, La Motte, Ind.

Results of the big campaign waged for recruits by the United States army recruiting station here and beginning to show up. Where for the past few weeks the number of enlistments has been four or five a day, Tuesday it was thirty-five.

A meeting was held at the plant of the General Electric company Wednesday noon and the hundreds of young men who attended listened to talks by Rev. C. Claud Travis and Capt. Thomas Ryan. Rev. Travis pointed out the path of duty to young men at the present time, especially that of men without the responsibilities of families who can feel much more free to serve the country in the field than those upon whom others are dependent. Captain Ryan told of the need for men and of the hopes of those in charge of the army that 70,000 red-blooded American young men could be secured without the aid of conscription.

Wednesday afternoon Captain Ryan went to Mishawaka to address a patriotic gathering, while Sergeant Turner with the Jefferson drum corps left for Wabash to attend a meeting there. Thursday afternoon some of the force from the office will go to Garrett to attend and address the Firemen's convention.

Repetitions of the band concert given last evening at the southeast corner of the court house will be given Thursday and Saturday nights, with the largest and final one scheduled for the latter evening. Some of the city's best speakers will give short addresses and the final drive in the big campaign for recruits will be made at this time.

DES MOINES GETS CAMP.

Washington, June 27.—Des Moines, Iowa, was finally confirmed today by Secretary Baker as the site of one of the sixteen national army cantonment sites after receipt of a supplemental report from Major General Barry, commanding the central department. The general stated that after personal examination of the ground he was entirely satisfied of its suitability for military purposes.

BIG PAYMENT ON THE LIBERTY LOAN IS DUE

Government Arranges for a Way That Will Spare Money Market.

New York, June 27.—Distribution by the federal reserve bank of between $80,000,000 and $100,000,000, received in payment on liberty loan subscriptions, began here today to the various banks and trust companies in the second federal reserve district, which have qualified as liberty loan depositories on liberty loan funds.

It was announced that the second installment of 13 per cent. on the liberty loan, amounting to $360,000,000, which is due today, will not have to be paid out by the depistory banks.

Instead these funds will be retained and by a bookkeeping arrangement they will be placed to the credit of the government. It was said this action was taken because the withdrawal of such a large sum from the banks at this time might be followed by serious disturbances in the money market.

Summary of the Day's War News

(By The Associated Press.)

While General Haig is closing in so closely upon Lens that the capture by the British of that coal-mining city and its adjacetn fields seems imminent, it is a question whether the British operation will be accompanied by any offensive move by the French on a like scale.

Although there has been more or less constant jockeying for position by the two commanders along the Aisne and Champagne fronts, particularly the former, the German activities appear more like efforts to choke off any possible extended movement by the French than anything else. On the other hand General Petain's occasional strokes gives the impression that all he is trying to do is to preserve his vantage points as the basis for resuming the French advance at some futuro time when that effort seems advisable.

The most important of the recent French drives was that of Monday at Hurtebeis, west of Craonne. The Germans seem to have suffered a considerable deprivation here, one of the positions taken being a fortress of some magnitude which had served the crown prince well as a point of departure for counter-attacks. No further attempts to retake the lost ground at Hurtebeis were made last night, the Germans contenting themselves with a spirited bombardment.

Cumulative evidence that all Russian opinion of influential character is now definitely set against any idea of a separate peace continues to come from Petrograd. The powerful pro-Russian efforts of soldiers and workmen's councils is emphasized on this point in a resolution adopted by an overwhelming majority.

The program of the entente in Greece continues to develop more and more tangibly. It is now evident that it is their purpose to cause the convocation of the parliament of May 31, 1915, which was controlled by the Venizelists have a majority for the entente cause. It was the dissolution of this parliament by Constantine that has been denounced as unconstitutional by the allies, the act being one of the chief counts of the indictment of Constantine as a betrayer of his people into a desertion of their natural allies.

Sinking of several vessels by German submarines or mines is reported. The list includes the American sailing ship Galena, of 1,048 tons, sunk by a bomb off the coast of France, on June 25. The sinking was unaccompanied by casualties. The Norwegian steamers Konghaaken and Magie were other vessels sent to the bottom.

WHAT DOES THIS MEAN

John W. H. Koehler and Wife Deed Over Property to Aunt Emma.

PRICE SAID TO HAVE BEEN $3,000

"Sammy" is Slated to Appear in Court to Receive His Sentence Saturday.

A transfer of property was recorded in the county auditor's office and a deed for the same property was filed in the county recorder's office Wednesday morning, which is causing much talk.

John W. H. Koehler, familiarly known as "Sammy," and his wife, deeded over lot No. 197 of Fairfield Height's addition, and part of lot No. 1, of the Koehler estate, to Emma Koehler, an aunt of Sammy's. The price of the property is said to have been $3,000.

It will be remembered that "Sammy" was found guilty of criminal assault on a fourteen-year-old girl by a jury in the circuit court last week. He was released on a $3,000 bail furnished by his aunt, Emma Koehler, and his brother, Mike Koehler. "Sammy" is slated to appear before Judge W. H. Eichorn next Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock to receive his sentence. He has his freedom until that time.

Officials have been notified of the property transaction. Koehler has been seen on the downtown streets several times since he gained his liberty from the county jail, when his aunt and brother furnished a real estate bail.

SHIFTS MARK BUSY POSTOFFICE LIFE

Five changes in the roster of the postoffice force marked the activities of Wednesday at the mail distributing center. Leslie Maxwell, city carrier No. 37, resigned his position to take effect at once. William Hackmyer, senior substitute carrier, is promoted to take his place. Albert Heft is also advanced to regular city carrier.

Oswald C. P. Brudi, chief registration clerk, gave up his position to take employment with the S. F. Bowser company. He will not leave his postoffice work until July 2. His place will be filled by a general shifting of the clerical force. John R. Erwin, senior substitute clerk, will be made a regular clerk.

SECRET SERVICE MAN IS WORKING IN CITY

Investigation of conditions, which have been reported from Fort Wayne, are being made by a government secret service representative. Thomas E. Hall, of Indianapolis, is the federal agent who arrived in the city on Tuesday afternoon. He is one of the most efficient of the United States secret service men in Indiana. It is not given out how long he will be in Fort Wayne nor the exact nature of his investigation.

E. M. Gnau, an apprentice at the Pennsylvania shops, is sick and off duty.

With the Kind Permission of Weather, Chiefs Will Play Today

Evansville Here for Three Day Visit Starting With Tomorrow's Game.

With the kind permission of the weather, which is ruling almost everything lately, the Chiefs were to play ball this afternoon. It is the final day of the series with Richmond, and as yet the visiting players have not tried wearing their uniforms. They made room for Honus Wagner and the Pirates Monday; they were all set to play yesterday, and it rained; they were slated for a double-header today, and—watch it.

Today's double-header was more than important for it was to be the first of a series of boys' days. All boys under 15 will be admitted on these occasions which will come at regular intervals during the vacation season. Both Manager Vandagrift and Secretary Essig are keen on having the youngsters attend, for they like to have the boys enjoy the games and like to hear them pull for the home club.

After today we will have with us Punch Knoll and his gang from Evansville. The Evas are a strong lot of athletes and the Chiefs will have to kick up a bunch of dust—if there is such a thing—to make any headway in getting out of the hole. For three days the Punchers will cavort around the local lot, after which the Chiefs will go to South Bend for three days. They will return from there bringing the Benders with them for the Fourth of July contest, and a few after that.

BOB GROOM, ONE OF BASEBALL'S VETERANS, IMPROVES WITH AGE; MAY HAVE HIS BEST SEASON THIS YEAR

(By Paul Purman.)

Some pitchers go along season after season without attracting much attention until a glance over their records show that they have really been pitching remarkable ball without anyone knowing about it.

Usually their work has been overshadowed by some brilliant star on their club and their consistent work is lost sight of as a result.

Matthewson caused the really wonderful work of Red Ames to be forgotten and Ames has gone along for years without reciving the credit he really deserves.

Bob Groom has gone along in the American and Federal leagues for more than a decade for the same reason.

He was at Washington at a time when Washington meant Walter Johnson with a big "W" and a capital "J." and when Groom jumped to the St. Louis Feds no particular attention was paid to it.

But Groom's work this year, when he has really passed the best years of his pitching career, as such careers are measured, deserves more than passing attention.

Groom, playing with a losing club, has won half his games, has pitched in more games than any other member of his club, except one, and than any pitcher in the league with three exceptions.

In these games he has allowed less than 2.50 earned runs per game and has come through with one no-hit and several low-hit contests.

With the exception of 1916 he is pitching better ball than ever, and along with Eddie Cicotte, Red Ames, Jack Coombs and a few others may be regarded as a direct refutation to the old-time baseball adage that a man's first years are his best.

BOB GROOM

BEST SEMI-PRO GAME OF THE SEASON NEXT

What is expected to be the best semi-pro game of the season here will be played next Sunday with the Chicago Keystones furnishing the opposition to Mart Cleary's Lincoln Life club. The Keystones make up one of the fastest clubs traveling out of the Windy city, and they will give the insurance men the time of their lives trying to put over a win. McWeeney, of the Dubuque Central association club, will hurl for the visitors.

Oestermeyer, who has been going at a great rate for the policy venders, will oppose the leaguer and he will be backed up by Devilbiss on the receiving end. Hines is leaving the city on his vacation, and during his absence "Bud" will catch all the games. Weberus, one of the city's fastest infielders, has been signed and will play second base. The playing of the semi-pros has pleased many fans and a large turnout is expected as the Lincoln Lifes will appear here only once more during July.

SPORT CHATTER

Pretty soft for winning Chicago golfers.

They win potatoes and bacon in a tournament.

Pirates didn't lose the other day. They played a tie.

Umpire Gentle has been released by the Southern league. How could a guy with that kind of a name expect to get by as an umpire?

Scouts watch Brewers, comments a contem. Can't blame 'em with all this prohibition talk.

The Ace won a race the other day. Aces win in other things beside horse races.

Having called New York newspaper men a bunch of liars, Jawn McGraw seems to have another scrap on his hands.

HUMAN BULLET MARRIED.

Johnny Maulbetsch Signs Contract and Keeps it Dark.

Holland, June 27.—John H. Maulbesch, 1916 Michigan football captain, signed a contract for life when he led Miss Ida Elizabeth Cappon, of this city, to the altar. Although the marriage was solemnized in Greenville a month ago, announcements of the nuptials came to the bride's friends here yesterday as a happy surprise. Mr. and Mrs. Baulbesch will locate in Enid, Okla., where Maulbetsch will hold a position as coach in athletics.

UNITED STATES OFFICERS PEEVED AT STATEMENTS OF BOXERS

According to reports from Washington military and naval authorities are losing their patience at boxers who are using publicity about their intended enlistments for personal advertising.

When the United States first entered the war Jess Willard gave out several interviews regarding his intended enlistment. He even went so far as to intimate later that he would have enlisted, but that the army wouldn't accept him on account of his size. Chicago recruiting officers denied this and Jess became strangely silent.

Benny Leonard made a public statement that he would enlist immediately after he won the lightweight title from Fred Welsh. He failed to enlist, and a couple of weeks later went to Washington and gave out an interview that he had gone to the navy department to make arrangements to enlist in the navy.

Leonard has not yet enlisted.

LOUIS ISLAND WILL GO WITH BATTERY D

When Battery D leaves here the latter part of this week or the first of next week its roll will include the name of one of the best athletes of the city, Louis Island. Louis went to headquarters last night and signed up, ready to do his bit as a true American wherever the unit may be ordered. He is a well known figure in local sport circles, having played on the Friar football team, coached amateur elevens and served in an official capacity at basketball games.

Island is a full blooded Indian of the Oneida tribe. He is a graduate of Carlisle university, and was a member of the varsity football squad in 1906 and 1907. In 1914 he came here as a member of the Jackson independents to play the Friars. The local football men took a liking to him and he played here the remainder of the season and all of 1915. He has been employed by the General eElctric company heree. When he leaves the city it will be with the best wishes of a host of friends and admirers.

THE RING AS I SAW IT By "Spider" Kelly

(By "Spider" Kelly King of Seconds).

"Young" Corbett was blamed a whole lot because he went back so quickly.

I watched Corbett start as a youngster and saw that from the first he had a hard time making weight. It was this difficulty of taking off flesh and holding his strength that put Corbett down.

Many people have no idea how this weight business worries a fighter. And those who are naturally chubby or inclined to adopt flesh go through misery. No matter how careful some are in what they eat and drink, they become heavy. And when this happens to a fighter who has to box at a certain weight it is a serious and discouraging proposition.

OFFICERS ELECTED.

Elder; vice chancellor, Samuel Randolph; prelate, Roy Bates; master-at-arms, J. M. Zollars; inner guard, J. W. Hostler; outer guard, J. D. Steinman; musical director, Charles Evarts; host, E. A. Sivits; representatives to grand lodge, J. H. McNamara and Peter Mumma.

Lima, O., June 27.—With ten entries already in the hands of the Lima Speedway company, July 4th races at the Lima Driving park give promise of eclipsing any like event ever staged in this city. Fully a dozen more entries are expected during this week and it may be necessary to run elimination to decide the entries for the main event.

Entries received so far include Ralph Ormsby, Fort Wayne, car unknown; J. C. Portz, Cleveland, Buick Special; Charles Mowery, Pittsburg, Stutz Special; Billy Knipper, Toledo, Knipper Special; Herbert Rudy, Lima, Lightning Comet; Glen Richardson, Warren, Ind., Baby Buick; Gail Dawson, Napoleon, O., Flying Maxwell; E. Knipper formerly was a member of the Richenbacker Maxwell racing team, and has driven in many big events. Rudy is at present holder of the Ohio state championship, and expects to experience no trouble in the coming races in maintaining his place at the top.

The program as arranged now will open with the 100 mile time trials in which all the cars will be entered. The driver making the fastest time will be given a silver trophy donated by the Lima chamber of commerce. The cup is on display at the Central drug store, Lima, where the reserved seats will be placed on sale June 29. Other events will be ten mile fast car race for cars who turn the mile in 1.12 or better; ten mile consolation race for cars not entered in event 2; Australian pursuit race for cars which will be picked from the four fastest cars in the trials, and fifteen mile free-for-all. Chicago, June 27.—Contestants for boxing championships of the United States naval training station at Great Lakes, Ill., announced themselves ready today for the deciding bouts tomorrow. James J. SENIOR MEETS

Of Central A. A. U. to Be Held at Stagg Field Saturday.

Chicago, June 27.—Despite the enlistment of many athletes in army and navy, more than 250 performers have entered in the central amateur athletic union senior track meets to be held Saturday on Stagg field at the university. The proceeds of the meet will go to purchase of an ambulance for service in France.

LITTLE GIANTS WILL CONTINUE ATHLETICS

Will Try to Secure the Release of Sheeks from the O. R. C.

Crawfordsville, Ind., June 27.—At a meeting of the athletic committee of the faculty and R. M. Rich, alumni member of the committee, it was decided to resume athletics at Wabash college next year. Football will be started as usual and it is believed twelve or more old men will be back for the nucleus of the 1917 eleven. The basketball, baseball and track schedules are being arranged and will contain about the same number of events as usual. Coach Paul P. Sheeks, now in the officers' training camp, may be had again, as high officials are trying to obtain his return to Wabash as military instructor of the Wabash battalion. Should it be impossible for him to return, some other well-known athlete will be engaged to take charge of the work.

The Wabash gymnasium will be finished before the start of the football season and the athletes will be comfortably housed in the new building.

Two tennis courts have been made and two more are in the process of construction. The authorities will put a new brick fence around the field to replace the old board one, and the field will be enlarged to make bleacher room on the east side of the field. Those in charge of athletics claim Wabash has a good crop of new men lined up who look promising, and the Little Giants of 1917-18 will be as strong as ever. The old men returning for the football season are: Stonebraker, Bacon, Captain Hannicker, Neal, Thompson, Cravens, Moses and Green, all letter men with a possibility of Lindsay, last year's find, at quarter. Haley, Mikels, Heald, Cravens, Tingley, Crone and a few of the second string men. The Wabash football schedule will be carried out as scheduled last winter.

MRS. GAVIN, METROPOLITAN WINNER, THREATENS MISS STIRLING'S TITLE

America and England are allies in the war, but America and England are foes in golf.

Mrs. W. A. Gavin is America's greatest foe on the links. She may dehtrone Miss Alexis Sterling, Atlanta's champion, and the greatest phenom the world has ever known.

Mrs. Gavin has won the metropolitan championship in New York and played such phenomenal golf that the best critics sat up and took notice.

Miss Sterling has played no golf this year, but this is not unusual as she was the "dark horse" last year when she won the national woman's championship, and she plays under the tutorship of Malcolm Stuart, who has advised her not to play against anybody who could not beat her.

The golfers who could beat Miss Sterling could be counted on your ten fingers. The American golfers who could beat her might be counted on the fingers of one hand and two of them live in her home town, Atlanta—Bobby Jones and Perry Adair.

Can Mrs. Gavin accomplish this?

"CHOPPING WOOD" BENEFICIAL— BRINGS ALL MUSCLES INTO PLAY

(By Jim Rice).

"Chopping wood" is an old exercise I learned as a young man up in Canada in the summer time. I don't mean chopping real wood with a real axe, but just going through all the movements of a man felling a tree.

Take up a stand as you would if you were about to commence to fell a big oak. Hack away at the old trunk with all the vim you can command. Imagine yourself a champion lumberman giving an exhibition of chopping against time. Keep putting your feet in different positions as if you were moving in order to get a better position for hacking.

When you begin to get puffed and tired start working away with the axe from the other shoulder. This will bring into play a different set of muscles than you were using at first and you will be able to continue at your task with comparative freshness.

After about ten minutes of this strenuous exercise you will at first have had about enough. You will probably be in a good perspiration and ready for the cold shower and rub down with a rough towel.

GREAT CONSERVATION OF FOOD CONVENTION

W. J. Bryan, Governor Goodrich and Prof. Christie to Be in Plymouth.

Plymouth, Ind., June 27.—Arrangements have been completed wherein Governor James P. Goodrich, Prof. G. I. Christie and W. J. Bryan will speak at Plymouth, Ind., July 9, on the subject of "Food Conservation." The bringing together of these national characters has been accomplished through the efforts of Hon. James K. Risk, of Lafayette, in co-operation with Plymouth citizens, and offers an opportunity to the citizens of Indiana to attend and come in touch with a food conservation meeting of national scope. Every citizen of the state and especially the northern half of Indiana should not fail to take advantage of this opportunity and join the crowd to hear these prominent speakers on the all absorbing subject of food conservation.

The meeting will be presided over by Governor James P. Goodrich, of Indiana, who will deliver the opening address.

Prof. G. I. Christie is in charge of the agricultural extension work at Purdue university, and also has charge of the Indiana food conservation. The professor is carrying on a marvelous campaign in the interest of food production and conservation in Indiana. The extension department of Purdue university of which Professor Christie is in direct charge has field men in every county in the state, through which much interest is being manifested in behalf of this meeting.

Hon. W. J. Bryan is speaking for the federal government, under the directions of both the president of the United States and the secretary of the department of agriculture. Mr. Bryan arranged to deliver one address in Indiana on July 9. Professor Christie in order to suit Mr. Bryan's convenience arranged this meeting at Plymouth, Ind., as Mr. Bryan was scheduled for an evening address at Winona.

The women of northern Indiana like the women in every section of this wonderful country, play a very important part in food conservation and food production, and they undoubtedly will be intensely interested in complimenting Indiana's great governor and the nation's great commoner, with their presence at this meeting; as these two men have rendered to the women of Indiana, in the quite recent past, a great service in making it possible for women to have a voice and vote in her government.

In fact, it is hoped that all people of Indiana will honor themselves, by honoringfl these great leaders, by being present at what is expected to be the greatest and most important meeting that will be held in our state in the next decade. This is a meeting in the interest of humanity; a meeting for the purpose of creating enthusiasm for the growing of foods and conserving same.

In addition to the great addresses that will be delivered by Professor Christie, Governor Goodrich and Mr. Bryan, there will be music not only by our local bands, but many of the best bands of northern Indiana will be in attendance. Also, a flag will be offered to the county outside of Marshall, sending the largest auto delegation to the meeting.

Plymouth and Marshall county appreciate fully the honor that has come to them on this occasion and cordially invite the citizenship of the entire state to become their guests on July 9.

SYSTEMATIC CONTROL OF BACK LOT GARDENS

Thirty-Five Districts Will Include All City Truck Patches.

Efficiency in the organization of the city food resources is to include the apportioning of Fort Wayne into thirty-five garden districts. G. W. Gray, Purdue university food expert, was busily engaged on Wednesday in planning the boundaries of the city truck sections.

A supervisor will be appointed by the food relief committee to inspect all gardens for each district. He will inspect all gardens in his given section. He will have two or three assistants. The supervisor will be a man who has had much gardening experience and who can direct the care of the garden patches.

The supervisors will be named by the food relief committee within the next two days. They will be called before members of the committee for definite instructions as to their work.

The garden districts include fifteen blocks in the section of city including the business district. The sections are smaller at the out edge of the city where much of the ground is used for gardens.

City gardeners are requested to seek information as to proper cultivation of their plats, from the supervisors of their district. The district directors are to discourage neglect of gardens. They are to urge constant attention of the growing vegetables.

Much rainfall has made the care an unending work this spring. In making a tour of inspection Tuesday Superintendent Gray found several plats where weeds, which have been neglected but a few days, have grown to the height of the potato vines. The weeds must be kept down and the ground constantly loosened if plants are to reach their best yield, Gray points out.

Dr. A. E. Fauve, who holds a commission as first lieutenant in the mdical reserve corps, has been instructed to report to Fort Benjamin Harrison on July 1. Dr. Fauve will leave the first part of next week to take up his work at the training camp. It is not known how long he will be kept a tthe camp or to what point he will be sent from there, but there is a strong probability that he will see active service at the front before many weeks.

TAKE GRANDMA ALONG ON BOYS' DAY

Grandma goes so seldom, why don't you take her along on Boys' day? Take her to the Bijou building in the grove, where Miss Basteus will register her name and address. She will then receive her bit of the candy treat and a little souvenir of Boys' day from far off Japan. She will also be given one of the copper trail pennies. A dear old grandma who had always attended all the park's special days was called home in January. In her time worn and faded purse her daughter found a penny that grandma had gotten in the copper trail on Romp day. She was in the midst of the big scramble and she had won her battle just as she had won every other battle through her long years. Grandma will enjoy Boys' day, because it will recall her own happy childhood.

INSTALLING NEW MACHINERY.

The Pennsylvania millwrights have just completed the work of installing a new discharge header at the coal docks, just east of the round house, putting the docks in first class operating condition again. Arrangements are now under way for the installation of a modern heavy face and guide bar grinding machine in the machine shop, to take the place of a planer employed at present in doing that kind of work. The new machine has a table 134 feet long and is provided with a sixteen-horse power individual motor, being the most powerful machine of its kind in the city. It was built by the Diamond Machine company, of Providence, R. I.

TICKET AGENTS HAVE EATS.

A group of local passenger men were guests of Traveling Passenger Agent J. J. Testers, of the Burlington, at the Pennsylvania lines restaurant, Monday noon, the object being to give the local business hustlers opportunity to meet General Passenger Agent J. Francis, of the Burlington, who came down from Chicago for that purpose. Seated at the table with Mr. Francis and Mr. Testers, were P. Parnin, district passard Pierce, assistant ticket agent of senger agent of the Nickel Plate; Howthe Pennsylvania, and F. C. Eggers, local passenger agent of the Wabash. Hobrock, who had charge of the work on the Grand Rapids and Indiana system, is still on the north end of the line. Both will probably return tonight.

TAKES POSITION AT DENVER.

W. Large, for a week or two employed as a tester at the General Electric works, retires from the works Saturday and will leave soon afterwards for Denver, where he enters a two years' student course with the Henry L. Doherty corporation. This corporation controls 150 lighting and power plants in the country and the school it maintains at Denver is for the purpose of training young men for electrical expert work or superintendents of plants. They guarantee each pupil a good job at the close of his school term. Mr. Large is a son of Master Carpenter H. M. Large, of the G. R. & I.

FOUR SECTION MEN HURT.

A derailment and subsequent collision of hand cars on the Pennsylvania near Kirby, Ohio, at 3:45 o'clock yesterday afternoon resulted in painful injuries to four section men. The two hand cars were moving rapidly over the line in the same direction, running about 100 feet apart. The car in the lead suddenly became derailed, throwing two of the men off and injuring them. Before the second car could be stopped it dashed into the derailed car, knocking two more men off and hurting them. Nobody was killed and it is understood that the wounded are not seriously injured.

TELEGRAPH SERVICE KNOCKED OUT.

Lightning put the Grand Rapids telegraph lines north of this city out of commission for over three hours yesterday afternoon. It struck the sub-box at Wallen at 2 o'clock and it was 5:30 o'clock before the damage was repaired and the service restored. The telephone and telegraph service in the vicinity of Grable, on the Wabash, was also deranged yesterday afternoon, when the high winds carried three or four poles down and crossed the wires. The repairs were soon made.

WOMEN IN CONNEAUT SHOPS.

A dozen women are at work in the Conneaut shops of the Nickel Plate. Three are running drill presses and machines of that character and nine have been assigned the task of picking up scrap iron and kindred work in the shop yards, subject to transfer into the factory to operate machines whenever necessity occurs. It is said that the women so far have given satisfaction and that more of them will be put to work as soon as they can be secured. Men are scarce at Conneaut.

The "boys" in the Pennsylvania trainmaster's office are in receipt of a letter from U. A. Arnold, who enlisted in the medical department of the army several weeks ago and went to Fort Thomas. He is now located at Fort Benjamin Harrison in the capacity of stenographer to Major Ruffner. In settlement of a damage suit instituted by the heirs of Engineer W. J. Kisiman against the L. E. & W. company, the latter proposes to pay the plantiffs $4,500, providing the administrator executes a release from further liability. TWO WEEKS REMAIN IN WHICH TO APPLY

More Mature Men Wanted for Officers Reserve Training Camp.

Only two weeks remain for accepting applications to the second officers' reserve camp, which will open at Fort Benjamin Harrison August 27. The examining committee, under Captain E. H. Kilbourne, is meeting daily at the Commercial club at 1 o'clock at noon and at 7:30 in the evenings. A number of applications have been received to date, but not enough of the men that are desired by the government. The requirements for the second camp are extremely rigid, first as to age, and secondly as to military experience and executive ability. The quota for Indiana for the new camp is much lower than for the first and the branch committees are being instructed by the government to use utmost discretion in selecting men.

The last day for accepting applicants will be July 15, and shortly after that date army examiners will be sent to various points to examine the records of applicants who are considered suitable. Chairman E. H. Kilbourne, of the local examining board, wishes to impress upon men desiring admittance to the second camp, the requirements as to age and experience demanded by the government. Men below thirty-one are to be given little encouragement, unless they possess pre-eminent qualifications or have considerable military experience. The board will meet again Wednesday night and Thursday noon.

WOMEN WILL KEEP AT IT

Advised to Register for September Voting as Long as Possible.

COUNSEL EMPLOYED TO ADVISE STEPS

Register So Long as Clerks Will Permit, and Then Before Notary.

Indianapolis, Ind., June 27.—Plans for continuing the registration of women to vote for delegates to the constitutional convention were made today and instructions to "continue to register for the constitutional convention so long as the clerks will take registrations. Then register by notary," were sent broadcast in the state by Mrs. Richard Edwards, president of the Women's Franchise league of Indianapolis.

The message was sent to 160 branch leagues in the state. It follows the interpretations of a decision by a judge of the superior court here on Monday that the law giving women the right to vote for delegates to the convention is unconstitutional and registration must cease when an injunction is issued.

The same suit attacked the validity of the law, calling the constitutional convention but the court held that valid.

Mrs. Edwards said today she feels the franchise league won a victory by that part of the court's decision. Abram Simmons, of Bluffton, and Allison Stuart, of Lafayette, two lawyers retained by the women, made arguments in favor of the convention law. If the Indiana supreme court should overrule the decision of the lower court in holding that women cannot vote for the delegates, the women plan to file with the county clerks the registrations before notaries.

MAY FORCE BULGARIA TO BREAK RELATIONS

Germany Puts Her Ally Under Pressure to Cut Out America.

Copenhagen, June 27.—Although Bulgaria is opposed to breaking off relations with the United States, the fear is expressed, according to information reaching here, that Premier Radoslavoff may have been compelled to purchase concessions, for which he went to Berlin, by a sacrifice of American relations as part payment.

The influences against a break with the United States are of a twin nature, a sentimental character based on the influence of the American Roberts college education upon many prominent men of old and new Bulgaria and upon the respect for the faraway republic with no ax to grind in Bulgaria. The practical Bulgarian does not expect to see any thoroughgoing dominance of either of present power groups after the war. The only circumstances which would lead to native Bulgarian sentiment for a rupture with the United States would be, according to information received by The Associated Press correspondent, the appearance of American troops at Saloniki. Bulgaria having got possession of all advantages which are included in the present stage of its ambitions—Macedonia and Dobruga—and finding the burden of running even a minor power share of the world war a growing menace to its financial future, is a strong advocate of the Germany peace movement.

Premier Radoslavoff has talked peace both in Berlin and Vienna. The government dispatched a Bulgarian socialist deputation to Stockholm with its godspeed and instructions to work for peace, however, with the retention of Macedonia and at least southern Dobruga as an adequate essential. The plan for a so-called corridor cut from Serbian territory along the west bank of the Danube to join with Austria-Hungary is more an Austro-German than Bulgarian idea. Bulgarians are not particularly enthusiastic for it.

HOAX OF GRAVE NATURE SPRUNG OUT OF CHICAGO

Chicago, June 27.—A hoax of a serious nature was discovered here today when Mayor Thompson received a telegram from Secretary of State Lansing accepting an invitation to the Belgian mission to visit Chicago. In the midst of excitement over the school board row neither the mayor nor the city council extended such an invitation, investigation is said to have disclosed. Alderman R. H. McCormick, who entertained the Italian mission here recently, said that he would present a resolution for an invitation to the distinguished Belgians at the next council meeting Friday.

DANISH VESSEL TORPEDOED.

Washington, D. C., June 27.—Sinking of the Danish steamer Gunhild was reported to the state department today. Her survivors said the steamer was torpedoed without warning and sank before lifeboats could be lowered. Five of the crew were drowned. One was killed by the propeller. A destroyer rescued the remainder of the crew and two passengers twenty minutes after the ship was struck. There were no Americans aboard.

SOCIALIST OF INDIANAPOLIS IS IN TROUBLE

Indianapolis, June 27.—The case of Joseph Zimmerman, an Indianapolis socialist, who was arrested in South Bend Sunday because of a speech in which it is said he advised against enlisting in the army or navy and condemned the war, was taken over by the federal government today on affidavit made by George N. Murdock, an agent of the department of justice, charging violation of section 3 of the recently enacted espionage law. This is the first case under the new law in the state. Deputy United States marshals were to go to South Bend this afternoon to take charge of the prisoner. The maximum penalty under the law is a fine of $10,000 or twenty years' imprisonment, or both.

RED CROSS WELCOMES CATHOLIC SISTERS

No Purpose or Desire to Keep Them from Mercy Service in War.

Baltimore, Md., June 27.—To offset a malicious rumor which has been put in circulation that the American Red Cross was discriminating against the nursing sisterhoods of the Catholic church, Cardinal Gibbons took up the matter with the Red Cross, and has received a letter from Eliot Wadsworth, acting chairman of the American Red Cross, Washington, D. C., which says in part: "Your Eminence: The question of the attitude of the American Red Cross toward utilizing the services of nursing sisterhoods has been raised several times lately. It might almost appear from the form of some of these questions that a rumor was being deliberately circulated that the American Red Cross was in an unfavorable attitude toward allowing the sisterhoods to assist in the care of wounded soldiers and sailors.

"It seems advisable to state unequivocally to you at this time that members of the nursing sisterhoods may wear their official dress while serving as nurses under the Red Cross, and that the Red Cross has no desire in any way to debar the sisters on account of their dress, or on any other account, from serving their country as all other nurses will desire to do."

F. A. Huguenard, of Hanna street, and his niece, Miss Ethel Hayes, of Eliza street, have returned from Decatur.

Bert Spitler, Bartender, is Shown No Leniency by the Court.

Mrs. Alice Miller, 522 Calhoun street, was afraid to tell her husband about the visits which Bert Spitler, bartender, made to her boudoir because she thought he might fly into a rage, she told in police court Wednesday morning. She finally mustered courage to tell Mr. Miller when she realized that Spitler would not desist from his designs, she tearfully told Judge Kerr.

In the presence of the many eager-faced male spectators who filled the railed enclosure of the basement court Wednesday morning Mrs. Miller related to the judge how Spitler had taken advantage of the absence of her husband, who was working a night shift at the Dudlo plant, to enter her bedroom. She begged the man to leave her room, she told, holding her small baby in her arms as she testified.

Spitler, who was represented by an attorney, refused to testify in the case. He has been away from the city for a week since he was told to leave the home of the Millers. He was fined $35 and costs upon the charg of assault and battery.

"Next time a man comes into your room stick your head out of the window and call a policeman," Judge Kerr told Mrs. Miller.

Had No Card.

Lloyd Bland, colored, Melita street, registered for draft and yet he had no card to show. He says that no card was given him. The records proved that he had signed up in the city clerk's office. He was released from the charge of loitering. He will be given a registration card.

William Burton, colored, from Evansville, has no registration card, although he declares he signed for conscription. He will be held until July 2 to await investigation.

Lost His Patience.

R. M. Knough waited a year for Earl Nussbaum to meet the amount of a fraudulent check, which Nussbaum passed on the coal company, Kaough declares. Nussbaum has paid but $5 of the amount. He had Nussbaum arrested on Tuesday upon a charge of passing a fraudulent check.

Nussbaum, who is defended by an attorney, will be tried on Friday. He is at liberty under $100 bond.

Other Police Court Cases.

Elmer Lowry, 18, charged with attempting to burglarize the Lutz restaurant on Wells street, was released by Judge Kerr. He is to report in police court on July 30.

Ira Smith, railroad man, was able to pay $10 of the $15 demanded by Judge Kerr on Tuesday for support of Smith's child. The switchman promised to pay $15 per month for the keeping of his family in the future.

Cases of public intoxication were: Homer Converse, drunk at the recruiting station, fined $5; William Wallace, fined $5; Frank Smith, $1; Dan Brown, $1, and William Quinn, $1. James Anderson, Frank Davidson and Edward Goldride were released.

MAKING GOOD TO LIMIT.

Petersburg, Ind., June 27.—Lester Battle, aged 15, who has red hair, is also an ardent supporter of the Red Cross. To make his allegiance ocular, he enlisted the aid of a barber yesterday and today his head was cropped closely except at the back, where the hair was left in the form of a cross.

Gretna Green is a village of Dumfries, a border county of Scotland and near the border line between Scotland and England. Formerly a common resort of runaway couples from England, the practice was broken up by an act of 1856, which provides that no marriage should be valid in Scotland unless one of the parties had lived in Scotland for the twenty-one days next preceding the marriage, or had his or her usual residence there at the time.

Whereas, The party of the second part desires to procure a sidetrack connecting the main tracks of the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad Company and the Pennsylvania Company with the portion of the manufacturing plant of the party of the second part lying south of Wall street in order to facilitate the shipping of property of the party of the second part to and from the said portion of said plant, and

Whereas, The said Railroad Companies are unwilling in their name to construct and operate said sidetrack for said purposes.

LAKESIDE SWIMMERS MAY GET BATH HOUSE

Boys Who Plunge in Park Lake Have No Place to Change Clothes.

A temporary bath house may be erected by the side of the lagoon in Lakeside park for the benefit of boys who seek the cooling depths of the lake these sun-blessed days. Building of a shed may come as the result of objections from residents in the park neighborhood, who complain of the present facilities for the changing of garments of the swimmers.

The boys who take a "plunge" must wear their bathing suits from home or change apparel by the side of the lake. The lads who come from home with bathing trunks under their clothes must wear the wet togs back home. Many youngsters come from a distance and there is danger of bad colds in making the journey in wet garments. Others of the lads insist on changing their array near the water. This practice is the chief objectionto the present plan.

A conference between park officers and city officials may be held later to determine on definite action for conducting bathing in all park waters.

Driveway Opened.

The repair of the driveway across the Coombs street bridge has been completed and is now open for traffic. New flooring has not been laid as yet for the entire strip of sidewalks along the side of the bridge.

Subway Finished.

Hay Features Markets With a Two-Dollar Drop Wednesday.

Reports that wheat had dropped sensationally late Tuesday afternoon were found to be erroneous Wednesday, the grain continuing to sell at the prices set one week ago, $2.30@2.32. The fact that the grain is dropping all over the country probably led to the anticipation of a decrease in quotations by local dealers, but as yet none has been made.

Receipts on the wholesale department fell off considerably Wednesday and only fourteen loads were weighed at the city scales. Eleven of these were hay, which caused a slight sensation by falling $2 in spite of the small quantities for sale. The price now ranges from $11.00 to $13.00 per ton.

Two loads of corn brought $1.59@1.60 per bushel ,while one load of oats sold at 70c. The latter figure shows an increase of about 10c per bushel.

Prospect of Early Employment of Restraint is Depressing Factor.

Chicago, June 27.—Wheat prices showed a decided downward tendency today as a result of assertions that immediate embargo restrictions on wheat shipments from the United States were likely and that the Canadian surplus would be given preference in supplying European needs. Opening quotations, which ranged from the same as yesterday's finish to 1c lower, were followed by a sharp descent and then something of a rally which, however, failed to last.

Embargo talk had a bearish effect on corn as well as on wheat. After opening unchanged to 1c lower, recovered somewhat and later underwent a fresh sag all around.

Oats eased down a little in sympathy with other cereals.

OUTLOOK FOR EASIER MONEY HELPS STREET

Stock Market Displays Increase of Strength on Prospect.

New York, June 27.—Probability of easier money conditions as a result of the decision of the treasury department to distribute a large part of the liberty loan fund among local banks imparted general strength to the stock market at today's opening. War shares asserted their recent prominence, many of the more popular equipments rising a point or more with United States Steel, Motors and oils also rallied from their depression of the previous session and coppers and shippings were more steady. Later railway shares, especially coalers, became increasingly active at higher levels, Reading gaining a point and Pittsburg Coal two points.

United States Steel became the dominant issue of the forenoon on its rise of 2¾ points to 132½. Similar industrials also recorded advances of 1½ to 2½ points and coppers, shippings and petroleums developed greater strength. Inquiry for rails was light with consequent reactions in that quarter. Studebaker and Saxon Motors were among the few heavy stocks, with Ohio Gas, but exerted little adverse influence.

Activity in liberty bonds mostly at a premium of 1-50, with odd lots at 4-50, was the noteworthy feature of the firm bond market.

MAKING SEARCH FOR FIREWORKS IN GREAT CITY

New York, June 27.—Inspector Owen Egan, of the bureau of combustibles, today continued his search for fireworks. Four dealers were cited to appear before him and explain the possession of fireworks, and ten others arrested yesterday were convicted and fined, while fireworks to the estimated value of $2,000, have been seized. The police are cooperating with the bureau of combustibles in an effort to stop the unlawful sale of fire crackers and fireworks for use in Fourth of July celebrations.

DEMONSTRATION TO BE GIVEN BY RED CROSS

At the Big Fourth of July Celebration at Swinney Park.

Everyone attending the patriotic Fourth of July celebration at Swinney park will be privileged to see a practical demonstration of Red Cross work. Immediately following the afternoon program at the speaker's stand, a Red Cross and ambulance unit will give a battlefield exhibition. The purpose of this demonstration is not spectacular play or even entertainment, but education of a most serious present need.

The staging of this interesting feature of the day will take place either on the Camp Allen recruiting ground, directly across the St. Mary's river from the park, or within the open spaces of the driving course. Extensive arrangements are under way to make the exhibition realistic and impressive, and worthy of the patriotism expressing itself in the quiet and tender ministry of the Red Cross.

RAIN AND ELECTRICAL STORM PLAYS HAVOC

Lightning Hits Three Houses and Performs Many Queer Pranks.

Much damage was done by the frenzy of a rain and electrical storm which visited these parts Tuesday afternoon. Lightning struck three houses besides damaging telephone and telegraph lines. Rain fell in torrents and it is also reported that hail was plentiful in some sections. Thirty-three hundredths of an inch of rain fell during the storm.

Reports from the rural distrcits near the city are that the crops were somewhat damaged by the storm. The rain, hail and wind layed flat many oats and wheat fields. Cabbage plants were cut to pieces by the hail and tomato and potato stalks were stricken to the ground.

The lightning was fierce and the peals of thunder were deafening. The fuses in many street cars were burned out and telephone and telegraph wires were put out of commission. Railroad companies also state that their telegraph poles and wires were damaged.

The city fire department was kept busy during the storm answering three calls. In each instance houses had been struck by lightning resulting in small blazes. The first call was to the home of B. E. Smith, 1329 Dodge avenue. The second to the home of W. Schwager, 927 East Creighton avenue, and the third at the residence of M. Hahn, 443 East Leith street. The damage in each of the cases did not exceed $25 by fire.

In the fiscal year 1915-1916, the British postoffice collected nearly 11,000,000 letters and 876,000 parcels weekly for the troops abroad and handed them over to the army. It distributed £2,200,000 weekly in separation allowances to 2,700,000 persons.

The New Summer Number

Fairbanks, articles about the Rotary club and Elks lodge boy movement, a special editorial of interest to all insurance men and a beautiful four page pictorial section, along with the usual departments, will make this issue of The Wildwood Magazine a most valuable one. As the edition will soon be exhausted it would be well to order in advance, 15c per copy or 50c per year, from your dealer or address the Wildwood Magazine---Gaunt building, Fort Wayne, Indiana.

BARN ON THE JOHN SPINDLER FARM BURNS

Structure Reduced to Ashes After Being Struck by Lightning in Storm.

The frame barn on the farm of John Spindler, in Milan township, eleven miles from Fort Wayne, just off the Maysville road, was struck by lightning during the storm Tuesday afternoon and burned to the ground.

County Agent A. J. Hutchins, who had been in Harlan attending the address given by Mrs. Charles Sewell to the members of the Harlan Woman's Country club, was at the scene of the fire. None of the family was home and consequently nothing was saved.

The barn was 35x50 in dimensions, but luckily it contained no grain, hay or live stock. A binder, buggy, riding plow and a cultivator were consumed by the flames.

Mr. Hutchins stated that the storm which swept through this part of the country was one of th most severe ones he had ever experienced. He said the wind attaind a high velocity and wrecked many smaller buildings. He also said that there was not a farmer who did not lose more than two trees by lightning. All the smaller creeks were out of their banks.

CONSIDERING TWO TOWNS FOR COURSE

Farmers' Institute Will Be Held Either at New Haven or Monroeville.

G. M. Frier, the farmers' short course man from Purdue university, who was in Allen county Monday looking for a place for holding of a farmers' short course next year, left the city with two cities under consideration. New Haven and Monroeville are the two towns which are being kept in mind.

It has not been definitely decided as yet whther Allen county will secure the big or the small course next year. The big course includes a car load of live stock. Another town in Indiana is making a strong bid for the long course, but it is known that Mr. Frier favors Allen county in this respect.

The enthusiasm as shown by the farmers in the vicinity of the two towns where it is possible that the short course will be given will be one of the determining factors in making the selection, it is said.
